Kensington, July 4.

The following Address of the Commissary and Clergy of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia, has been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Commissary and Clergy of the Colony and Dominion of Virginia.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Commissary and Clergy of your Colony and Dominion of Virginia, in a general Convention now assembled on Occasion of the present unnatural Rebellion, most humbly beg Leave to express our utter Abhorrence thereof, and to tender our strongest Assurances of promoting, to the best of our Power, the Safety, Honour, and Welfare, of your Majesty's Royal Person, and Administration.

Truly sensible of the wide Difference between a Protestant and a Popish Government, in respect of our Religion and Liberties, we will exert our utmost Endeavours to recommend and enforce all faithful Obedience and Affection to your Majesty, Preserver (under God) of our sacred and civil Constitution, by our Examples, as well as our Instructions, and by our Conduct, as well as by our Prayers.

May these invaluable Blessings, both in Church and State, which we most thankfully enjoy under your Majesty's Protection, descend in an uninterrupted Succession of Protestant Princes in your illustrious House, to latest Posterity.

Permit us to return our grateful Acknowledgments for many and great Benefits received from the worthy Governor sent by your Majesty; an evident Proof, that your paternal Care is not confined to your British Nation, but extends its kindly Influence to us your distant Subjects.

May your Majesty long reign in the Hearts of all your People, both at Home and Abroad.

William Dawson, Commissary.

The following Address of the President and Masters of the College of William and Mary in Virginia, has been presented to his Majesty; who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the President and Masters

sters of the College of William and Mary in Virginia.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the President and Masters of the College of William and Mary, in your Colony and Dominion of Virginia, beg Leave, with the profoundest Humility, to declare our perfect Detestation of the present impious Rebellion, in Favour of a popish Pretender, idolatrous Worship, and arbitrary Power.

To rescue us from these forest Evils, our heroic Ancestors bled in the Field; our blessed Martyrs expired in Flames; and our glorious Deliverer, to perpetuate the Profession of our most holy Faith, transferr'd the British Scepter to your Majesty's illustrious House, as the only Guardians and Defenders, in a right Line, of our Church and Nation from Superstition and Bondage.

As this our only Seminary has been founded and endowed by the pious Munificence of your Royal Predecessors; supported and encouraged by the Benevolence of the principal Inhabitants, and a liberal Grant from the general Assembly; and lately recommended, in the tenderest Manner, to their constant Patronage by our most worthy Governor; so not doubting of your Majesty's Favour and Protection, (for what may we not promise ourselves under a Sovereign, to whom the Interests of Religion and Learning are so truly dear?) we will by our Authority enjoin, by our Example enforce upon our Youth, the firmest Attachment to the best Government in the World. We are determined, to the utmost of our Power, not only to secure a Protestant Church and Administration under your Majesty, to the present Age; but also to derive these inestimable Blessings, under Princes of the reformed Communion in your Royal Family, to future Generations. A lively Sense of our Happiness, in each respect, makes our Heart burn within us for its perpetual Preservation.

William Dawson, President.

The following Address of the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, has been presented to his Majesty by John Maule, Esq; Member of Parliament for the Boroughs of Aberdeen, &c. being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl of Lincoln, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, met at Drumleithie the 31st of May, 1746.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Freeholders of the County of Kincardine, humbly beg Leave to approach your Throne, with our most sincere and hearty Congratulations, for the late glorious and happy Success of your Majesty's Arms, under the Command of that great Hero and wise General, his Royal Highness the Duke, against the Rebels at Culloden.

We with grateful Hearts return our most unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty, for (at such a Time) appointing that illustrious and great General, who, under God, has been the glorious Instrument of our happy Deliverance from arbitrary Power and popish Tyranny, and freed us from the horrid Robberies, Violence and Oppression of wicked, lawless, and unreasonable Men, by whose Actings it appear'd, that setting up a popish Pretender on your Majesty's Throne, and the utter Ruin of the British Constitution both Civil and Sacred, were equally their Design.

