

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday February 14, to Tuesday February 17, 1745.

St. James's, February 17.

THE following Address of the House of Representatives of the Colony of Nova Cæsarea, or New Jersey, in America, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously,

To his most Excellent Majesty George the Second, by the Grace of God, of Great-Britain, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c.

The humble Address of the House of Representatives of the Colony of Nova Cæsarea, or New Jersey, in America, in General Assembly convened.

Most gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of your Colony of New Jersey, humbly beg Leave to approach your Royal Presence, to congratulate your Majesty on the Deliverance of your Kingdoms from the late Attempt of a wicked, abandon'd, popish Pretender.

It was with Astonishment and Abhorrence that we heard of a Number of People, in your Majesty's Dominions, who (void of Understanding, and unsensible of the Blessings flowing from your mild and auspicious Reign) have suffered themselves to be so far deluded by our common Enemies, as desperately to engage in open and publick Rebellion against your Majesty's Person and Government, vainly attempting to subject a Free People to the miserable Slavery of a popish arbitrary Power.

As our Civil and Religious Principles teach us an Aversion to and Abhorrence of the Superstition, Idolatry and Tyranny of the Church of Rome; so had those Rebels been suffer'd to have usurped the Power of Ruling over your Majesty's loyal Subjects, we in your Plantations must undoubtedly have been subjected to their Resentment; we are therefore under the greatest Obligations to be thankful unto Almighty God, who, by his good Providence, hath so graciously interposed for the Preservation of your Royal Person and Government.

So happy an Interposition, as it gives us this Opportunity, so it makes it our indispensable Duty also to acknowledge your Majesty's paternal Care for the Safety of your People, which hath been so signally demonstrated in your Majesty's permitting one of your Royal Off-spring to expose himself for their Preservation, to the Fury of Men more desperate, savage and unnatural than the Beasts of our Wilderness.

It is a peculiar Happiness that many of our Fellow-Subjects enjoy, to be near your Royal Person, and to partake of the immediate Influence of a Government we feel (in Part) the good Effects of; for which we return your Majesty our most humble Thanks, in that you have been most graciously pleased, from Time to Time, to instruct those Persons your Majesty has been pleased to appoint to preside over us to protect us in our Civil and Religious Liberties. This, to us, is a Demonstration of your Majesty's Care and tender Regard, and that it is extended even to the remotest of your Subjects.

We humbly beseech Almighty God, who can bring Good out of Evil, to frustrate the Councils of your Majesty's Enemies, and make their wicked Devices subservient to the Establishment of your Person and Family (if possible) more firmly in the Affections of your People: That he may bless all your Majesty's Councils, and grant Success to your Endeavours for the Establishing an honourable and lasting Peace in Europe,

[Price Two-pence.]