Lisbon, September 21, N. S.

THE King having by a Convention with the Court of Spain obliged himself to send two Ships of War to cruize upon the Corsairs of Barbary, the Star of 60 Guns, and la Notre Dame de la Pieté & St. Francois, were appointed for that Purpose; they have accordingly been at Sea for some Time, and are now returned from their Cruize without having met with any of those Corsairs.

Madrid, September 29, N. S. The 26th Instant the Chevalier d'Offorio, in Quality of Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, had a particular Audience of his Majesty, in which he presented a Letter from the King of Sardinia, containing a Demand of the Infanta Dona-Marie-Antoinette in Marriage for the Duke of Savoy; and the King having given him a favourable Answer, the Marquess d'Offorio immediately sent it by a Courier to the Court of Turin. Rear Admiral Spinola, with the four Ships under his Command, having on board near 16 Millions of Piastras, is not expected at Cadiz till the End of the Year, one of the Ships having suffered greatly in her Voyage from La Vera Cruz to the Havanna.

Genoa, September 30, N. S. Several Ships arrived here last Week from divers Ports in the Mediterranean, laden with Provisions and Merchandize for this City; and the Captains of those from Corfica and Sardinia say, that though the Corsairs of Barbary had Fourteen Galliots cruizing in the Italian Seas, they had not heard of their having taken any considerable Prize. The Algerines have also several Xebecks at Sea, but we do not hear of their having taken any Thing lately. We learn by Letters from Barcelona, that the Marquess de Bonde Real was arrived there, and would soon set out for Parma, where he is to reside as Minister Plenipotentiary from his most Catholick Majesty. The Marquess de Monti, Colonel of the Regiment Royal Italian, in the Service of his most Christian Majesty, arrived here in three Days from Antibes, by whom we learn, that there were four Gallies lying ready at Toulon to sail for Antibes, to take on board the Infanta Dutchess of Parma, and conduct her to Italy.

Stockholm, October 6, N. S. M. de Windt, Minister from the King of Denmark, has had divers Conferences within these few Days past with the Ministers of this Court; and the Secretary of the Embassy of the States General has notified to the King, that their High Mightinesses had named the Count de Wartensleben to be their Minister Plenipotentiary to the Court of his Swedish Majesty.

Vienna, October 8, N. S. The Conferences which have been held for some Days past, have principally turned, as 'tis believed, on the Affairs in the North; and the rather, as a Courier is arrived here from Moscow with the Resolutions of the extraordinary Council which was held there the 5th of September. Advices from Spielbourg in Moravia mention the Death of the late Baron Trenck, in the Castle of that Place; he had commanded a considerable Body of Pandours during the late War, but was afterwards condemned to a perpetual Imprisonment. The 4th Instant, being the Feast of St. Francis, whose Name the Emperor bears, the same was celebrated at Court with the greatest Magnificence, all the Nobility and Foreign Ministers appearing at Schonbrun, to compliment his Imperial Majesty on that Occasion.

Geneva, October 10, N. S. Last Friday we received the agreeable News of his most Christian Majesty's having ratified the Treaty which M. Muffard had concluded with the French Ministers; on this Occasion the Magistrates of this City expressed great Satisfaction, and on the 7th gave a grand Entertainment to M. de Champeaux, his most Christian Majesty's Resident, to which the Duke de Randan, Lieutenant General

(Price Two-pence.)
