Petersbourg, January 30, O. S.

THE Order for the March of the Russian Auxiliaries for the Low Countries was sent on the 28th Instant.

Naples, Jan. 30, N. S. The King has given Liberty for 200,000 Tumolis of Corn's being exported out of this Kingdom, 100,000 whereof to the French, and the other to the Allied Army in the State of Genoa. His Majesty has appointed the Prince of Arragon, the Duke of Miranda, and the Prince of Stigliano, for the Superintendency of his Household, in the room of a Committee he had before established for that Purpose, but has now abolished. On the 7th M. Marulle, the Maltese Ambassador, attended by many Knights of that Order, had a publick Audience of their Majesties, to compliment them, on the Part of the Grand Master, upon the Birth of the young Prince of Calabria; he was received at Court with the same Formalities as the Ambassadors of crowned Heads, and presented to their Majesties the Knights of Malta who attended him on that Occasion. The Ceremony of Christening the young Prince is put off to the 4th of February. On the 25th, M. del Rio, the Intendant General of the King's Forces, set out on a Tour to the respective Places of Cantonment of our Troops, with express Orders to see that all the Regiments are compleat. On the 27th died Mr. Hunter, a British Merchant in this City. The same Day their Majesties returned hither in perfect Health from Persano, where they had been taking the Diversion of Hunting for a Fortnight.

Rome, Feb. 3. N. S. The new Venetian Ambassador is preparing his Equipage with the utmost Expedition, his publick Entry into this City being fixed for the 11th Instant. The King of Portugal has made several considerable Presents, and settled 600 Crowns per Annum during Life, upon M. Levizzani, who carried the Cap to the new Cardinal d'Avalaya at Lisbon.

Florence, Feb. 6. Last Week died, after five Days Illness, Marquis Rinuccini. He was Member of the Council of Regency, and Secretary at War, and had formerly been in England, and at most of the principal Courts in Europe. On the 24th past returned hither the Cabinet Courier, which the Regency had dispatched to the Duke de Richelieu, the French

General at Genoa, with Complaints of the Irregularities that had been committed by a Party of French Soldiers, in seizing of Cattle and Flour at the Village of Rossano, in the great Duke of Tuscany's Dominions in the Lunigiana; and two Days after a Courier, dispatched by the said Duke de Richelieu, passed by this City for Rome and Naples.

Hague, March 1, N. S. The Council of State presented last Saturday to the States General, a Petition for the Sum of Six Millions Five Hundred Thousand Florins, for the extraordinary Charges of the ensuing Campaign. The Prince of Orange received this Morning Advice of the Death of Lieutenant General Matha, and immediately disposed of his Regiment of Dragoons in Favour of General Trips. By our Advices from Petersbourg, the Russian Auxiliaries are supposed to have entered Poland above a Fortnight ago.

Whitehall, Feb. 23.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Richard Wilmot, Doctor in Divinity, the Place and Dignity of a Prebendary of the free Chapel of St. George in the Castle of Windsor, void by the Resignation of John Fountayne, Clerk, Master of Arts, late Prebendary thereof.

The King has been pleased to grant unto Roger Townshend, Esq; the Office of Receiver-General and Cashier of his Majesty's Customs, Subsidies, and other Duties, in the Room of John Eckerfall, Esq;

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Eckerfall, Esq; the Office of Register-General of all trading Ships belonging to Great-Britain, in the room of Thomas Boothby Skrymsher, Esq;

The King has been pleased to grant unto Jeremiah Dyson, Esq; the Office of Under Clerk of the Parliaments, to attend upon the Commons of Great-Britain in Parliament assembled, upon the Surrender of Nicholas Hardinge, Esq;

Whitehall, February 20, 1747-8.

It having been represented to his Majesty, That on Sunday the 3d Day of January last, in the Evening, a sudden Fire broke out in the Town of Winslow in the County of Bucks, but by the most timely Assistance was extinguished without doing any considerable Damage; And that on the Friday following, being the 8th of January last, in the Evening, another Fire broke
