

your unshaken Resolution in maintaining the Protestant Cause, have firmly established your Throne, and endear'd you to your Subjects.

May you long reign over a loyal and obedient People; may Success ever attend your Councils and Arms; and may there never be wanting a Branch of your Royal House to defend the Rights and Liberties of your British Dominions.

Given under our Common Seal the 5th of June 1746.

The following Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain, has been presented to his Majesty by Colonel Leslie, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,
The humble Address of the Magistrates and Common Council of the Royal Borough of Perth in North Britain.

May it please your Majesty,
WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrates and Common Council of the Borough of Perth, now that in your Royal Clemency, we do again enjoy our Privileges as a Royal Borough, by your Majesty's Order in Council of the 28th of May last past, authorising us to elect Magistrates and Town Councillors, according to our ancient Constitution, of which we were deprived by the late horrid Rebellion, beg Leave, with Hearts full of Gratitude to Heaven, humbly to congratulate your Majesty on the blessed Event of the Crushing of that most wicked and audacious Attempt of Traitors against your Majesty's Crown and all that is valuable to your loyal Subjects.

When we reflect how these insatuated Rebels, whom no Oaths can bind, nor Mercy soften, were elated and their Numbers increased by their Success against some of your Majesty's Troops at Preston; how they impudently and impiously constructed of the tempestuous Winds and Rains, which prevented their total Overthrow by your Majesty's Troops at Falkirk, as the Interposition of Heaven in their Behalf; and when we reflect, how that great Multitude of Traitors, upon the Approach of our glorious Deliverer his Royal Highness the Duke on the Head of your Majesty's Troops, did retreat and fly before him, till in the near Neighbourhood of these barbarous Northern Parts of this Nation, where a Spirit of mad Disloyalty is chiefly cherished, he did find and defeat them in Battle, we cannot but, maugre the Atheism and Infidelity of this Age, observe the Hand of God in this awful Event, as thereby his Royal Highness, being in the Heart of that Rebellious Country, has it more in his Power to compleat our Deliverance from that wicked Rebellion, and to prevent our Fears of any after Attempts of these silly Tools of haughty France.

May the most High God, by whom Kings reign, continue graciously to preserve your Majesty's Person and Government, and the Succession to the Crown of Britain in your illustrious House to the latest Ages; for as the true Interest of your Majesty and your Royal Family, and that of the People of Britain and Ireland, are inseparable both as to Sacred and Civil Concerns, the Stability of your Throne must fill our most enlarged Wishes; and this shall ever be our Prayer to God.

Signed in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Perth, the 10th Day of June, 1746, by Pat. Crie, Provost.

Stockholm, June 13, O. S. His Swedish Majesty has been very much indisposed these three Days past with a severe Attack of the Gravel. The Swedish French Officers at Gottenbourg have been told, that as many as are willing to repair to France at their own Expence, shall be employed in the Station and Rank they had been at first engaged to serve in; but such as would not, were at Liberty to return Home, or go where they pleased.

Vienna, June 25, N. S. Since the Arrival of Count Althan with the hasty Account of the Battle of Placentia, we have not received any Advices from Prince Lichtenstein, The Right Wing of the Enemy was repulsed three Times, and was not routed but by the timely falling in of the Austrian Cavalry under the Command of General Luchesi; whereas the Left Wing of the Enemy had repulsed the Austrians three Times before they met with the same Fate. Prince Lichtenstein has obtained great Reputation. He was every where in the Action, and himself, though much indisposed, order'd all the Dispositions which were to be made. Before Count Althan set out from the Army, he saw M. de Gages's Adjutant, who had been to the Austrian Camp to demand an Armistice for the burying of the Dead, and learnt from him, that several of the Enemy's General Officers were killed and wounded. M. Chevert and M. de Mirepoix were said to be dangerously wounded.

Berlin, June 28, N. S. The King of Prussia arrived at Charlottenburg from Potsdam on the 26th Instant, and came to Town the same Evening, accompanied by his Brothers, Margrave Charles, the Duke of Holstein, Prince Leopold of Dessau, Count Podewils, M. Rudenshiold the Swedish Minister, and several Generals. The King supped at the Queen Mother's, and afterwards returned to Charlottenburg, whither the Queen Mother followed Yesterday Noon. Great Diversions, as Concerts, Plays, Masquerades, and a Firework, are to be there.
