Westminster, June 26.

observed at the Installation of the Knights Companions of the Most Honourable Order of the Bath.

THE Knights having apparelled themselves in their Surcoats of red, lined and edged with white, girded about with a white Girdle, and in Mantles of the same Colour and Lining, made fast about the Neck with a Lace of white Silk, having a Pair of white Gloves tyed therein, with Tassels of Silk and Gold at the End, which Mantles were adorned upon the Left Shoulders with the Ensign of the Order, being three Imperial Crowns Or, surrounded with the antient Motto of this Knighthood, Tria juncta in Uno, wrought upon a Circle Gules, with a Glory or Rays issuing from the Center, and under it the Lace of white Silk heretofore worn by the Knights of the Bath, and the Proxy of the absent Knight taking upon his Right Arm the Mantle of his Principal, met in the Prince's Chamber, (their Chapter-Room,) about Ten of the Clock in the Forenoon; and the Persons, who were to attend in this Ceremony, being ranged according to their Degrees, a solemn Procession was made from thence to the West-Door of the Abbey Church of Westminster, through St. Margaret's Church Yard, in the following Method:
The Drums of His Majesty's Household, the Drum-Major attending.
A Kettle-Drum, and His Majesty's Trumpets, the Serjeant-Trumpeter attending.
Twelve Alms-Men of the Church of Westminster, going two and two in their Gowns, having three Imperial Crowns embroidered upon that Part which covered their Right Shoulders.

The Messenger of the Order in a Surcoat of white Silk lined and edged with red, having an Hood of the same thereto affixed, and upon his Right Shoulder the plain Escoccheon of the Order, Azure, three Imperial Crowns Or.

The Esquires of the Knights Companions in the like Surcoats going three and three, all of them in red Stockings, those of the Knights in the lowest Stalls foremost, holding their Bonnets in their Hands.

The Prebendaries of the Church of Westminster, proceeding two and two in white Mantles lined with red, having the like Badge on their Right Shoulders, holding their Caps in their Hands.

The Pursuivants of Arms in their Tabarts; the Heralds in Tabarts and Collars; the Provincial Kings of Arms in Tabarts, Collars, and with their Badges, uncovered.

Then the Knights elect, all habited in their Mantles and Surcoats, and each carrying in his Hand the white Hat, adorned with the Plume of white Feathers; the Proxy having on the Sword of his Principal, carried the Mantle upon his Right Arm, going by Pairs, according to the following Scheme, wherein those in the lowest Stalls went foremost.

On the Left Hand.	On the Right.
Sir John Savile,	Sir John Mordaunt,
Sir Charles Armand Powlet,	Sir Charles Howard,
Sir Charles Molloy, Proxy for Sir Ed- ward Hawke,	Sir Peter Warren.

Then the Knights Companions, having on the full Habit of the Order, who being covered, proceeded in the following Manner,

	Sir John Ligonier,
Sir John Cope,
Sir Thomas Robinson,
Sir William Yonge,
	Sir Coniers D'Arcy.

(Price Four-pence.)

The Gent. Usher in his Mantle and Surcoat,

The Secretary in his Mantle and Surcoat,

The Register in his Mantle and Surcoat.

The Genealogist in his Mantle and Surcoat,

Garter King of Arms,

Bath King of Arms in his Mantle and Surcoat.

Lord Bishop of Rochester, Dean of the Order, in the Mantle of the Order, carrying the Forms of the Oaths and Admonitions.

The Right Honourable the Lord Delawar in his full Habit, supplying the Place of the Great Master.

In this Form they proceeded to the Chappel of Henry VII. at the East End of the Abbey of Westminster.

The Twelve Alms-Men there entered two and two, and coming to the Middle of the Choir, did altogether in a Body make their joint and low Reverences to the Altar, and turning about, then made their Obediences to the Sovereign's Stall, and dividing themselves, stood on each Side in a Row down from the Rails of the Altar.

The Messenger of the Order, in like Manner, and stood below the Alms-Men.

The Esquires having made a short Stand at the Door, while the Alms-Men and Messenger thus placed themselves, entered three and three, and being in a Body, made the like Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and stood before their respective Seats, which were underneath the Stalls of their Knights.

The Prebendaries of the Church of Westminster two and two in the same Manner, placing themselves within the Rails of the Altar to assist at Divine Service.

The Pursuivants, Heralds, and the Provincial Kings of Arms, likewise entred, and stood before the Forms, under Prince William's Stall.

The two Knights in the lowest Stalls entered, and passing up near to their Banners, made their double Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and then retired under their Banners.

Who being thus placed, all the other Knights and Proxy, by Pairs, or singly, according to the Method observed in the Procession, took their Stations under their Banners, with the like Ceremonies.

