

Protestant People can desire, we humbly assure your Majesty, that it is our constant and fervent Prayer.

Given under our Common Seal the Three and Twentieth Day of December, in the Year of our Lord, One thousand seven hundred and forty eight.

The following Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses and Assistants of the Town of Tiverton in the County of Devon, has been presented to his Majesty by Sir Dudley Ryder, Knt. and Col. Cunningham, their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-Chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Capital Burgeses and Assistants of the Town of Tiverton in the County of Devon, in Council assembled.

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, most humbly beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to these your British Dominions, and on the happy Conclusion of the Peace.

We are truly sensible, that your Majesty's great Wisdom and Resolution is engaging in the late War, was upon just and solid Reasons.

Your Majesty, during the Course of it, has had proper Opportunities of experiencing the Affection of your Subjects, the Credit of your Merchants, the Courage and Bravery of your Soldiers, and the great Value and Importance of your Fleets, who have distinguished themselves to the Glory of your Majesty, and the Honour of the British Nation.

Permit us, Sir, on this Occasion, with Hearts full of Gratitude, to acknowledge our sincere Thanks for your Majesty's tender Regard in procuring for us the Blessings of Peace, as we doubt not but it will advance the true Interest of your People; and may your Majesty and your Royal Descendants ever reign over us in Peace and Happiness, is the ardent and sincere Prayers of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects.

Given under our Common Seal the Sixteenth Day of January 1748.

The following Address of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster, has been presented to his Majesty by the Right Hon. the Lord Bateman, and by Sir Robert Cornwallis Knt. and James Peachy, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Manchester, one of the Lords of his Majesty's Bed-chamber in Waiting: Which Address his Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Bailiff and Capital Burgeses of the Borough of Leominster, in Council assembled, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty upon your safe and welcome Arrival to your British Dominions.

We recollect with Pleasure your Majesty's great Fortitude of Mind under the long and expensive War, which you were obliged to be engaged in for the Defence of the Rights and Privileges of your People; and we adore the Providence that has made you the glorious Instrument of restoring to these Nations the invaluable Blessing of a safe and honourable Peace.

We humbly beg Leave, Sir, to express the greatest Regard and warmest Gratitude for the many Blessings we enjoy under your Majesty's Favour and Protection as a Free and Protestant People.

May the Almighty grant, that your Reign over us may be long and happy; that the Designs of all your Enemies, both Foreign and Domestick, may be still disappointed: And may our Religion, Laws and Liberties, under your Majesty and Royal Family, be transmitted to the latest Posterity.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Lyme Regis in the County of Dorset.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most obedient and loyal Subjects, the Mayor and Burgeses of the Borough of Lyme Regis in the County of Dorset, with Hearts full of all Duty and Respect, beg Leave to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to Great Britain: And at the same Time to assure your Majesty, that whenever you have been obliged to go Abroad, our most ardent Wishes for your Preservation have always accompanied you both going out and coming Home.

But never were our Wishes more fully accomplished than at present, when your Majesty has brought back with you the noblest Gift a Prince
