Most Gracious Sovereign,

PERMIT us to approach your Throne with Hearts full of unfeigned Joy, to congratulate your Majesty on the Establishment of the General Peace and Tranquillity of Europe. An Event which must be peculiarly glorious and pleasing to your Majesty : Glorious, as your Majesty's Influence was so considerable in producing it ; pleasing, as it tends to promote that which appears to be the End of all your Majesty's Determinations, the Welfare of your Subjects and Mankind.

May your Majesty long reign the Blessing and Security of your People ! May your Posterity ever flourish on the Throne of these Kingdoms ! and may your Royal House ever continue to be distinguished and enabled by a Race of Princes and Heroes, who may tread in the Steps of their great Ancestors, and make the Happiness of Mankind the lasting Monument of their Glory.

WE the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen and Burgeses of the Borough of Leicester, beg Leave humbly to approach your Sacred Person to express the great Joy we received from your Majesty's safe Return to these Kingdoms, attended with the Blessings of Peace.

Your Majesty entred into the late Wars in Defence of the just Rights of your Subjects, and in Preservation of the Liberties of Europe ; and no sooner could your Majesty attain those great Ends, upon a solid and lasting Foundation, than you gave your Subjects the pleasing Prospect of Peace.

We give your Majesty our hearty Thanks for your paternal Care for the Safety and Honour of these Kingdoms, and beg Leave to assure you of our sincere Affection, and constant Loyalty, which we will, upon all Occasions, effectually demonstrate, to the utmost of our Power.

We sincerely wish your Majesty may long reign over an obedient and loyal People, and that your Posterity (with the same happy Notions of securing the Civil and Religious Rights of this Nation, as your Majesty has always shewn) may sit on the Throne of these Kingdoms to the latest Generations. As this Wish comprehends all the Happiness that a Free and Protestant

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses and Assistants of the Town of Tiverton in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Dudley Ryder, Knt. and Col. Cunningham, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses and Assistants of the Town of Tiverton in the County of Devon, in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to these your British Dominions, and on the happy Conclusion of the Peace.

We are truly sensible, that your Majesty's great Wisdom and Resolution is engaging in the late War, was upon just and solid Reasons.

Your Majesty, during the Course of it, has had proper Opportunities of experiencing the Affection of your Subjects, the Credit of your Merchants, the Courage and Bravery of your Soldiers, and the great Value and Importance of your Fleets, who have distinguished themselves to the Glory of your Majesty, and the Honour of the British Nation.

Permit us, Sir, on this Occasion, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's tender Regard in procuring for us the Blessings of Peace, as we doubt not but it will advance the true Interest of your People; and may your Majesty and your Royal Descendants ever reign over us in Peace and Happiness, is the ardent and sincere Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixteenth Day of January 1748.

The following Address of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Bateman, and by Sir Robert Cornwallis Knt. and James Peachy, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster, in Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and welcome Arrival to your British Dominions.

We recollect with Pleasure your Majesty's great Fortitude of Mind under the long and expensive War, which you were obliged to be engaged in for the Defence of the Rights and Privileges of your People; and we adore the Providence that has made you the glorious Instrument of restoring to these Nations the invaluable Blessing of a safe and honourable Peace.

We humbly beg Leave, Sir, to express the greatest Regard and warmest Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Favour and Protection as a Free and Protestant People.

May the Almighty grant, that your Reign over us may be long and happy; that the Designs of all your Enemies, both Foreign and Domestick, may be still disappointed: And may our Religion, Laws and Liberties, under your Majesty and Royal Family, be transmitted to the latest Posterity.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Lyme Regis in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most obedient and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Lyme Regis in the County of Dorset, with Hearts full of all Duty and Respect, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to Great Britain: And at the same Time to assure your Majesty, that whenever you have been obliged to go Abroad, our most ardent Wishes for your Preservation have always accompanied you both going out and coming Home.

But never were our Wishes more fully accomplished than at present, when your Majesty has brought back with you the noblest Gift a Prince Prince can give to his People, the Blessing of Peace.

As this is an Event so glorious to your Majesty, and of so great Importance to the Welfare of your Subjects, as well as of your Allies, we can never sufficiently bless and praise the Divine Goodness, in having chosen your Majesty to be the happy Instrument of putting an End to this bloody and destructive War, and of accomplishing so difficult a Work, to the full Contentment of all the Parties concerned in it, and to the unspeakable Joy of all Europe.

Whilst other Princes pride themselves with having spread Misery and Desolation all around them, with having reduced the most flourishing Cities to Heaps of Rubbish, and having mingled the Blood of Thousands and ten Thousands of poor Mortals with the Dust of the Earth;

'Tis our Happiness to live under a Prince, who has never engaged in War, but with the greatest Reluctancy;

Who has never sent forth his Fleets, but when the Cries of his injured Mariners obliged him to rise up in their just Defence; and who has never sent forth his Army, but to rescue our Religion and Liberties, as well as the Balance of Power in Europe, out of the Hands of a powerful Invader.

May your Majesty therefore, as a just Recompence for all those Blessings you have with so much Hazard and Fatigue procured for your People, enjoy for many Years a happy and peaceable Reign over us, undisturbed either by Malice or Envy.

And whenever that fatal Hour shall approach, which will deprive us of so good and gracious a Sovereign, may there never be wanting a Prince of your illustrious Family, Heir to your Royal Virtues as well as your Crown, to set on the Throne of these Kingdoms to the latest Generations.

This, Great Sir, is the constant and unfeigned Prayer of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Lyme Regis.