Great Sir, we see that the only Security we have for our holy Religion, our Laws and Liberties, and the Preservation of our happy Constitution, is the Continuance of the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal Family; and we shall always look upon it as our indispensable Duty, as well as our Interest, to persevere in our Loyalty to your Majesty, and steady Adherence to the Protestant Succession in your Majesty's Royal House. We trust, that the present Disappointment of your Majesty's Enemies, will further establish your Majesty's Throne, and show them how ridiculous and foolish it was in them to make so bold and audacious an Attempt.

We most heartily wish Success to your Majesty's Arms at Home and Abroad, by Sea and Land; and that to the latest Posterity, it may be the Blessing of your Majesty's Kingdoms to be govern'd by a Protestant Prince of your Majesty's Royal Progeny.

This Address is sign'd in Name and by Appointment of the said Freeholders, by Sir William Nicolson of Glenbervie, Baronet, Preses of the Meeting.

William Nicolson, Preses.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, has been presented to his Majesty by Edward Gibbons, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgesses, and Inhabitants

Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton.

WH your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Bailiffs, Burgeses, and Inhabitants of the Town and County of Southampton, in-treat your Majesty's Permission to congratulate the Success of your Arms in Scotland, under the Conduct of the Duke of Cumberland.

Your Majesty's Appointment of his Royal Highness to the Command of your Troops, and thereby yielding to expose his valuable Life in a Service, that required the Presence and the Example of so distinguished and favourite a General, was such an eminent Instance of your Majesty's paternal Care for the Preservation of your People, and of your Wisdom in effecting it, as justly demands, on our Parts, the warmest Returns of Gratitude and Obedience.

The Event has compleatly answered our Expectations and our Wishes; a most unnatural and detestable Rebellion, that had made a large Progress, and threaten'd immediate Destruction to our most excellent Constitution in Church and State, has been entirely defeated; and France, its avowed Auxiliary, has now the Mortification to dread, that the Firmness and Bravery of those Arms, which have procured Tranquillity to your Majesty's Dominions, will, under the same good Providence, and the same wise and valiant Conduct, obtain Peace for Europe.

It remains only for us now to add our Prayers to our Wishes, that your Majesty's Reign may be very long and very prosperous; that whilst your faithful Subjects experience the Blessings of your Government, your Enemies may feel the Power of it; and that it may be transmitted through a Succession of Protestant Princes of your illustrious Line to our latest Posterity.

The following Address of the Magistrats and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, has been presented to his Majesty by James Erskine, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The most humble Address of the Magistrats and Town Council of the Royal Burgh of Dunfermline, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Magistrats and Town Council of Dunfermline, in Common Council assembled, beg Leave to approach your sacred

Person with our most hearty and sincere Congratulations upon the late glorious Success of your Majesty's Arms, which, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, that illustrious Hero, has defeated the rebellious Attempts of your deluded Subjects, who, weary of your Majesty's mild and righteous Government, had traiterously combined, with the most inveterate Enemies to the British Constitution, to raise a popish Pretender or a romish Bigot to the illustrious Throne of these Realms, and thereby to subvert our happy Constitution, and valuable Privileges and Liberties.

Permit us, Sir, to return our most hearty and unfeigned Thanks to your Majesty for the timeous and tender Care your Majesty had of our Safety, when we were oppress'd, and in so great Danger from those wicked Miscreants, in sending and appointing his Royal Highness the Duke to this great and important Service, whose Conduct and Bravery, by the Blessing of God, produc'd this our happy Deliverance; A Glory reserv'd for one of your illustrious Family, possess'd of those princely Qualities which render him amiable to those under his Command and all who know him, and formidable to his Enemies. And at the same Time we humbly beg Leave to assure your Majesty, that we will, at all Times, exert our utmost Efforts, as it is our indispenible Duty, to oppose every Attempt of your Enemies against the Rights of your Crown, and our Liberties and Properties, which we hope this Nation will always enjoy under a Succession of Protestant Princes of your Majesty's Royal House.

As under your Majesty's auspicious Government we are the happiest People in the World; and as these wicked Combinators have brought Ruin and Disgrace on themselves, so we hope, that by Divine Providence from their Disappointment and Destruction, Stability will rebound to your Majesty's Throne, Unity of Affection to your Royal Person and Family, and Glory to your Government over a free and happy People.

