St. James's, January 14.

THE following Address of the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of the City of Coventry, has been presented to his Majesty by William Grove and Samuel Greatheed, Esqrs. their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, their Recorder. Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bailiffs, and Commonalty of your ancient City of Coventry, in Council assembled, do, with the sincerest Joy, congratulate your Majesty on your safe and happy Return to these Kingdoms; and with the greatest Gratitude we return our most hearty Thanks to your Majesty for rescuing Europe from Slavery, and so honourably ending a just and necessary War.

Your Majesty's mild and glorious Reign, and your constant Regard for the Liberties and Happiness of your Subjects, have always, with the utmost Affection, endeared your Majesty's Person to us, and it would create in us great Concern and Abhorrence, to find any Remains of Ingratitude in this most happy Island; being fully convinc'd, that if the highest Degree of Goodness in a Prince can make a People happy, all your Majesty's Subjects have the greatest Reason to rejoice, and are under the strongest Obligations to Loyalty.

May your Majesty long continue to live the Ornament and Honour of Kings, the great and faithful Friend and Preserver of the Liberties of Europe, and the kind Father of all your People; and may Britons, in all future Generations, find and deserve that Liberty and Happiness we now enjoy, under a Succession of Princes of your illustrious Family.

Given under our common Seal the 28th Day of December, 1748.

(Price Four-pence.)

The following Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow, has been presented to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Montrose, Chancellor of the University of Glasgow: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Chancellor, Rector, Principal and Professors of the University of Glasgow.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Chancellor, Rector, Principal, Dean of Faculty, and other Members of the University of Glasgow, humbly beg Leave, with the greatest Sincerity, to join in the National Congratulations on your Majesty's safe Return to your Kingdoms, and to express our most grateful Thanks to your Majesty, for putting a happy Period to the Calamities which always accompany War however necessarily undertaken.

The inestimable Blessings of Peace, restored to Europe by your Majesty's Influence, must be deeply felt by all Ranks of People; we rejoice with our Fellow Subjects in the Possession of them, and we are particularly sensible that Learning, and every Liberal Art must flourish under your Majesty's paternal Care, and indulgent Government.

In this happy Situation, your faithful Subjects have nothing farther to wish, but that it may please Almighty God to prolong your Majesty's Life and Reign, undisturbed for the future by foreign Wars or rebellious Insurrections; that you may continue long to secure the Liberties of your People, while they, under your Majesty's gracious Protection, cultivate the Arts, and enjoy the Fruits of that Peace which you have so wisely and happily established.

We farther beg Leave, with all Humility, to assure your Majesty, that we feel ourselves bound by the united Principles of Duty and Gratitude, to use our utmost Endeavours to inspire the Youth

Youth under our Care with the warmest Sense of Liberty and Love to their Country; the most ardent Zeal for our happy Constitution, and the firmest Adherence to your Majesty's Sacred Person and Royal House, as being, under God, the surest Guardians of our Religion and Liberties, and every thing dear to us as Men and Christians.

May it please your Majesty,
Your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

The following Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable Thomas Lord Fitzwilliams, Custos Rotulorum of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

The humble Address of the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Custos Rotulorum, Justices of Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Citizens of the City and Liberty of Peterborough, fully sensible of the many invaluable Blessings we enjoy under your most auspicious Government, beg leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and happy Arrival into these your British Dominions.

Mov'd with the Groans of distressed Nations, your generous Pity call'd you hence to put a Stop to the sad Calamities of a wide wasting War, which had well nigh ruin'd and depopulated many flourishing States and Kingdoms; and Heaven, which knew the upright Intentions of your Royal Breast, has bless'd your pious Endeavours with Success.

The steady Pursuit of wise Counsels, has in a short Time made you surmount all the Difficulties and Obstacles in the Way of Peace, and to reconcile the jarring Interests of contending Nations, which in other Hands, and under weaker Influence, must have been the Labour of many Years to accomplish and bring about.

Your Majesty engaged in this just and necessary War, to vindicate the Rights of your injur'd Subjects, and to restore and secure the Balance of Power, and the Liberties of Europe; these salutary Ends once obtained, you lent your healing Hand to staunch her bleeding Wounds, and fix her Safety and Repose upon a firm and solid Foundation.

The particular Regard your Majesty has always shewn to the true Interests of your People, and the Care you have taken to secure their just Rights, as confirm'd to them by this and former Treaties, calls for our most grateful Acknowledgments. Commerce, we hope, will now again revive and flourish, and all the happy Arts of Peace enrich and adorn these envied Kingdoms.

May your Majesty long enjoy the Fruits of all your Labours, in the due Returns of Obedience and Loyalty from all your Subjects; may your Reign be prosperous, and never more disturb'd either by foreign Wars, or domestick Commotions; may you long live to bless these Nations, and when full of Years and Glory Heaven shall call you hence, may your Memory survive in the amiable Character of the most gracious and merciful Prince that ever fill'd a Throne, or bless'd a People; and may there never be wanting Princes of your illustrious House, the true Heirs of your Crown, and the exact Imitators of all your Royal Virtues, to reign over us through all future Ages.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgeses, and others, of the Borough of Derby, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Duncannon and John Stanhope, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of St. Albans, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Town Clerk, Brethren, Capital Burgeses, and others of your Majesty's ancient Borough of Derby in the County of Derby.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

YOUR Majesty's late happy Arrival into your British Dominions from Abroad, now excites us, from an unfeigned Joy and Thankfulness, to approach your Royal Person; and more particularly, as your Majesty's Return hither to your Loyal Subjects, is attended with such strong Assurances, (through your Majesty's great Wisdom and Policy) of Transferring to the People of this Nation, an happy and solid Peace.

