THE Sovereign having determined to hold a Chapter of the most Noble Order of the Garter, and the Knights Companions resident in and near London, being summoned to attend here this Day, there appeared habited in their Mantles his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, and the Knights herein after mentioned, with the Dean of Windsor the Register, and Garter King of Arms, in their respective Mantles, and wearing their different Badges, who waited the Sovereign's coming; and upon his Appearance, Garter, by the Sovereign's Command, called over the Names of the Knights Companions present, beginning with the Juniors in the Order, who thereon proceeded to the Gallery where the Chapter was appointed to be held in the following Method, the Juniors first; and the Knights, whose Companions in the Stalls opposite to them were absent, went single.

Duke of Kingston,	Duke of Portland,
Duke of St. Albans,
Duke of Richmond,
Duke of Newcastle,	Duke of Grafton,
Duke of Dorset,

His Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland, Garter King of Arms having on his Right Hand the Dean of Windsor, Register of the Order.

The SOVEREIGN.

Upon entering the Gallery, the Knights stood behind their several Chairs (placed there as at the Time of holding of the Privy Council) till the Sovereign had seated himself in the Chair of State at the upper End of the Table, and then, by his Majesty's Leave, took their Chairs. Then Garter with Reverence acquainted the Sovereign, That the Honourable Henry Bellenden, Esq; attended without the Door, and most humbly beseeched His Majesty to be admitted to take the Oath of Office, as Gentleman Usher of the Black Rod of this most Noble Order; and he was accordingly introduced in his Mantle; and being come to the Sovereign, he kneeling down took the Oath enjoined by the Statutes; His Majesty having put the Gold Chain with the Jewel about his Neck; was pleased to confer on him the Honour of Knighthood; then having kissed His the Sovereign's Hand, he withdrew to the Bottom of the Table.

Garter then in like Manner having acquainted the Sovereign, that the Lord Bishop of Salisbury attended without the Door, and most humbly besought his Majesty, that he might be admitted to the Office of Chancellor of this most Noble Order; which Office is annexed to that Bishoprick.

And his Lordship in his Episcopal Habit was introduced accordingly between Garter and Black Rod, Black Rod carrying on a Velvet Cushion the Mantle, Gold Chain and Purse; and being come to the Sovereign, Black Rod invested his Lordship with the Mantle; and the Oath of Office being administered to him kneeling, Black Rod on his Knee presented to His Majesty the Gold Chain and Jewel; which His Majesty put round his Neck; and his Lordship having received from the Sovereign the Purse, and kissed His Majesty's Hand, placed himself on the Left Hand of the Chair of State.

Then the Chancellor, by the Sovereign's Command, declared His Royal Pleasure, that the Six vacant Stalls in the Royal Chapel at Windsor should now be filled; and each Knight having wrote down the Names of nine Persons whom they esteemed most qualified to be elected in a Scrutiny; and having severally subscribed their Hands thereto, the same was collected by the Chancellor, and presented by him on his Knee to the Sovereign, who after inspecting them, commanded the Chancellor to declare

declare his Royal Highness Prince George, eldest Son of his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales, duly elected.

The Second Scrutiny was in like Manner presented to the Sovereign, who, after inspecting the same, commanded the Chancellor to declare his most Serene Highness the Margrave of Anspach duly elected.

Garter then was commanded to bring in his Grace the Duke of Leeds, who being introduced by Garter, kneeled down before the Sovereign, and, being knighted with the Sword of State, retired; and the Third Scrutiny being collected by the Chancellor, and delivered to the Sovereign in the former Manner, the Chancellor, by the Sovereign's Command, declared the Duke of Leeds duly elected.

Upon which Garter and Black Rod were sent to introduce his Grace, who being brought to the Door of the Chapter-Room, was there received by the Dukes of Kingston and Portland the Junior Knights, and conducted by them to the Sovereign with the accustomed Reverences; Garter, carrying on a Velvet Cushion the Garter and George hanging to a Blue Ribbond, did upon his Knee present the Garter to the Sovereign, who gave it to his Royal Highness the Duke of Cumberland and the Duke of Dorset, the two Senior Companions, which they buckled about his Grace's Left Leg, whilst the Chancellor read the Admonition enjoyned by the Statutes; and then Garter having with like Reverence presented to the Sovereign the Blue Ribbond and George, His Majesty, assisted by his Royal Highness and the Duke of Dorset, put it over his Grace's Left Shoulder, who was then kneeling, the Chancellor in the mean Time reading the proper Admonition. And his Grace having kissed the Sovereign's Hand, and thanked His Majesty for the great Honour done him, rose up and saluted all the Companions severally, who returned their Congratulations, bowed to his Royal Highness, and withdrew.

Then his Grace the Duke of Bedford and the Right Hon. the Earls of Albemarle and Granville were elected, and received the Ensigns of the Order in like Manner, and withdrew.

Garter then called over the Names of the Knights Companions, and the Procession was made back in the Manner before described, save only that the Chancellor and Black Rod went in their proper Places.

Dresden, June 25, N. S. On the 20th Instant, the Lightning fell into two Magazines of Gunpowder at Breslaw, and blew them up, and the Shock that the Blast gave to the rest of the Town was prodigious; a great Part of the Fortifications are demolished by it, and one Half of that large City is intirely destroyed. From Letters just arrived, it is supposed that there are about 200 Houses destroyed; and that a great Number of the Inhabitants perished by this unhappy Accident.

