Venice, October 20.

THE Austrian Army is beginning to go into Winter Quarters. The Return of the Troops into the Parmesan and Plaisantine will secure these Countries from the farther Incurfions of the Genoese, who have raised Contributions, and committed many Excesses, and have carried off some of the principal Inhabitants for Hostages, among whom is Marquis Scotti, Brother of the Spanish Ambassador. By Advice from Loughorn we learn, that Captain Hughes, of his Britannick Majesty's Ship the Effex, has sent into that Port two French Ships laden with Cloth, valued at 100,000 Dollars, which he took near the Island of Sardinia, being Part of the Marseille Turkey Fleet.

Turin, Oct. 21, N. S. Advice is just received, that the Enemy have attacked, without Success, for three Days together, the Castle of Castiglion, where there is a Detachment of our Troops: That they had also attacked the Post of Bossi Rossi, between Ventimiglia and Menton, where they were vigorously repulsed with Loss.

Hambourg, Oct. 27, N. S. The King of Prussia has engaged another General Officer in his Service, the Duke of Wirtemberg Oels, whom he has appointed General of Horse, and Stadtholder of Silesia; but it is not said under what Restrictions, or with what Appointments.

Liege, Oct. 27, N. S. Marshal de Saxe's Army is separated. The Corps which was under M. de Lowendahl is to be quartered in Dutch Flanders, the Forts on the Scheld, Bergen-op-Zoom, Antwerp, Liers, Mechlin, and Brussels. A large Body of Troops will be in the Town, Castle, and County of Namur; about six thousand Men are detached towards Bouillon, to preserve that Dutchy. The Irish Brigade will be at Ostend, and along the Sea Coast. Several Battalions will be put into Nieuport, Furnes, Graveline, St. Omers, Dunkirk, and Calais; the rest will be at Louvain, on the Mofelle, Pais Messine, Alface, and Britany. The Imperial and Hanoverian Troops still continue encamped.

Hague, Oct. 31, N. S. The Affair of the Succession is not quite concluded in the Province of Holland, though at present in a very fair Way. The Difficulties raised by the Town of Amsterdam are near being entirely removed, since they have already agreed to settle the Stadtholdership upon the Prince of Orange's immediate Issue, either Male or Female, and their Heirs Male. M. Lilliers, a Major General in the Imperial Service, has been promoted to the Rank of Lieutenant General by the Prince of Orange, and is to raise a Regiment of Walloons for the Service of the Republick. Letters from Paris of the 27th Instant mention, that they are in great Pain for M. Belleisle, having had Advice, that on the 17th Instant he marched in three Columns to attempt the Re-victualling of the Castle of Ventimiglia: That the Duke de Richlieu was marched at the Head of 12,000 Men, either to lay Siege to Savona, or with an Intention to make a Diversion to favour Marshal de Belleisle's Expedition. And Letters from Rochelle of the 19th Instant mention, that the Day before the Fleet had sail'd from the Isle d'Aix, and anchor'd in that Road, from whence it sail'd on the 19th in the Morning, with the Fleet from Nantes, which had arrived at Rochelle the 1st Instant to join the said Fleet, and were all sail'd under Convoy of eight Men of War and two Frigates.

Whitehall, October 24, 1747.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, That the House of Mr. Edward Seabrook, at Stamford in Lincolnshire, was, in the Night betwixt the 25th and 26th of September last, broke open and robbed: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Crime, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Edward Seabrook does hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Pounds.
