

The Gent. Usher in his Mantle and Surcoat,

The Secretary in his Mantle and Surcoat,

The Register in his Mantle and Surcoat.

The Genealogist in his Mantle and Surcoat,

Garter King of Arms,

Bath King of Arms in his Mantle and Surcoat.

Lord Bishop of Rochester, Dean of the Order, in the Mantle of the Order, carrying the Forms of the Oaths and Admonitions.

The Right Honourable the Lord Delawar in his full Habit, supplying the Place of the Great Master.

In this Form they proceeded to the Chappel of Henry VII. at the East End of the Abbey of Westminster.

The Twelve Alms-Men there entered two and two, and coming to the Middle of the Choir, did altogether in a Body make their joint and low Reverences to the Altar, and turning about, then made their Obediences to the Sovereign's Stall, and dividing themselves, stood on each Side in a Row down from the Rails of the Altar.

The Messenger of the Order, in like Manner, and stood below the Alms-Men.

The Esquires having made a short Stand at the Door, while the Alms-Men and Messenger thus placed themselves, entered three and three, and being in a Body, made the like Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and stood before their respective Seats, which were underneath the Stalls of their Knights.

The Prebendaries of the Church of Westminster two and two in the same Manner, placing themselves within the Rails of the Altar to assist at Divine Service.

The Pursuivants, Heralds, and the Provincial Kings of Arms, likewise entred, and stood before the Forms, under Prince William's Stall.

The two Knights in the lowest Stalls entered, and passing up near to their Banners, made their double Reverences together in the Middle of the Choir, and then retired under their Banners.

Who being thus placed, all the other Knights and Proxy, by Pairs, or singly, according to the Method observed in the Procession, took their Stations under their Banners, with the like Ceremonies.

Then the Register, in Breast, with the Secretary and Gentleman-Usher, in the same Method, who stood before their Bench, at the Foot of the Sovereign's Stall, Garter, the Genealogist, and Bath King of Arms, did the same, and stood before their Bench.

The Dean in like Manner stood before his Chair. The Great Master entered single with the like Obediences, and retired under his Banner.

Bath King of Arms then made his Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and turning himself to the Great Master, who making his double Reverences in the Choir, took his Stall, and there repeated his Obediences, and sat down covered with his white Hat.

Then Bath bowing to the Knights severally, the Seniors first, they ascended their Stalls in like Manner, saving the two Juniors, who remained under their Banners to offer the Achievements of the deceased Knights.

Which being performed, Bath bowed to the two Knights who offered the Banners, and they ascended their Stalls.

The Great Master entred the Stall of Sir Peter Warren, and delivered to him the Book of Statutes, attested under the Seal of the Order, and the Dean administered unto him the Oath, Bath holding the Book of the Gospels. Then Bath delivered the Collar of the Order to the Great Master, who put it about the Shoulders of the Knight Elect, and placing the White Hat on his Head, seated him down in his Stall, who rising made his double Reverences, and the Great Master having embraced and congratulated him, he sat down in his Stall. Then the Great Master, with the like Attendance, repaired to the Stall of Sir Edward Hawke; and having there given the Proxy the Transcript of the Statutes, the Dean administered him the Oath in the Name of the Principal, and then seated him in the Stall.

Sir Charles Howard,

Sir Charles Armand Powlet,

Sir John Mordaunt,

Sir John Savile, were installed with the same Ceremonies as the eldest Knight.

Which being done, the Esquires, having made their Reverences in a Body, retired to their Seats; after them the Officers of Arms, and the Officers of the Order, placed themselves on their Forms with the like Ceremonies. The Provincial Kings of Arms, and the Heralds, sat on Benches in this present Ceremony, placed at the Foot of Prince William's Stall, the Pursuivants standing before them.

Bath and the Gentleman-Usher forthwith arose, made their Reverences in the Middle of the Choir, and being followed by the Dean, in like Manner, proceeded towards the Stall of the Great Master, who making his Obediences in the Middle of the Choir, proceeded to Install the Knights.

Which being finished, and the Great Master returned to his own Stall, the Dean was conducted
