

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday February 2, to Saturday February 6, 1747.

Hambourg, January 30.

THE Dutch Officers have already recruited here, within the Space of three Weeks, between four and five Hundred Men.

Dresden, Jan. 31. Last Night, soon after the whole Royal Family of Poland, and the rest of the Company, were gone out of the Opera House; it took Fire, and being built all of Wood was burnt to the Ground in Half an Hour.

Liege, Feb. 3. Every Thing continues very quiet hereabouts; but we hear that the French work hard in the Arsenal of Namur, to prepare every Thing necessary for a Siege.

Hague, Feb. 9, N. S. M. Van Haren is returned from Switzerland, and we hear that the new Levies there go on with great Success; that the Battalion of Zurich is already compleat, and that many large Bodies of Recruits are on their March hither. Major Courvoisic sets out To-morrow Morning to bring the 1000 Recruits that the Margrave of Anspach has consented to have raised in his Dominions. The Prince of Orange has sent Orders to M. Wartenleben to engage two Battalions of Saxe Weymar. A Deputation from the States of Holland waited this Day in Form upon the Prince of Orange, to desire his Highness would accept of them as Sponsors to the Child of which, it is hoped, her Royal Highness will be happily delivered; and the States General took this Morning a Resolution to offer themselves likewise as Sponsors upon this Occasion. The Prince of Orange received also this Morning the solemn Deputation from the States of Guelderland with the Diploma, by which they have settled the Hereditary Succession to the Stadtholdership in their Province.

Hague, Feb. 13, N. S. The States General have contracted with the Margrave of Baden Baden for a Battalion of 880 Men.

Victualling Office, Jan. 28, 1747.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy do hereby give Notice, that on Wednesday the 29th of June next, they will be ready to receive Proposals for the supplying his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at Jamaica with Sea Provisions; and also for the Hire of his Majesty's Victualling Office and Store-houses there.

And on the same Day, they will also be ready to receive Proposals on a separate Agreement, for the furnishing his Majesty's Ships and Vessels at the same Place with fresh Beef.

The Conditions of both the said Contracts may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London; and of that for Fresh Beef at Jamaica also, by applying to Mr. Richard Lindsay, Agent for the Victualling there.

Notice is hereby given to the Officers and Companies of his Majesty's Ships Princessa, Ipswich, Hind and Otter Sloops, that the Prize Money remaining due on Account of the Prizes which were taken by the Leward Island Squadron, and carried into Antigua, will be paid at the Three Tons in Crutched Fryars, on the following Days, viz.

Otter and Hind Sloops on Tuesday February 23.
