Published by Authority.

From Saturday April 14, to Tuesday April 17, 1750.

Naples, March 31.

ALL our Troops remain quiet in their Quarters; and there is now no more Talk of augmenting the Forces of this Kingdom, nor of their making any Movements, so that there seems not to have been the least Foundation for the Report of our going speedily to form Camps. Two Tartans sailed Yesterday from this Port for the Adriatick Sea, in order to protect our Commerce, and give Chase to the Corsairs of Barbary.

Turin, April 11. Last Wednesday, the 8th Instant, the Household appointed to meet the Infanta on the Frontiers of Spain, set out; they were upwards of Four Hundred Persons, and they will be above a Month on the Road, as that which her Highness is to take over the Mountains is an uncommon one, and hitherto unpractised.

Vienna, April 11. Prince Louis of Brunswick has taken his Leave of their Imperial Majesties, and will set out in a Day or two for Wolfenbuttle, from whence he will proceed to Holland.

Copenhagen, April 14. Count Schulin departed this Life Yesterday Noon; his Papers were immediately put under the Seal of the Chancery, and his Danish Majesty sent for Count Berkentin, to give him Orders, as is supposed, for the Administration of Foreign Affairs.

St. Helens, April 14.

This Day Admiral Boscawen arrived here from the East Indies, with four Ships of the Squadron under his Command, having parted with the others on the 8th, 9th, and 10th Instant in a Gale of Wind. Just before his leaving the Cape of Good Hope, the Centaur, one of the French East India Company's Ships, was cast away nigh that Place, but almost all the People were saved, and about 200 taken on board by Admiral Boscawen.

St. James's, April 14.

This Day Coyed Mahmmud, sent to his Majesty from the Bey of Tripoly, had a Private Audience of Leave of his Majesty, to which he was introduced by his Grace the Duke of Bedford, one of his Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, and conducted by Sir Clement Cottrell Dormer, Kt. Master of the Ceremonies.

Whitehall, April 17.

Yesterday Morning, between Four and Five o'Clock, the King set out from St. James's for Harwich, where his Majesty was to embark on board the Royal Caroline for Holland.

Whitehall, April 17.

The King has been pleased to grant unto William Hart, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canonry or Prebend of the Collegiate Church or Free Chappel of St. George in the Castle of Windsor, void by the Promotion of Dr. Frederick Cornwallis to the Bishoprick of Litchfield and Coventry. Walter

The King has been pleased to grant unto John Fulham, Master of Arts, the Place and Dignity of a Canonry or Prebend of the Collegiate Church or Free Chapel of St. George in the Castle of Windsor, void by the Death of Doctor John Pelling.

The King has been pleased to present Henry Herring, Master of Arts, to the Rectory of Topesfield in the County of Essex and Diocese of London, void by the Resignation of Doctor Samuel Squire.

The King has been pleased to present Holand Coham, Clerk, to the Rectory of Northlew in the County of Devon and Diocese of Exeter, void by the Resignation of James Silke, Clerk.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Francis William Drake, Esq; to be Governor and Commander in Chief in and over his Majesty's Island of Newfoundland, and the Fort and Garrison at Placentia.

The King has been pleased to appoint William Petticrew, Esq; Consul General of Tetuan in the Dominions of the Emperor of Morocco, in the room of William Latton, Esq;
