Garter Principal King of Arms between two Serjeants at Arms. A Party of Horse Guards. At Charing-cross Norroy King of Arms read the Proclamation, and Somerset Herald proclaimed it aloud. In this Method the Procession was made to Temple-Bar, where the Officers of the City of Westminster retired, and within the Gate the Lord Mayor, Aldermen, Recorder and Sheriffs in Scarlet, attended; and Bluemantle Pursuivant having presented to his Lordship the Earl Marshal's Warrant, the City Procession followed the Party of Horse Guards. At the End of Chancery-Lane Somerset Herald read the Proclamation, and York Herald proclaimed it aloud. At the End of Wood-street, where the Cross formerly stood, York Herald read the Proclamation, and Chester Herald proclaimed it aloud. And lastly at the Royal Exchange, in 'Change Time, Chester Herald read the Proclamation, and Lancaster Herald proclaimed it aloud. The Spectators expressed their great Satisfaction by loud Acclamations of Joy at each Place.

Genoa, January 27, N. S. Three Days ago a Courier arrived from Nice, with Advice that a Convention had been signed there for the Evacuation of Italy; in Consequence of which a Detachment of the Spanish Regiments marched Yesterday from Recco for Parma, and the Remainder are to follow this Day and To-morrow; and General Almada, who commands them, sets out this Night or To-morrow Morning for Parma, he being appointed to take Possession of those States in the Name of the Infant Don Phillip. The French Troops are to begin to march the 1st of next Month. M. de Chauvelin, it is said, is to remain here as Plenipotentiary to settle the Affairs of Corsica.

Dublin, January 21.

Yesterday being the Birth-Day of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, the Great Guns were fired in his Majesty's Phoenix Park, and answered by Volleys from the Regiments in Garrison, which were drawn out in the Royal Square at the Barracks: At Noon there was a splendid Appearance of the Nobility, and other Persons of Distinction at the Castle, to compliment the Lords Justices upon this Occasion: And at Night there was a Play given by their Excellencies for the Entertainment of the Ladies.

Whitehall, Jan. 31, 1748-9.

Whereas it has been represented to the King, that Richard Hawkins, late of Tipton in the County of Sussex, Labourer, being, some Time in the Month of January last, at Work in a Barn, near the said Parisb, was forcibly taken from thence by Jeremiah Curtis alias Butler, late of Haywards in the County of Kent, and John Mills alias Smoaker, of Trotton in the County of Sussex, Labourer, and was by them carried into a Back Room in the Dog and Partridge Alehouse on Slendon Common, where Thomas Winter, alias Coachman, alias Kentish Coachman, of Postling near Hythe in the County of Kent, Farmer, and a Person called Robb, alias Richard Rowland, of East Grinstead in the County of Sussex, and is Brother to a Person living there, known by the Name of the Cackler, were waiting for them, in which Room they detained the said Richard Hawkins till about Twelve of the Clock at Night, when the said Jeremiah Curtis, John Mills, Robb, and Thomas Winter, went away, and took with them the said Richard Hawkins, who was not afterwards seen or heard of till his Body was found in a Pond in Parham Park in the said County of Sussex; That the Coroner's Inquest having sat upon the said Body, found it to be the Body of the said Richard Hawkins, and brought in their Verdict Wilful Murder by Persons unknown.

And whereas at a Special Commission of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery for the County of Sussex, held at Chichester on Monday the 16th Day of January last, a Bill of Indictment was found by the Grand Jury of the said County, against Samuel Downer, alias Samuel Howard, alias Little Sam, of Rowland's Castle in the County of Hants, Labourer, Edmund Richards, of Long Coppice, in the Parish of Warblington, in the said County, Labourer, and Henry Sheerman, alias Little Harry, of Lye near Warblington aforesaid, Labourer, for the Murder of one William Gally; and also another Bill of Indictment was then and there found against Thomas Stringer, late of the City of Chichester, Cordwainer, and Daniel Perryer, alias Little Daniel, late of Norton in Sussex, Labourer, for the Murder of Daniel Chater; and also against John Mills, late of Trotton in the County of Sussex, Labourer, and Thomas Willis, commonly called the Coachman, of Selbourne near Lipbook in the County of Hants, Labourer, as Accessaries before the Fact; to which Indictments they nor any of them have yet appeared to be tried for the said Murders; His Majesty, for the better apprehending and bringing to Justice the said Curtis, Mills, Robb, Downer, Richards, Sheerman, Stringer, Perryer, and Willis, as well as for discouraging such horrid and barbarous Outrages, is pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person who shall apprehend, or, by giving Information, shall cause to be apprehended, so as he or they be convicted thereof, any one or more of the said Offenders, notwithstanding the Person making such Discovery shall now stand Outlawed for not having surrendered himself to Justice, pursuant to Notice given in the London Gazette; provided that such Person shall not appear to have been concerned in the aforesaid Murder, or any other Murder, or to have been concerned in the Breaking open his Majesty's Warehouse at Poole.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE,

Custom-House, London, Jan. 31, 1748.

And as a farther Encouragement for bringing the Offenders to Justice, the Commissioners of the Customs do hereby promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds, for the Discovering and Apprehending each of the Persons concerned in the said Murder, to be paid by the Receiver-General of the Customs, upon the Conviction of each Offender
