To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Burgeses, and principal Inhabitants of the Borough and Town of Taunton in the County of Somerset, assembled at the Guildhall of the said Borough and Town the 15th Day of December 1748.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Arrival to your British Dominions, and to acknowledge, with Hearts full of the utmost Gratitude and Sincerity, your Majesty's Royal Care and Attention in procuring the Blessing of Peace to this Nation, as well as for Supporting, Protecting and Defending the Protestant Religion, which, by your Majesty's Assistance, under God, is now well established in this Kingdom; where, that your Majesty and Royal Descendants may for ever reign in Peace and Happiness, over the Hearts of Subjects full of Zeal, Sincerity, and unfeigned Affection for your Majesty and your Royal Line, are the most ardent Wishes of us your Majesty's most dutiful, most loyal, and most obedient Subjects.

( Price Four-pence. )

The following Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common-Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, has been presented to his Majesty by Thomas Brereton, Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochford, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common-Council, in Council assembled.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs and Common-Council of the Borough and Corporation of Liverpoole, most humbly beg Leave to express our thankful Acknowledgment to Divine Providence, in protecting your Majesty during your Absence from and Return to these Kingdoms.

We consider ourselves very sensibly Sharers in the Blessings conferred on a Prince; to whose Wisdom and unwearied Endeavours, under God, we owe the many Privileges we have, and do enjoy, under your Majesty's auspicious Reign.

The vigorous Measures your Majesty took to procure National Justice, when a War was absolutely necessary; and your Readiness to accept honourable Terms of Peace when offered, are the strongest Instances of strict Regard for the Honour of your British Subjects, as well as Candour and Compassion for your Enemies.

The Regard your Majesty has paid to your Allies, and the quick Dispatch you have made in perfecting an Honourable Peace, must be pleasing to every one that has the least Sense of your Majesty's Wisdom and Prudence.

Your

Your Majesty's Care in recommending to your Parliament such Measures as may best contribute to the Ease of your Subjects, (consistent with Honour to the Nation) is such an Instance of Paternal Care, as must warm the Breast of every one with a hearty Zeal and Love for your Majesty's Person and Government, who deserves to be a Sharer in the Favours derived from it.

That your Majesty may be long continued a Blessing to these Kingdoms, by a happy Reign over us; and that we may never want a truly Protestant Prince, descended from you, with the like amiable Qualities to sway the British Scepter, is the hearty Prayer of,

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Aldermen, Bailiffs, and Common Council.

S.* On the 17th Instant died Baron Gersdorff, Knight of the Order of Dannebrog, Privy Counsellor of Conference, Secretary to both Orders of Knighthood, Bailiff of Copenhagen, and Grand Bailiff of Zealand; and M. de Pleffe, Son of the late First Minister of that Name, has been appointed Secretary to both Orders of Knighthood in his Room; and he is also appointed Grand Master of the Ceremonies. The 18th being the Birth-day of the reigning Queen, the same was celebrated here with great Magnificence, and all possible Demonstrations of Joy. A Ship newly built, belonging to the Company of General Commerce, was launched that Day, and named the Kingdom's Wish; also a fine Theatre, lately erected for the Use of the Danish Comedians, was then first opened, in the Presence of the Court, and of a very numerous Audience, who were all invited and placed at the King's Expence. After the Comedy, there was a Supper of about 80 Covers at their Majesty's Table, which was accompanied with a Concert of Musick, performed by the Royal Band, and by the Singers of the Opera. There are seven Ships now lying in this Road ready to put to Sea, viz. Two for Tranquebar, two for Mina, and three for the Danish Settlements in America.

S.* This State received last Saturday a Requisitorial Letter from the Duke of Aremberg, to demand a Passage for the Regiment of Los Rios, two Companies of Grenadiers, and one Battalion of Aremberg; on which the Regency dispatch'd the same Day a Commissary to meet and conduct the said

Troops through this State, and to furnish them with all Necessaries. On Sunday the 5th Instant the Regiment of Los Rios arrived at Ochain on the Borders of this Territory, and the Battalion of Aremberg was at Soy near the Confines of Luxembourg: Every Thing was prepared at Huy for their Reception on Monday, but on Sunday the Officer who commanded them received an Express from the Duke of Aremberg, with Orders for the Troops to march back to the Quarters they had before. The French Troops, which marched out of Tilemont, have been replaced by two Battalions of Bouffler Walon, who came from Menin.