May God long preserve your Majesty as a Blessing to these Nations: May your Reign be long and prosperous, and Success attend your Majesty's Arms; and may your Undertakings be blest; that you may settle the Peace and Happiness of your Kingdoms upon such lasting Foundations, as that it shall not be in the Power of your Enemies to disturb them, is our most hearty and sincere Wish.

Sign'd in our Name, in our Presence, and by our Appointment, at Dunfermline, the Fourteenth Day of June, One thousand seven hundred and forty six Years, by

The following Address of the Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the Shire of Fife, has been presented to his Majesty by David Scot, Esq; their Representative in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Hon. the Earl Waldegrave, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of Peace, Freeholders, and other Heritors of the Shire of Fife, met at Cupar the 18th of June, 1746.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on the late Success of your Army against the Rebels, under the wise Conduct of his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland.

This glorious Victory is of the utmost Consequence, not only to this Nation in particular, (as it has freed us from the dismal Prospect of Popery and Slavery, and arbitrary Power) but also to all the Protestant Powers in Europe.

May the same kind Providence that has hitherto directed your paternal Care of a free People, make your Reign over them long and prosperous; and may the Crown of these Kingdoms, with the Glory of defending the Protestant Religion, and the Liberties of Europe, descend for ever to your Royal Issue.

Signed in Name and by the Appointment of the Meeting,

Ja. Leslie, Preses.

Petersbourg, May 31, O. S. The Empress sets out for Peterhoff To-morrow, for the Summer, where there will be a publick Day once a Week for the foreign Ministers.

Naples, June 14. In the Night of the 1st Instant, a Plot was discovered by the Officer then on Duty at the Fortress of Pizzo Falcone, concerted by the whole Battalion Militia of Calabria Citra, in Garrison at that Fortress, of which the Prince of Bisignano is Colonel, to desert with their Arms, and to murder the Officers if they should oppose their Design. The said Battalion was immediately disarmed and ordered into Arrest, and the Garrison was reinforced by a Battalion of veteran Troops. On the 2d, 3d and 7th Instant anchored in this Port, from Genoa, several Transport Vessels, with a Battalion out of the Burgundy Regiment, to recruit, this Regiment having suffer'd extremely in the Campaign of Lombardy, and spared 200 Men to compleat other Regiments of the King's Troops there. These Transports have landed also three Battalions of the King's Troops, which capitulated at the Surrender of Valentia, having been ordered to Naples, they not being to serve against the King of Sardinia and his Allies for twelve Months.

Berlin, June 25. On Wednesday last the 22d Instant, the Prince of Prussia, Prince Ferdinand, Margrave Charles, and several Generals, repaired to Potzdam, where his Majesty's Foot Guards were review'd the Day following. On the 23d several large Pieces of Cannon, and some Mortars, were embarked in order, as it is given out, to be sent to Stettin.

Berlin, July 2. Her Majesty the Queen Regent repaired on the 28th past to Charlottenburg. At One o'Clock in the Morning a Fire broke out in the Palace there, and some Apartments were consumed. The Queen Mother was saved by some of the Guards, who broke through one of the Walls of her Bed-Chamber, the Fire having taken in her Anti-Chamber. Her Majesty returned the same Day to Monbijou, where she has been somewhat indisposed. His Prussian Majesty likewise went back to Potzdam from Charlottenburg, and intends to go on Monday next to Oranienburg. A great deal of Saxon China has been destroy'd by the Fire above mentioned.

Vienna, June 29. Colonel O Donnell, who arrived here from Italy, is appointed a Major General: He has brought 29 Pair of Colours and three Standards. The whole Number of Cannon taken was Ten, and the Enemy's whole Loss in Killed, Wounded and Prisoners, is now affirmed to be no less than 14,000 Men. Marquis de Mirepoix is not so desperately wounded as was given out.

Brussels, July 7, N. S. By the last Advice from the Neighbourhood of Mons, we hear that the Beliegers were battering in Breach with 100 Pieces of Cannon and 40 Mortars, but that the Place was not as yet much damaged. That the Besiegers were preparing 14 Ovens, in order to fire red hot Bullets into the Town. They write from Paris of the 4th Instant, that all the Troops remaining in Provence, Languedoc, and Dauphine, in the Roussillon and the Lampourdan, as likewise those in the Franche Comte, have Orders to march into the County of Nice; that not above 10000 Men can be drawn from thence, by reason of the Garrisons; but that it was thought a Detachment of 18 or 20000 Men from Brabant would be sent to reinforce them. The Desertion from the French Army in Brabant is extraordinary, the freshest Letters from thence make it amount to 8000 Men, including almost the whole Regiment of Dauphin. In the Paris Gazette it is own'd, that they lost 4000 Men in the Battle near Placentia.

