Constantinople, August 25.

HERE has been some great and considerable Changes; the first was in the Interior of the Seraglio. The Jazigi Effendi, or Secretary to the Kizlar Aga, or Chief of the Black Eunuchs, is made Bash Muhas Zebegi Harem, or Chief of the Revenues of Mecca and Medina, and also of the Interior of the Seraglio. The Mufty Ezade Effendi is deposed, and banished to a Town in Asia, with Orders to repair to Mecca at the proper Season: And his Brother, who was Kadaliskier, or chief Judge of Natolia, is also ordered into Banishment to Synope on the Black Sea; but at the Request of his Creditors is yet here at his own House on the Canal. The Grand Seigneur has made the Person, who was last Year Kadaliskier of Romania, Mufty. The Yesterday or Treasurer has also been deposed, and one in the same Office has succeeded him, and he is banished to Serres near Salonica. The Rebellion, said some Time ago to be begun by Solyman Pascha of Bussora, is confirmed; he actually attacks the Town of Babylon, and his Army increases: Measures are taking to save that Province, and destroy him: Four of the neighbouring Pascha's have Orders to march their Troops to relieve Mehemet Pascha in Babylon. Some think that these Troops cannot arrive in Time, but that Solyman may be Master of the Town before he can be attacked: Others say that he is already in it: The Troops sent are said to be commanded by the Pascha of Sivas. There is certain Advice that the Schach of Persia is sending a Minister here to consolidate the Treaty made with Schach Nadir; and we are assured that the Porte has named a Pascha of Two Tails to go as the Grand Seigneur's Minister in Persia. By the Caravans arrived at Aleppo and Smyrna, there is Advice, that the Disorders of that Kingdom are settled; and it is said here, that Shawrooke Schach is in quiet Possession of the Throne, having taken Ibrahim Mirza Prisoner, and caused him to be blinded. A great Famine reigns throughout the Kingdom of Persia.

Moscow, August 28. The Right Honourable the Earl of Hyndford, his Britannick Majesty's Ambassador Extraordinary and Plenipotentiary, had Yesterday his Audience of Leave of her Imperial Majesty, and his Excellency proposes to set out on his Return to England about the Middle of next Month. Baron Hopken, Envoy from Sweden, died here of a Consumption on Saturday last.

Naples, Sept. 9. The King has made a Present of 6000 Ducats to the University of this City. His Majesty being informed that the contagious Distemper still continues to rage very much on the African Coast, and being fearful lest some of the Vessels of that Coast should bring it to the Ports of Tuscany, has sent Orders to the Magistrates of Health to give publick Notice, that no Ship or Vessel whatsoever shall be permitted to unload here, either from Leghorn, or any other of the Ports of Tuscany, without performing their former Quarantine. The Prince de Tarente, their Majesties Second Son, is just seized with the Small Pox.

Stockholm, Sept. 19. Advices from Wennebourg say, that the Prince Successor arrived there on the 8th Instant, and was busy in reviewing their Troops and in examining their Magazines; but that it was expected he would set out on the 11th for Boras.

Vienna, Sept. 20, N. S. The Baron de Becker, the Elector of Palatine's Minister, having finished the Business with which he was charged at this Court, proposes soon to set out on his Return to Manheim. On the 18th Count Durrazzo, Envoy Extraordinary from the Republick of Genoa, had his first publick Audience of their Imperial Majesties at Schonbrun, and delivered his Credential Letters. Count Bentinck, Minister Plenipotentiary from the States General of the United Provinces arrived here Yesterday, and has

(Price Two-pence.)

Turin, Sept. 24, N. S. Lady Rochford was presented last Sunday to his Sardinian Majesty at the Venerie, and was received with great Marks of Distinction. His Majesty is reviewing there some of his Regiments. Last Week he reviewed the Duke of Savoy's Regiment of Dragoons, and the Piedmontese Royal Regiment of Dragoons, which is to be given to the Duke of Chablais. Yesterday being the King of Spain's Birth-day, the Spanish Ambassador gave a grand Entertainment, at which were present all the Ministers of State, and foreign Ministers, except the Pope's Nuntio.

Berlin, Sept. 27, N. S. On Tuesday last the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, Prince Frederick Eugene de Wurtemberg Stuttgart, and Prince Lobkowitz, together with several Officers of State, General Officers, and Foreign Ministers, set out for Charlottenbourg, where his Majesty gave them a most elegant Entertainment at two Tables in the grand Apartment of the Palace, and in the Evening his Majesty returned to Potsdam.

Cologne, Sept. 27, N. S. Count Königsegg, their Imperial Majesties Minister to this Court, is arrived here. We have just received Advice from Steinfort, that the Princess of Nassau Siegen, Spouse of Count Bentheim-Steinfort, was happily delivered there of a Daughter, which had been named Anne-Polixene-Sidonie-Charlotte.

Copenhagen, Sept. 27, N. S. The Duke of Saxe Hildbourgshausen is arrived at Fridericksborg, and great Preparations are making for his Marriage with the Princess Louisa, which is to be celebrated next Week at Hirschholm, the Palace of the Queen Dowager. What Stay the Duke proposes to make after his Marriage is not known, but the Prince his Brother, who has accompanied him in his Journey, is, it is said, to remain here, and to enter into the Danish Service. As the Number of Inhabitants here visibly increase, his Danish Majesty has been pleased to give up the Garden and Place of Amalienbourg, situated within the Walls on the East Side of the Town near the Sea, to be built upon for their Use. Favourable Conditions to invite Builders are already published, and the Ground is to be prepared forthwith. There is Room for about one Hundred very convenient Houses, and the Whole, when finished according to the Plan laid down, will be a considerable Addition and Ornament to the City.

Brussels, Sept. 29, N. S. Prince Charles of Lorraine is arrived at Ath, where he has been received with great Affection; at his Return it is expected he will set out for Mons, and from thence go and visit the Fortifications of Charleroy and Namur.

Paris, October 1, N. S. His most Christian Majesty went Yesterday Morning to Choisy, and from thence goes on Thursday to Fontainebleau, where the Infanta stays till Saturday, when she is to proceed on her Journey to Italy to the Infant Don Philip. Prince Frederick of Hesse arrived here last Thursday, and had his Audiences of the King, Queen, and Royal Family Yesterday Morning.

Hague, October 3, N. S. On the 1st Instant, his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, having again assisted at an Assembly of their High Mightinesses, set out in the Evening on his Return to Loo. His Serene Highness has conferred the Degree of Colonel on Lieutenant Colonel d'Aubonne, and has appointed him to be one of his Aids de Camp. Their High Mightinesses have appointed M. de Haren to reside at the Court of Brussels, in the room of M. Kinschot, who is going to reside at Liege as Minister from this State; and 'tis said that Count Wartenleben will be appointed the Republick's Envoy Extraordinary at the Court of Sweden. M. d'Ammon, the Prussian Minister, having taken his Leave of this Court by a Memorial, their High Mightinesses have ordered him the usual Present of a Gold Chain and Medal valued at 1300 Florins, together with one of 300 Florins for his Secretary.

Utrecht, October 3, N. S. Yesterday Morning his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange, who left the Hague the Night before, passed by this City on his Return to Loo.
