

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday March 15, to Saturday March 19, 1747.

Hambourg, February 27.

THE Stadtholder of Ducal Holstein arrived here Yesterday from Keill, and proposes to stay some Time with his Mother the Dutcheſs of Holstein. The Sieur Klefeker, appointed particular Agent for this City in Holland, is to set out some Day this Week for the Hague.

Hambourg, March 5. The Dutch Levies go on here with great Success. The Weather continues to be so extremely severe, that all Navigation up this River is hindered by the Frost.

Lisbon, March 4, N. S. By an Express which arrived a few Days ago from Cadiz, Six Spanish Men of War were seen coming into that Bay, where they were to join three Men of War fitted out there, in order to convoy a considerable Number of Merchant Ships to the West Indies. And it is said likewise, that three French Men of War were expected at Cadiz from Toulon. His Britannick Majesty's Ship the Diamond, which sailed from hence on the 24th past, in Company with the Russell Man of War, with the Convoy for England, was obliged to return hither a few Days since in a very leaky Condition.

Lisbon, March 10, N. S. Five of the Rio de Janeiro Fleet are come up the River, and the rest are expected as soon as the Wind will permit.

Dresden, March 17, N. S. The March of the Russians continues to be very quick; they are well furnished with every Thing the Country affords, for which they pay in ready Money. It is certain there were some Thoulands of them arrived at Grodno the 2d Instant; and it is not doubted but the whole Army will be at Warsaw by the 25th.

Whitehall, March 19.

The King has been pleased to order a Conge d'Elire to pass the Great Seal of Great Britain, empowering the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Norwich, to elect a Bishop of that See, the same being now vacant by the Translation of the Right Rev. Whitehall, March 19, 1747-8.

Whereas it has been presented to his Majesty, That Daniel Chater was sent, on the 20th of February last, under the Care of William Galley, an Officer in the Customs, to Chichester, in order to give Evidence against John Dimer, otherwise Diamond, commonly called Shepherd of Selsey, in the County of Sussex, who was concerned in breaking open the Custom-house at Poole, in the County of Dorset, and carrying off a large Quantity of Tea; and that they have not since been heard of; And whereas there is Reason to apprehend, from several Circumstances, that the said Daniel Chater and William Galley were murdered by Smuglers, on the Road near Rowland's Castle, in the County of Southampton; His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Murder, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one, (except the Person who actually committed the same) who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that they or any of them may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Custom-House, London, March 19, 1747.

And, as a further Encouragement for bringing the Offenders to Justice, the Commissioners of his Majesty's Customs do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds for the Apprehending and Discovering of each of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, to be paid to the Person or Persons making such Discovery, by the Receiver General of the Customs, upon the Conviction of each Offender respectively; and in Case any of the Persons, who were concerned in the Murder above mentioned, (except the Person who actually committed the same) will discover any one or more of his Accomplices, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof, such Person or Persons shall receive the like Reward of One Hundred Pounds upon the Conviction of each Offender.

By Order of the Commissioners,
William Wood, Secretary.
