AT the Court at St. James's, the 14th Day of December, 1749.

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS his Majesty hath received Information, that the many Rules, Orders and Regulations, made from Time to Time by his Majesty at this Board, for putting a Stop to the Spreading of the contagious Distemper amongst the Horned Cattle, have not produced the good Effects intended, the said Distemper having not only spread itself to most Parts of this Kingdom, but doth at this Time rage with a Malignity and Violence very little short of what had appeared at its first Breaking out; and that the principal Cause of the Continuance of the said Distemper, hath been the great Neglect of the Officers appointed to carry his Majesty's aforementioned Rules and Regulations into due Execution, and particularly the suffering Cattle to be bought, sold, removed, and carried to Fairs and Markets, without the proper Certificates of the Health of the Cattle, as required by the said Rules, and the many Frauds and Impositions that have been committed by the Persons entrusted with the said Certificates, so that it is become absolutely necessary, in order to prevent the further Spreading of the said Contagion, to put the Liberty of buying, selling and removing of Horned Cattle under other and stronger Rules and Regulations:—And whereas his Majesty hath this Day taken this Matter into his most serious Consideration, and being desirous of doing every Thing in his Power towards putting a Stop to the said Distemper, hath therefore thought proper, by and with the Advice of his Privy Council, to order, as it is hereby ordered, That after the Fourteenth Day of January next, and before the Fourteenth Day of March following, no Ox, Bull, Cow, Calf, Steer, or Heifer, within England, whether fat or lean, sick or well, be removed from the Grounds, Lands or Places where they shall be on the said Fourteenth Day of January, excepting only such sound and fat Cattle, fit for Slaughter, as shall be removed in order to be slaughtered at some uninfected Place within the Distance of two Miles from the Place where they shall be on the said Fourteenth Day of January, by Virtue of a Certificate to be granted by some duly qualified Justice of Peace, or Commissioner of the Land Tax under his Hand and Seal, expressing the Description and Soundness of such Cattle, the Place from and to which they are to be removed; and which Certificates shall not be granted, but on full Enquiry into, and full Satisfaction had by such Justice of the Peace, or Commissioner of the Land Tax, on Oath of the Soundness of such Cattle:

And it is hereby further ordered, That the Church-Wardens, Overseers of the Poor, Constables, and such other Person or Persons as have been, or shall be appointed by the Justices of the Peace, in Pursuance of any Order made by his Majesty in Council, do stop any such Cattle which shall be driven contrary to this Order, or to any of the Acts of Parliament made in Relation to the distempred Cattle, and carry the Offender or Offenders before some Justice or Justices of the Peace, to be punished according to the aforesaid Acts.

Provided, and it is declared, that this Order is not intended to prohibit the Carriage of Carcasses of any Cattle not infected, without their Hides, to such Places, and in such Manner, as the respective Owners thereof shall think fit; nor to prohibit the Removal of such Cattle, as shall be in Want of Pasture, into other Grounds belonging to or in Possession of the Owner of such Cattle, not above the Distance of Two Miles

(Price Four-Pence.)

Miles from the Places where the same shall be on the said Fourteenth Day of January, nor within One Mile of any infected Place.

Provided also, that nothing herein contained shall extend to prohibit the Removal of any such Cattle, which shall be within the Dominion of Wales, from one Part of the said Dominion of Wales to any other Part thereof; nor to prohibit or restrain the Removal of any such Cattle which shall be in any of Counties of Somerset, Dorset, Devon and Cornwall, from one Place to another within the said Counties, but without going into any other than the abovementioned Counties, which are all represented to be, not only free from the said Infection, but at a considerable Distance from the infected Parts of this Kingdom.

And it is hereby further ordered, that so much of his Majesty's Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the driving or removing of any Oxen, Bulls, Cows, Calves, Steers or Heifers, from one Place to another, by Virtue of any Certificate or Certificates, shall, from and after the said Fourteenth of January next, until the Fourteenth of March following, be and stand suspended, and not put in Execution as to any Cases happening within the Time aforesaid.

And for the better Execution of so much of his Majesty's said former Order in Council of the 22d of March 1747, as relates to the killing and burying the distempered Cattle, it is hereby further ordered, that during the Continuance of this and the said Order of the 22d of March 1747, the Owners of all Horned Cattle do, as soon as the Distemper shall appear in or among any of the said Cattle, immediately give Notice thereof to the Constable of the Town or Parish, and also to the Church Wardens and Overseers of the Parish or Place where such infected Cattle shall be, of the Appearance of such Infection, or to any Inspector already appointed or to be appointed by the Justices of the Peace for the District where such Parish or Place shall lie.