Then the Register, in Breast, with the Secretary and Gentleman-Usher, in the same Method, who stood before their Bench, at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall, Garter, the Genealogist, and Bath King of Arms, did the same, and stood before their Bench.

The Dean in like Manner stood before his Chair. The Great Master entered single with the like Obediences, and retired under his Banner.

Bath King of Arms then made his Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and turning himself to the Great Master, who making his double Reverences in the Choir, took his Stall, and there repeated his Obediences, and sat down covered with his white Hat.

Then Bath bowing to the Knights severally, the Seniors first, they ascended their Stalls in like Manner, saving the two Juniors, who remained under their Banners to offer the Achievements of the deceased Knights.

Which being performed, Bath bowed to the two Knights who offered the Banners, and they ascended their Stalls.

The Great Master entred the Stall of Sir Peter Warren, and delivered to him the Book of Statutes, attested under the Seal of the Order, and the Dean administered unto him the Oath, Bath holding the Book of the Gospels. Then Bath delivered the Collar of the Order to the Great Master, who put it about the Shoulders of the Knight Elect, and placing the White Hat on his Head, seated him down in his Stall, who rising made his double Reverences, and the Great Master having embraced and congratulated him, he sat down in his Stall. Then the Great Master, with the like Attendance, repaired to the Stall of Sir Edward Hawke; and having there given the Proxy the Transcript of the Statutes, the Dean administered him the Oath in the Name of the Principal, and then seated him in the Stall.

Sir Charles Howard,

Sir Charles Armand Powlet,

Sir John Mordaunt,

Sir John Savile, were installed with the same Ceremonies as the eldest Knight.

Which being done, the Esquires, having made their Reverences in a Body, retired to their Seats; after them the Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order, placed themselves on their Forms with the like Ceremonies. The Provincial Kings of Arms, and the Heralds, sat on Benches in this present Ceremony, placed at the Foot of Prince William's Stall, the Pursuivants standing before them.

Bath and the Gentleman-Usher forthwith arose, made their Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and being followed by the Dean, in like Manner, proceeded towards the Stall of the Great Master, who making his Obediences in the Middle of the Choir, proceeded to Install the Knights.

Which being finished, and the Great Master returned to his own Stall, the Dean was conducted ducted to the Altar, and Bath and the Gentleman Usher being returned to their Benches, which Ceremonies were performed with the due Obediences. Divine Service then began: During which Time, the Knights did place their Hats upon the Cushions laid before them. Upon the first Sentence of the Offertory, Let your Light so shine, &c. Bath stepped from his Bench, made his double Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and coming before the Stall of the Junior Knight, bowed to him, and immediately turned himself to the opposite Side, bowing to the Knight in that Stall, who arose, and making their double Obediences both at one Time in their Stalls, descended into the Middle of the Choir, where they repeated the same, and retired under their Banners. Bath then in like Manner summoned the Knights in the next Stalls, and to throughout the whole Course of Stalls summoning them, and then the Great Master, who all of them, with the like Ceremonies, placed themselves under their Banners.

Bath King of Arms then arose, and being joined by Clarenceux King of Arms, repaired to the Great Matter, who, carrying his White Hat in his Hand, offered, and returned and sat down in his Stall.

And afterwards all the Knights, and Proxy in like Manner, wherein this Rule was observed, That the Knights and Proxy in the opposite Stalls, offered by Pairs together; and the Heralds, according to their Seniorities, took and repeated their Turns in going with Bath King of Arms before the Knights and Proxy.

Divine Service being ended, the Knights Companions put on their White Hats: Bath King of Arms summoned all the Knights and Proxy to come down from their several Stalls in the former Method, who all stood under their Banners.

Which being done, Sir Peter Warren and Sir Edward Hawke's Proxy were conducted to the Rails of the Altar with the like Ceremonies as in the former Offering, where they unsheathed their Swords, and offered them naked to the Dean; and having redeemed them, the Dean returned them with the following Admonition. I exhort and admonish you, to use your Sword to the Glory of God, the Defence of the Gospel, the Maintenance of your Sovereign's Right and Honour, and of all Equity and Justice, to the utmost of your Power.

The other new installed Knights offered their Swords in like Manner.

Then the Alms Men began the Procession, which returned back in the same Manner they went, except that the new Knights were in the full Habit of the Order. At the Outside of the West Door the Sovereign's Master Cook, having on a Linen Apron, said sever-rally to each new installed Knight, "Sir, you know what great Oath you have taken, which if you keep, it will be great Honour to you; but if you break it, I shall be compelled, by my Office, to hack off your spurs from your Heels."