Hambourg, June 27, N. S. We received Yesterday a most melancholy Account mentioned in several Letters from Breslaw, of the Lightning's having fallen the 21st Instant, at Three o'Clock in the Morning, upon a Magazine stored with five Hundred Quintals of Gunpowder: One Half of the Town is in a Manner destroyed by this Accident, its Houses, Convents, and Churches demolished, Numbers of Lives lost; and in the Part of the Town, where the Shock was felt with less Violence, the Windows have been shattered to Pieces, the Roofs of the Houses damaged, &c. And as the Accident has happened about the Time of the Midsummer Fair of Breslaw, when one may suppose that the Supplies and Provisions of Merchandizes have been lately sent in thither, the Losses may extend not only to the unhappy Sufferers in the Town itself, but to those who have their Connections in Commerce with them; which occasions great Uneasiness to several Merchants upon this Exchange. We hear from Dresden, that the Assembly of the States, convoked by the King of Poland to take into Consideration, with his Council, the proper Methods for the better regulating the Finances of his Majesty's Hereditary Dominions, had opened their Session.

Hague, June 27, N. S. The States of Holland, after having maturely deliberated on the two Plans lately offered to their Consideration by the Prince Stadtholder, for supplying for ever the Deficiency occasioned in their Revenue by the Suppression of the Farms, determined Yesterday Morning in Favour of the Plan for raising by Collectors the Duties that were heretofore farmed out to the Pachtors. They have begun this Week, in several Towns of this Province, to distribute the Tickets importing the Sums that every Housekeeper is to pay before the 1st of August next, towards the provisional Taxes, for making good the Deficiency occasioned in the Revenue by the Abolition of the Farms, ever since the 26th of June 1748, N. S. Prince George of Hesse Cassel, who was expected here last Wednesday, is not yet arrived. Count Dehn arrived here two Days ago, and delivered Yesterday his Credentials to the States General, as Envoy Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary from the King of Denmark.

Hague, July 1, N. S. A Military Ordinance has been issued since the Prince of Orange's Return from Loo; in Consequence of which, two Companies of Grenadiers are to be formed in each Battalion of Foot, so that a Battalion of ten Companies is, for the future, to consist of eight Companies of Fuziliers and two of Grenadiers; the last of which are to receive two Stuyvers a Week more than the Fuziliers, and to enjoy the Post of Honour upon all Occasions, together with several other Advantages. But as the the Direction of these new Companies, one fifth Part of the Private Men in every Company of Foot is still to consist of Grenadiers, conformably to the ancient Regulations. The Prince Stadtholder having sent; while he was at Loo, M. Tuyl de Serooskerken, one of his Aid-de-Camps, to compliment Prince Charles of Lorraine, that Prince has, in Return, sent M. de Vitrimont, one of his Chamberlains, to compliment his Serene Highness in his Name. Prince George of Hesse Cassel, and the Prince of Birkenfeld, arrived here three Days ago.

Whitehall, June 24.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint the Right Honourable George Duke Earl of Halifax, Robert Herbert, John Pitt, James Grenville, Esqrs. Thomas Hay, Esq; commonly called Lord Viscount upplin, Francis Fane, Esq; and Sir Thomas Robinson, Knight of the Bath; together with Charles Townshend, Esq; in the Room of B. Pitt Esq; and Gower, Esq; to be Commissioners for Trade and Plantations.

By the Principal Officers and Commissioners of His Majesty's Navy.

Whereas divers Persons have had Sums of Money impressed to them by Us, and others have drawn Bills of Exchange, which have been paid and charged as Imprest against them: These are to give Notice to all Persons who have had any Money impressed to them from this Office, or drawn Bills, and have not delivered in their Accounts and Vouchers to be examined and paid to clear the same, that they do forthwith deliver them into this Office, in order to pass their Accounts, and thereby clear the Imprests standing out against them, and prevent their being returned into the Exchequer and prosecuted, as otherwise they will be; and such Persons as have passed their Accounts, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, and take up their Imprests. Dated at the Navy Office, 26 May, 1749.

By the Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy.

Whereas divers Persons have had Sums of Money impressed to them by Us, and others have drawn Bills of Exchange which have been paid and charged as Imprest against them: These are to give Notice to all Persons who have had any Money impressed to them from this Office, or drawn Bills, and have not delivered in their Accounts and Vouchers to be examined and paid to clear the same, that they do forthwith deliver them into this Office in order to pass their Accounts, and thereby clear the Imprests standing out against them, and prevent their being returned into the Exchequer, and prosecuted, as otherwise they will be; and such Persons as have passed their Accounts, are exhorted to carry their perfect Bills to the Office of the Treasurer of the Navy, and take up their Imprests. Dated at the Victualling Office this 29th of May, 1749.

Victualling Office, June 14, 1749.

The Commissioners for Victualling his Majesty's Navy give Notice, that on Wednesday the 12th of July next, in the Forenoon, they will be ready to treat with such Persons as may be willing to contract for the furnishing such of his Majesty's Ships and Vessels with Provisions as may Touch at New England, and be in Want thereof. The Conditions of the Contract may be seen at the Secretary's Office at the Victualling Office, London.