'Tis now through God's Providence and Protection of your Majesty's Person and Royal Family, that we find the gloomy Horrors of an unnatural Rebellion, and national Confusion, which so lately exhibited themselves in this Kingdom, (and more than ordinarily in this Place) and so destructive of the Comforts we enjoyed under your Majesty's auspicious Government, effectually dissipated and removed.

Your Majesty and Royal Family may always depend on our inviolable Attachments to your Majesty's Person and Government, which have so substantially enabled us to enjoy those invaluable Blessings of our Religion, Laws and Liberties; bertes; as likewise in the present Instance, have pointed out to us the Prospect and pleasing Hopes of partaking of the Fruits of an happy and lasting Peace.

Given under our Hands at the Borough of Derby aforesaid, the First Day of December, in the Twenty-second Year of your Majesty's Reign, and in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty eight.

AT the Court at St. James's, the 11th Day of January, 1748.

Hague, Jan. 17, N. S. The States of Holland met on Wednesday last according to their Appointment. The Dispute arisen some Time ago between the Directors and the principal Proprietors of the East India Company, belonging to the Chamber of Amsterdam, (about the Right of settling the Terms on which the Post of Director and Governor General of their Company is to be conferr'd on the Prince of Orange) is not yet decided; but the States General have ordered both Parties to attend here in about three Weeks Time, that the Committee appointed for the Examination of this Affair, may be better informed of the Reasons alledged on both Sides, and and that their High Mightinesses may judge of the Conditions on which that Post should be offer'd to his Serene Highness.

Whitehall, January 14, 1748-9.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that divers Burglaries, Outrages, and Disorders have lately been committed within the Parish of St. Paul, Covent Garden, particularly, a Burglary in Southampson-street, on Sunday Morning last, about Three o'Clock, when the Dwelling House of Mrs. Elizabeth Phillips was broke open by Persons armed, and some valuable Things were taken away: And whereas two of the Watchmen of the said Parish were wounded in a very dangerous Manner, by endeavouring to apprehend the Persons concerned in the said Burglary: His Majesty, for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Burglary and Robbery, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any one of them, who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

BEDFORD.

St. Paul, Covent Garden, Jan. 14, 1748.

And the Inhabitants of this Parish have resolved, and do hereby promise a Reward of Twenty Guineas (over and above the Reward allowed by Act of Parliament) for a Discovery of the Person or Persons who committed the said Burglary, so that he or they may be legally convicted thereof. Or if any of the Persons concerned therein will discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they may be convicted, he shall receive the like Reward from Mr. Alexander Gage, Treasurer of the Watch Board of the said Parish, at his House in Bedford Court.

And as a further Encouragement for such Discoveries; and to bring the Offenders to Justice, the said Inhabitants do hereby promise a further Reward of Twenty Guineas, (over and above the Allowance by Act of Parliament) for a Discovery of one or more Person or Persons guilty of, or concerned in any Burglary that shall be committed in the said Parish within the Space of four Months next ensuing, to be paid by the Treasurer above-named, so soon as he, she or they shall be legally convicted thereof.

By Order,

In^o Spranger, Vestry Clerk.

Whitehall, January 10, 1748-9.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, That Richard Hawkins, late of Yapton in the County of Suffex, Labourer, being, some Time in the Month of January last, at Work in a Barn near the said Parish, was forcibly taken from thence by Jeremiab Curtis, alias Butler, late of Hawkhurst in the County of Kent, and John Mills, alias Smoaker, of Trotton in the County of Suffex, Labourer, and was by them carried into a Back Room in the Dog and Partridge Alehouse on Slinden Common; where Thomas Winter alias Coachman, alias Kentish Coachman, of Postling near Hythe, in the County of Kent, Farmer; and a Person called Rob, otherwise Little Fat Back, Servant to Jere. Curtis, which said Rob lives at or near East Grinstead, and is Brother to a Person living there, known by the Name of the Cackler, were waiting for them: In which Room they detained the said Richard Hawkins till about Twelve o'Clock at Night; when the said Jeremiab Curtis, John Mills, Rob, and Thomas Winter went away, and took with them the said Richard Hawkins; who was not afterwards seen or heard of till his Body was found in a Pond in Parham Park, in the said County of Suffex; That the Coroner's Inquest having sat upon the said Body, found it to be the Body of the said Richard Hawkins, and brought in their Verdict, Wilful Murder by Persons unknown.

And whereas it has been further represented to the King, That several Murders, Burglaries and Robberies have been lately committed in the County of Suffex; and that there is the strongest Reason to believe, that the said Jeremiab Curtis, John Mills, Rob, and Thomas Winter, were the Authors of the said Murder: His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the abovesaid Persons, as well as for discouraging such horrid and barbarous Outrages, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall apprehend, or, by giving Information, shall cause to be apprehended, so as he or they be convicted thereof, any one or more of the said Offenders; notwithstanding the Person making such Discovery shall now stand outlawed for not having surrendered himself to Justice, pursuant to Notice given in the London Gazette; provided that such Person shall not appear to have been concerned in the abovesaid Murder, or any other Murder; or to have been concern'd in the breaking open his Majesty's Warehouse at Pool.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

Custom-House, London, Jan. 10, 1748.

And as a further Encouragement for bringing the Offenders to Justice, the Commissioners of the Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds for the discovering and apprehending each of the Persons concerned in the said Murder; to be paid by the Receiver General of the Customs upon the Conviction of each Offender respectively.

By Order of the Commissioners,
William Wood, Secr.

N. B. Thomas Winter is apprehended, and is now in his Majesty's Goal of Newgate in London.
