

Europe, and all these your Majesty's Plantations: That your Majesty may long live to enjoy the Crown you wear with Ease and Delight, exceeding in Honour your illustrious Ancestors: That when it shall please him to part you from an earthly Diadem, it may be to receive a Crown more permanent and glorious; and that Great Britain, with all your Majesty's Dominions, may be always happy in an uninterrupted Race of your Royal Off-spring reigning on the British Throne.

By Order of the House,
Divers of the Members of this House being of the People called Quakers, agree to the Matter and Substance of this Address, with their usual Exception to the Stile.
 Robert Lawrence,
 Speaker.

The following Address of the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, has been presented to his Majesty, who was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To George the Second, King of Great Britain, &c.

The humble Address of the Representatives of the Freemen of the Province of Pennsylvania, in General Assembly met.

Gracious Sovereign,

WE thy dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen of Pennsylvania, sensible of the many and great Blessings we enjoy under the mild and gentle Administration of thy Government, beheld, with great Detestation, the unnatural Rebellion, lately conceived and carried on by the Enemies to our happy Constitution; Traytors to their King and Country; who, aided by the unjust and united Force of France and Spain, wickedly attempted to introduce Popery and arbitrary Power, under a popish and bigotted Pretender.

Permit us therefore, Great Prince, in this humble Manner thus to approach thy Presence, heartily to congratulate thee on the Defeat of these treasonable Attempts, and the Suppression of the Rebels, owing, under the Blessing of Providence, to thy Royal and indefatigable Care, and to the Conduct of the magnanimous Duke of Cumberland.

May Almighty God bless the King's Councils, preserve his Royal Person and Family, defeat the Devices of his and our Enemies, and restore Peace to Mankind, are the fervent and sincere Prayers of the King's very dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Representatives of the Freemen of Pennsylvania.

Philadelphia, the 23d of the Sixth Month, 1746.

Signed by Order of the House,
 John Kinsey, Speaker.

Hague, Feb. 17, N. S. His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland landed the Day before Yesterday, about Two o'Clock in the Afternoon, at Helvoet, after a very happy Passage, and arrived in this Place the same Evening; where he has since been complimented by the Government, and other Persons of the First Rank.

Hague, Feb. 17, N. S. We received this Day an Account that General Brown had repassed the Var with his whole Army, and without any Loss. This Event is attributed to Want of Forage and Provisions, occasioned by tempestuous Weather, which had lasted eight or ten Days, without which Incident, it had been resolved, in several Councils of War, to wait the Enemy upon the Ciagne. Marshal Belleisle likewise march'd back to his former Camp, as soon as he knew of the Austrians drawing off in good Earnest; and has only left some advanced Posts on the Country they abandoned.

Whitehall, February 17.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Jonathan Belcher, Esq; Captain General and Governor in Chief of New Jersey in America.

By the principal Officers and Commissioners of his Majesty's Navy.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 1st of January 1745, to the 30th of June 1746, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, at Nine of the Clock in the Morning, the following Days, to wit, on Thursday the 26th of February for Captains, Friday the 27th for Lieutenants, and Saturday the 28th for Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefits of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by. Dated at the Navy Office the 13th of February 1746.
