And so twenty one private Bills.

After which His Majesty was pleased to make the following most gracious Speech.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

AT the Opening of this Session of Parliament I informed you, that a Congress had been agreed upon by the several Powers at War; and I have now the Satisfaction to acquaint you, that Preliminaries for restoring a general Peace have been sign'd between my Minister, and those of the most Christian King, and the States General of the United Provinces; the Basis of which is a general Restitution of Conquests made, during the War, on all Sides.

In Consequence of these Preliminaries, which have been satisfied by all the contracting Parties, a Cessation of Hostilities has actually taken Place in the Low Countries, and in the Channel; and certain Periods are fixed, according to former Practice, for its Commencement in other Parts of the World.

In this important Transaction my great Views have been, steadily to adhere to the true Interests of Europe, to pursue and maintain those of my own Kingdoms in particular, and to procure for my Allies the best Terms and Conditions, that the Events of a War, in some Parts unsuccessful, did admit.

I have, in the Course of this Negotiation, acted with the most unreserved Confidence and Communication towards my Allies: And I hope, that when they shall have maturely weighed the Situation of Affairs, the Necessity from thence arising, and the Care and Attention which have been shewn for their Advantage and Security, they will not delay to accede to these Preliminary Articles, but concur in effectuating the good Work of Peace.

The vigorous and powerful Support you have given me, during this Session, towards carrying on the War, has strengthen'd my Hands, in proceeding thus far in the Measures of Peace. No Body can suggest the least Failure on the Part of Great Britain, which, not only for the Sake of its own particular Interest, but of the Common Cause, has taken on itself a Share of the Burden, unexampled in former Times. I hope soon to see this necessary Work brought to Perfection, with the Concurrence of all my Allies, with whom it is my firm Intention to cultivate the the most perfect Harmony, and to cement and strengthen, if possible, the Ties of our ancient Union and Friendship, in such a Manner, as may render the Peace secure and durable.

Gentlemen of the House of Commons,

My particular Thanks are due to you, for the ample Provision you have made for the Service of the current Year. Nothing could have contributed so much to the putting an End to the Calamities of War, and reducing our future Expences, as these well-judged Supplies. The most prudent Oeconomy shall be made Use of in the Application of them; and you may be assured, Nothing will give me more real Pleasure, than to take the first Opportunity of lessening the present Burdens of my People.

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

I cannot sufficiently express my entire Satisfaction in your whole Conduct, during this Session; and I must recommend it to you, to promote in your several Countries a right Sense of those Measures, which have been so necessarily taken for the Security and Ease of my People. As it is the earnest Desire of my Heart, to see the Crown of Great Britain maintain that Figure, Strength, and Weight, in making War and Peace, which justly belong to it, it is equally so, to see my good Subjects enjoy the Blessings of Tranquillity and Prosperity.

Then the Lord Chancellor, by his Majesty's Command, said,

My Lords, and Gentlemen,

It is his Majesty's Royal Will and Pleasure, That this Parliament be prorogued to Thursday the Thirtieth Day of June next, to be then here held; and this Parliament is accordingly prorogued to Thursday the Thirtieth Day of June next.

Dr. JAMES'S POWDER FOR FEVERS and other Inflammatory Distempers.

HIS MAJESTY having been most graciously pleased to grant to ROBERT JAMES, Doctor in Physick, His Royal Letters Patent for the sole Use of the POWDER above-mentioned; and the said Dr. James having, in Virtue thereof, appointed JOHN NEWBERY the only Vendor and Disposer of it, as appears by an Advertisement in the Gazette of the 12th of April last; the said John Newbery thinks proper to inform the Publick, that a very few Doses of the said Powder will remove any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, tho' attended with Convulsions, Lightheadedness, and the worst Symptoms; but if taken at the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammations, Pleurisies, Quinsies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from Slow and Latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers *

As such Numbers are swept away, as it were instantaneously, with Fevers, 'tis to be presumed, that all who value their own Lives, or the Lives of their Relations and Friends, will take Care to be always provided against sudden Accidents, with some Doses of this Powder, which will retain its Virtue for twenty Years. And that the Benefit of this Medicine may be extended to the Poor, a considerable Abatement will be made to those who buy Quantities for charitable Uses, as well as to Merchants, Captains of Ships, and Shopkeepers, who buy to export them beyond Seas, or to sell again.

Four Doses of this Powder are made up in Marble Paper, and to prevent Counterfeits, sealed with a Serpent winding round a Branch of Laurel, and round the Seal these Words, BY THE TITTY, that is, two Doses may be had for Two Shillings and Sixpence.

Sold at my House, the Bible and Sun, in St. Paul's Church-yard, and at the Blue Ball in George-yard, Lombard-street, London.

J. NEWBERY.

N. B. Many Hundreds have been cured, some in a few Days, and others in a few Hours, by this Powder, whose Certificates will be occasionally inserted in the publick Papers.

* See a Pamphlet lately published, intituled, A Dissertation on Fevers and Inflammatory Distempers; sold at the Place above-mentioned, Price Six-pence.
