

marching to Foligno, where they were to receive Orders what Route they were to take. General Braitwitz, who lately entered into the Service of the Court of Naples, has lately had a Permission to raise a Regiment of the Deserters from the Austrian Army, which is to consist of three Battalions, and was by the last Accounts more than half compleat. M. Braitwitz is to command this Regiment, which is always to bear his Name. The Court has allowed him many Advantages, and particularly a Liberty to nominate all the subaltern Officers, besides having made his Son Lieutenant Colonel thereof.

Berlin, March 25. The King of Prussia arrived To-day from Potzdam, accompanied by the Princes his Brothers. His Majesty has been indisposed with a Tertian Ague. Her Majesty the Queen Mother has likewise been indisposed with a Rheum of making navigable the Harbour which lies on the Mouth of the Oder near Stettin, called Swine, is renewed; and his Prussian Majesty being resolved to grant considerable Advantages to those who will send their Commodities by Water, to the Prussian anterior Pomerania, the Chamber of War and Domains here has published, that from the 1st Instant, the Sixth Part of the Duty laid upon any Sort of Merchandizes, Wares or Provisions whatever, shall be remitted to the Ships which come that Way, and that they shall enjoy it without the least Deduction.

Hambourg, March 28. The Hambourghers have again lost Three Ships, which are fallen into the Hands of the Algerines; and the Convoy, which was sent out for their Protection, is now at Cadiz, waiting itself for a Maltese Convoy to venture Homewards.

Hague, March 31, N. S. Some Letters from Paris of the 23d say, that they had an Account from Spain, that some English Ships of War had taken and carried to Lisbon three Spanish Register Ships, viz. the Nymph, the Fort, and the Augusta, two being outward and one homeward bound. Several of the Martinicomens were still missing; they had Accounts of seven or eight being got into the Groyne; six were given over for lost. M. de Saxe was expected at Brussels last Night, without waiting at Paris for the Arrival of M. de Belleisle, who is drinking the Mineral Waters of Vals in Provence. The first Succours from Toulon and Marseilles sailed the 17th Instant for Genoa, after having been embarked ever since the 6th. Every thing was getting ready in the conquer'd Netherlands for the opening the Campaign; and immediately after Marshal Saxe's Arrival at Mechlin; a Council of General Officers is to be held. It was said at Paris that the French King's Equipage would be ready to set out by the 15th of April. We have no other Particulars of the French Expedition in the Marquisate of Bergen, but that the Party consisted of the Piquets of Horse and Irregulars of the Garrisons of Brussels and Louvain, commanded by M. de Clermont Gallerande, and that a great deal of Plunder was sold publickly on Monday Morning at Antwerp.

Whitehall, March 24.
The King has been pleased to make the following Promotions, viz. Robert Dalzell, Esq; Gervais Parker, Esq; and the Right Honourable William Earl of Harrington, to be Generals of Foot; and the Right Honourable Algernoon Lord Percy, commonly call'd Earl of Hartford, Sir Robert Rich, Bart. his Grace John Duke of Montagu, and the Right Honourable Richard Lord Viscount Molesworth, to be Generals of Horse.

Whereas by an Act of Parliament lately passed, the Sum of One Million is to be raised by Way of Lottery, to be contributed and paid in Manner following, that is to say, One fourth Part thereof on such Day as shall be appointed by the Lords Commissioners of his Majesty's Treasury, which their Lordships have been pleased to fix for the 11th Day of April next; one other fourth Part on or before the 23d of June 1747; one other fourth Part on or before the 20th of August 1747; and the remaining fourth Part on or before the 16th of October 1747. For all which Sums so to be contributed, Annuities, after the Rate of Four Pounds per Cent. per Ann. are to commence from Midsummer 1747. And whereas their Lordships have been pleased to appoint the Under Tellers of the Receipt of his Majesty's Exchequer to take in, at an Office in the said Receipt appointed for this Purpose, the voluntary Subscriptions of all Persons who shall be desirous to become Contributors to the said Lottery; These are therefore to give Notice, that the said Under Tellers