Camp at Terhyde, July 8. Marshal Bathiani has received a Courier, with an Account, that that the Combined Army near Placentia had sent out a Detachment of their best Cavalry, to the Number of 2000, to endeavour to cut their Way through the Imperial and King of Sardinia's Armies, but that the advanced Parties having got Intelligence of them, they were surrounded, 1265 taken Prisoners, and the Remainder, except a very few, cut to Pieces. The whole Body of Austrian Troops from Germany is this Day arrived at Venlo. The necessary Dispositions are making for the Removal of our Army from hence. Last Night the Transports, having on Board the British Battalions, arrived at Helvoetsluys, and some as far as Willemstadt.

Hague, July 8. The French are daily receiving small Reinforcements from the Upper Meuse. The News of the Surrender of Mons is expected every Day. Fort Marguerite, and even Ypres, is said to be razed. The French King was, according to the last Letters from Paris, to set out on his Return to the Army as this Day Se'n-night. The Consternation at Paris, upon the Advices from Italy, is reported to be very great. The Prince of Lichtenstein's ill Health had obliged him to retire again from the Army. According to our last Advices, the King of Sardinia's Head Quarters were still at Stradella, but General Bernclau had been sent to press and concert his Junction with the Austrian Army.

Willemstadt, July 9. The Transports with the Forces from England arrived at Helvoetsluys on Thursday, Part of them came up hither that Evening, some Yesterday, and the rest To-day; they will be disembarked To-morrow Morning. The Train is also arrived. The Transports which brought the Hessians are sailed back to Leith. The Princess of Waldeck is expected here To-day to see the British Forces disembark. His Britannick Majesty's Yacht the Catherine came to an Anchor off this Place Yesterday, with General Ligonier on board; she had been in a Storm of 36 Hours, and two Transports were run a-shore the Night before, but it was hoped they would be got off at High Water with little or no Damage. We hear by her, that several People were drowned at the Nore, and that the oldest Sailor did not remember to have seen such Weather at this Time of Year.

Edinburgh, June 29. Upon Information that John Murray, of Broughton, late Secretary to the Pretender's Son, had on Friday last dined at Kilbucco, and had that Night gone to the House of Mr. Hunter of Polmood, who married Mr. Murray's Sister, John Smith, Sergeant in St. George's Dragoons, with seven private Men, then under his Command at Broughton, was order'd thither with a Guide, and Yesterday at Three o'Clock in the Morning he seized Mr. Murray at the House of Polmood; and Yesterday he was brought before the Lord Justice Clerk, and was committed close Prisoner to the Castle of Edinburgh. Upon his Examination he declared that the Pretender's Son, with Sullivan and O Neil, both Irish, and no other Person in Company, did, about four Days after the Battle of Culloden, go off from Mondart in an open Boat, in order to get on board of a Ship, but that he, Murray, being at that Time indispos'd, was not able to go with them. The said Murray had been mostly with Lochiel, and his Uncle Major Kennedy, and his Brother, in a starving Way, lying on the Side of Hills all Day, and travelling or wandering all the Night with Scouts at a Mile, or half a Mile's Distance, never daring to stay two Nights in one Place. Lochiel was very ill, wounded in the Heel, and obliged to use a Horse; and he, Murray, unable to bear Fatigue and Want any longer, cross'd the Hill, without a Servant, and came by Monteith to the Place where he was taken.

Whitehall, July 5.

The King has been pleased to order a Commission to be passed under the Great Seal of Great Britain, for constituting and appointing the Right Honourable Philip Lord Hardwicke, Baron of Hardwicke, Chancellor of Great Britain, to be High Steward of Great Britain, for the trying of William Earl of Kilmarnock, George Earl of Cromertie, and Arthur Lord Balmerino, upon several Indictments of High Treason, found against them by the Grand Jury of the County of Surry.
