

Hanover, Sept. 30, N. S. The Great Chancellor Baron de Cocceii passed through this City Yesterday in his Way to Berlin. The Distemper amongst the horned Cattle has lately broke out again in several Parts of this Electorate, notwithstanding which, Provisions, which have been very dear, are now again become pretty reasonable, the late Season having produced very fine Crops. M. Guidickens, his Britannick Majesty's Minister to the Court of Russia, set out from hence on the 28th Instant for Brunswick, in his Way to that Court.

Copenhagen, Sept. 30. The Duke of Saxe Hildburghausen, accompanied by Prince Frederick Eugene his Brother, and attended by a great Retinue, went on the 24th to Friedensbourg, to wait on the King, who received them with great Marks of Distinction; on the 26th they waited on the Queen Dowager at Hirschholm, and the next Day the Marriage of the Princess Louisa, the King's Sister, with the Duke of Saxe Hildburghausen, was declared at Court, and will be celebrated in a few Days at Hirschholm. Vice-Admiral Tonder, who went on a Cruize into the North Sea to exercise the Seamen, is returned with his Squadron to Elsenour, having met with a Storm, in which one of his Ships has received great Damage. The contagious Distemper still continuing to rage amongst the horned Cattle in several Provinces of this Kingdom; the King, to prevent the spreading of the said Distemper, has caused an Ordonnance to be published, forbidding the holding of any Fairs or Markets for the Sale of any such Cattle, throughout the Diocese of Zealand, till further Orders.

Mayence, October 2, N. S. On the 26th past, the Elector of Mayence returned to Aichaffenburg, from whence his Electoral Highness was to set out as Yesterday for a Hunting Seat in the Middle of Spessaerd, and proposes to return in 15 Days.

Hambourg, October 3, N. S. The Magistrates of this City have been obliged, upon Account of the Mortality which manifests itself anew among the horned Cattle in this Neighbourhood, to forbid the Entrance of any Oxen, Cows or Calves into Hambourg, or into any Part of their Territory, unless they be properly and duly proved to come from no suspected Quarter; nor are any Hides, or Blood of horned Cattle, permitted to be brought into Town, but what is, in a like manner, certified to be free of all Infection.

Paris, October 3, N. S. All the Foreign Ministers will set out this Week to follow the King to Fontainbleau. The Marquis de Puyzieulx, Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, has been very much indisposed for some Days past. The Departure of the Infanta for Italy seems fixed for the 6th or 7th Instant, and according to the Route she is to take, she will reach Antibes before the End of the Month.

Dusseldorp, October 4, N. S. The States of Juliers and Bergues, who are now assembled here, continue their Deliberations with great Diligence. The Baron de Kerkering is gone to reside at Vienna in Quality of Minister from the Elector of Cologne. The Marquis d'Ittre, the Electoral Palatine's Prime Minister, arrived here a few Days ago from Brabant, and is waiting the Arrival of a Yacht to carry him to Manheim.

Brussels, October 5, N. S. Yesterday was celebrated here the Feast of St. Francis, whose Name the Emperor bears; the Court made a splendid Appearance on this Occasion, which ended with a Masquerade. On the 29th past a large Quantity of new coined Copper Money was brought from Antwerp to this City, in order to pay the Soldiers in Garrison here, except the Officers, who are to be paid in Silver. And on Wednesday last a Placart was published, regulating the Price of every Species of Gold and Silver Coin which are current in this Country, as well old as new.

Hague, October 8, N. S. Count de Waffe-naer, Lord of Twickel, M. Bleyfwyk, and M. de Raedt, are returned hither from Guelderland, and have reported to their High Mightinesses the Methods which appear to them most proper to be taken to prevent any Inundations which may happen from the Badness of the Bridge of Panbern. They met the Prince of Orange at Utrecht, and communicated to his Serene Highness their Thoughts upon this Subject; after which he proceeded on his Return to the Castle of Loo, where he arrived on the 2d Instant at Night. Sir Cyril Wych passed through this Place a Day or two ago for Hambourg.

Dublin Castle, September 20.

His Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of this Kingdom, embarked at Parkgate Yesterday at One o'Clock in the Afternoon, and landed here about Three this Day.

Navy Office, Sept. 22, 1749.

The Right Hon. the Lords Commissioners of the Treasury having appointed Money for paying of Half Pay to Sea Officers, from the 30th of June, to the 31st of December, 1748, according to his Majesty's Establishment on that Behalf;

These are to give Notice, that the said Payment will begin to be made at the Treasurer of the Navy's Office in Broad Street, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning, the following Days, to wit, on Tuesday the 3d of next Month for Captains, Wednesday the 4th for Lieutenants, and Thursday the 5th for Masters and Surgeons, that all Persons concerned may then and there attend to receive what may become payable to them, and not only bring with them the Affidavit required touching their not having enjoyed the Benefit of any publick Employment, either at Sea or on Shore, during the Time they are to be paid the said Half Pay, but also produce Certificates that they have subscribed to the Test, and taken the Oaths required by Act of Parliament to his present Majesty. And in Case any of the said Sea Officers shall not be able to attend themselves to receive their Money, but employ Attorneys for that Purpose, that the said Attorneys may produce the like Certificates and Affidavits from the Persons they are employed by.

East India House, August 18, 1749.