And his Majesty doth hereby further order and command, that the said Justices of the Peace, and Commissioners of the Land Tax, do grant the Certificates allowed by this Order gratis; and that they do not suffer their Clerks, or other Person or Persons any Ways concerned in issuing such Certificates, to ask, demand, receive, or take any Fee, Reward, Gratuity, or Sum of Money whatsoever, under Pretence of making out such Certificates, or for any Act or Thing done in Relation thereto.

And his Majesty doth hereby strictly charge and command all his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the several Counties, Ridings, Divisions, Cities, Liberties, and Towns Corporate within this Kingdom, and also the Commissioners of the Land Tax authorized to act herein, to carry this his Majesty's Order of Council into Execution; as likewise all the Rules and Regulations relating to the distemper'd Cattle, and also to Hides, contained in the aforementioned Order of his Majesty in Council, dated the 22d of March 1747, so far as the same are not varied by this present Order, and more especially such Parts thereof as relate to the Killing and Burying of any such distemper'd Cattle, and the Cleansing and Purifying the Houses, Buildings, and Places, where any such infected Cattle shall have stood, or been killed; and likewise to carry into Execution the several Acts of Parliament made in relation to the said Cattle: And that they do likewise cause the Penalties, directed by the said Acts, to be inflicted on all Persons who shall disobey any of the Rules, Orders, and Regulations made by his Majesty in Council.

And for the better notifying of this Order, it is his Majesty's Pleasure, that the same be forthwith printed and published, and be also inserted in the next London Gazette, and be likewise read in all Parish Churches, Chapels, and other Places set apart for Divine Worship, on the First and every other Sunday after the Publication hereof.

His Royal Highness has been pleased to appoint Humphry Prideaux, of Padstow, in the County of Cornwall, Esq; to be Sheriff of the said County for the Year ensuing.

Halifax in Nova Scotia, Oct. 30. The Settlers continue to enjoy perfect Health, and have by their industrious Labours so far advanced their Works, that 350 comfortable and convenient Houses are already built, and many more will, in all Probability, be built before the Winter, as the Weather continues warm and fine beyond Expectation; there are some few however less industrious, for whose Reception, in case their Houses should not be finished before the cold Weather sets in, the Governor has retained one of the Transport Ships. The Settlement is greatly increased by a Number of useful and industrious Families from New-England and other Places. Some Hundreds of Fishing Vessels have already been here, and many more are expected next Year. The Indians of the Peninsula have committed some Hostilities, but as their Numbers are only inconsiderable, and as all proper Measures have been taken to reduce them to Obedience, by raising a Company of Rangers to scour the Woods, and setting a Reward upon their Heads, there is little Apprehension of their being any further troublesome, more especially as the Town is secured by a Pallisado, and the Troops posted round it. The French Inhabitants have sent 50 of their People to assist in the publick Works, and they are employed by the Governor in cutting a Road to Minas.

Paris, Dec. 24, N. S. The Spanish Ambassador here has notified to this Court the Marriage of the Duke of Savoy with the Infanta of Spain, but the Sardinian Ambassador has not yet received Orders from Turin to do it in Form. The Infanta will, it is thought, pass thro' France by Lyons in her Way to Turin, about Easter next. The Prince of Congé was taken ill of the Small-Pox the Day before Yesterday at Versailles, but he was immediately brought to Town, and it is said has a favourable Sort.

St. James's, December 14.

This Day Hadgee Mehemmed Cogiah, sent from the Dey of Algiers, had his First Private Audience of his Majesty, at which he delivered his Letter of Credence: He was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, December 16.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint James Banks, Gent. to be his Majesty's Consul at Carthagen in Spain.

Whitehall, Dec. 8, 1749.

Whereas it has been represented to his Majesty, that on the 9th Day of November last, about Two of the Clock in the Night-time, a dreadful Fire broke out in the Store-house of Paul Rendall, in the Parish of Mrksham in the County of Wilts, Tanner; which, in a short Time, consumed the said House, together with several other Buildings, and Goods, and Merchandizes, deposited therein, to the Value of One Hundred and Sixty six Pounds, and upwards, exclusive of the said Buildings; And whereas the said Paul Rendall having been very industrious in apprehending, and bringing to Justice, several notorious Thieves and Robbers, who lately infested the County of Wilts, as well as other Counties, there is good Reason to suspect, that some of their Confederates and Abettors wilfully and maliciously set Fire to the said Premises: In order to discover discover the Author of so wicked a Crime, his Majesty is most graciously pleased to promise his Pardon, to any Person or Persons, who shall make Discovery of his, her, or their Accomplices in the Fact, excepting the Person or Persons who actually set Fire to the said Buildings.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement, the Person making such Discovery, shall receive of Jacob Selfe of Bradford in the County of Wilts, Esq; Fifteen Guineas, upon Conviction of the said Offender or Offenders.
