Flushing, June 22, N. S. By all Accounts it is confirmed, that the French have very few Troops in their new Conquests; and that the Design upon this Province from Sas Van Ghent is certainly laid aside. We hear that the Troops that were at Brussels marched to the Army the 15th in the Morning. Marshal Saxe set out about Ten, and the French King was to follow in the Evening. Yesterday Se'nnight the Corps under the Count de Clermont was at Tirlemont, and above 12000 Men, with the Count d'Etrees, were encamped at St. Tron, besides which a Body of 6000 Men arrived on Tuesday Evening at Namur, which were thought to be destined with the regular Troops of that Garrison to bring up the heavy Artillery. There is Advice, that the Troops under the Prince of Clermont had actually joined those under M. d'Etrees, and that they were encamped a little League on the other Side of St. Tron. The French had ordered all the Abbays about Namur to furnish a large Quantity of Fascines immediately.
