Warsaw, September 13.

THIS Court having received Advice that an epidemical Distemper rages upon the Frontiers of Turkey, which has carried off a great Number of Persons, have sent Orders for Guards to be placed at all the Avenues, in order to prevent its being brought into this Kingdom. Within these few Days past two prodigious Flights of Locusts appeared in this Neighbourhood, but they went off without doing much Damage.

Madrid, Sept. 15. The Letters from Alicant of the 10th Instant mention, that the two Spanish Men of War and the two Xabeques were returned to Cartagena from founding the Bay of Alger, which they were two Days performing under Dutch Colours, but that when they had finished they fired a Gun, and hoisted Spanish Ensigns; that it was believed the Ships and Xabeques would be disarmed, as the Bomb Ketches were already laid up. It is wrote from Cadiz, that a Vessel arrived there the 7th Instant from Vera Cruz, and last from the Havana, in sixty Days, with Advice, that the two Men of War at Vera Cruz were to sail in the Month of June with five Millions of Dollars; that two others were arrived at Cartagena; and that the said four Men of War may be expected in Europe about the End of next Month.

Prague, Sept. 15. The Diet of the States of this Kingdom was opened to Day. 'Tis believed the Troops which are at present encamped at Konigsgratz and Pilsen, will be ordered into Winter Quarters towards the End of this Month.

Turin, Sept. 17. On the 9th Instant, the Right Honourable the Earl of Rochfort, his Britannick Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary and Minister Plenipotentiary to this Court, arrived here, and on the 13th had an Audience of his Sardinian Majesty, and was received in a most gracious Manner; after which his Lordship had an Audience of the Duke of Savoy, and of the Duke of Chablais and the Princesses. The King and all the Court set out To-morrow for the Venerie, where they propose to stay some Time.

Vienna, Sept. 20, N. S. On Monday last the States of Lower Austria assembled, and the Empress Queen made a Speech from the Throne, wherein her Imperial Majesty solemnly confirmed all the Privileges of the States, and declared that she had no new Subsidy of any Kind to demand, being quite satisfied with those, which the States had formerly given for ten Years.

Copenhagen, Sept. 23, N. S. The contagious Distemper among the horned Cattle having lately broke out again in some Parts of this Island, his Danish Majesty, by an Ordonance of the 15th Instant, has been pleased to suspend the holding of the usual Markets for Cattle, in order to prevent, if possible, the farther spreading of that Calamity.

Berlin, Sept. 23. The King, who arrived here Yesterday from Potzdam, gave Audience to the Marquis Grimaldi, Envoy Extraordinary from the Court of Spain to that of Sweden, who came through this City in his Way to Stockholm.

Paris, Sept. 26. On Monday last the King arrived at Versailles in perfect Health, from the Journey he had taken to Normandy, and on Wednesday his Majesty set out for Rambouillet. His Grace the Duke of Richmond, accompanied by the Earl of Albemarle, is set out for Aubigny, where they propose to spend a few Days.

Utrecht, Sept. 29. Letters received this Day from Vienna of the 20th Instant; say, that Count William Bentinck arrived there on the 19th in perfect Health; and proceeded the next Day to the Palace of Schonbrun; in order to have his Audience of her Imperial Majesty.

Hague, Oct. 1; N. S. This Day the several Civil and Military Officers, who had been nominated and recommended by his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange to the States General, were confirmed by their High Mightinesses, and sworn
