THE following Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City and County of Norwich, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord John Hobart and the Right Honourable Horatio Walpole, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City and County of Norwich in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Sheriffs, Citizens and Commonalty of the City and County of Norwich in Common Council assembled, with Hearts warmed with the sincerest Gratitude to your Majesty for your paternal Care and Protection of us, most humbly beg Leave to express our Joy on your safe Return into your British Dominions, after having most happily put an End to a bloody and expensive War.

We are very sensible, that the same Motives induced your Majesty to Peace, which first urged you to War, and that the Security of the Trade and Commerce of these Kingdoms, and the Preservation of your faithful Allies, were the Views, with which you acted, both in carrying on the one, and concluding the other.

Permit us therefore to assure your Majesty of our Zeal and Affection for your Royal Person and Family, and to pour out our most ardent Wishes, that your most gracious Government may be long and happy; for the Support and Defence of which, we must ever think ourselves under the highest Obligations to exert the utmost of our Abilities.

Given under our Common Seal this Nineteenth Day of January, in the Year of our Lord One thousand seven hundred and forty eight.

The following Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Town of Kingston upon Hull, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Robert Manners, one of their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Ashburnham, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

It is with the greatest Pleasure we look back on your Majesty's steady Conduct through every Period of the late War; a War begun with Justice, carried on by your Majesty with Vigour, and ended with Honour and Advantage to these Kingdoms. These Transactions call for the warmest Acknowledgments of your grateful Subjects, conscious of the Benefits restored to us by an honourable Peace, concluded with un-
