Breda, Jan. 15, N. S. Major General Had-dich with his Hussars, supported by a Body of regular Troops, has again intercepted and ruined another large Convoy going from Antwerp to Bergen-op-Zoom, having burnt 100 Waggon's of Forage, and stav'd above as many Hogheads of Meal and Wine. The Enemy's Van-guard was pushed as far as the Schelde; the Number of killed, wounded and Prisoners is very considerable: And we have made a good Booty of Cattle that was with the said Escorte.

Hague, Jan. 16, N. S. M. de Haren having succeeded at Zurich and other Places in Switzerland, in his Negotiation for about 8000 Men, is now upon his Return hither.

Liege, Jan. 17, N. S. Every Thing is very quiet at Namur, and nothing extraordinary was stirring at Brussels on the 15th, where they are making Preparations to receive Marshal Saxe on the 20th Instant, as Governor of the Low Countries,

Hague, Jan. 23, N. S. The Prince of Orange has given to the Count d'Envie the Command of an old Regiment of Foot, vacant by the Death of Major General Tyflot de Patot. A few Days ago the Chevalier de Vial, who commands a Free Company in the Service of the Republick, took, near Givet, about a Thousand Sabres and Carbines, intended for two Regiments of French Hussars. The Transports, with about One thousand Men of the Earl of Drumlanrig's Regiment, arrived the Day before Yesterday at Helvoetfluy's from Scotland. The Margrave of Baden Dourlach is likewise arrived from England.

[Price Two-pence.]

Whitehall,

Whitehall, January 16, 1747.

Whereas it has been represented, to the King, that Mrs. Elizabeth Barham, of Great Grosvenor-street, and her two Daughters, were stop'd on Monday the 4th Instant, in South Audley-street, by two Highway-men on Horseback, and robbed by one of them of Money, and of a Watch set with Diamonds, and other Things of a considerable Value; and on Saturday the 9th they were again stop'd by the same Persons, and robbed by the same Man: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons who were concerned in the said Robberies, is pleas'd to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of the Offenders who shall discover his or their Accomplice or Accomplices (except the Person who actually committed the said Robbery) so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

CHESTERFIELD.

I do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas, over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament, to any one of the Accomplices, or any other Person, (except him who committed the Robbery) who shall discover the Person or Persons that were concerned in the above Robbery, so that he or they may be convicted thereof; to be paid upon such Conviction by me

Great Grosvenor
Street.

Eliz. Barham.
