At the Court at Kensington, the 23d Day of July, 1746.

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

This Day the Right Honourable Henry Fox, Esq; his Majesty's Secretary at War, was, by his Majesty's Command, sworn of his Majesty's most Honourable Privy Council, and took his Place at the Board accordingly.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury, assembled at a General Quarter Sessions held the 17th of July 1746. for the County of Kent, has been transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Dorset, who presented the same to his Majesty: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace and Grand Jury, assembled at a General Quarter Sessions held the 17th Day of July 1746. for the County of Kent, at Maidstone in the said County.

May it please your Majesty,

It is with the greatest Pleasure and Sincerity we congratulate your Majesty on the Success of your Arms under his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, by which so happy an End is put to the detestable Rebellion rais'd in your British Dominions, in Favour of Popish Superstition and French Politicks.

We cannot sufficiently adore the Goodness of God in preserving us from the impending Danger, acknowledge your Majesty's Wisdom in appointing his Royal Highness to command your Forces, and admire the Valour and Intrepidity with which they followed his glorious Example in that decisive Action, which secured to us the Continuance of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, under your Majesty's just and mild Administration.

[ Price Two-pence. ]

The due Sense of the Benefits of this Deliverance cannot fail to confirm in us Sentiments of Loyalty to your Majesty, of Zeal for our holy Religion, and of Gratitude to the Providence which gave it; under whose Guidance and Protection may your Majesty proceed to defeat all your Enemies; and may the Crown of these Realms ever flourish on your Majesty, and your illustrious Posterity in a Protestant Line.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace of the County of Stafford, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Earl Gower: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's Justices of the Peace of the County of Stafford, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said County, the 15th Day of July 1746. (being the first Opportunity of our publick Meeting since the Battle of Culloden) humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon the glorious Success of your Forces there, under the Command of his Royal Highness the Duke, over your Majesty's ungrateful and rebellious Subjects, encouraged and supported by the Crowns of France and Spain, declared Enemies to our Religious and Civil Rights: And at the same Time we beg Leave to acknowledge your Majesty's Goodness and Wisdom in sending his Royal Highness the Duke to quell that unnatural and daring Rebellion.

That your Majesty may enjoy a long and happy Reign, and that your Posterity may succeed to govern a grateful and a free People, are the earnest Wishes of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most faithful and loyal Subjects, &c.
