Naples, April 15. On the 7th Instant Advice was received, that a Neapolitan Tartane, and another from Palermo, laden with Corn, had been taken by five Algerine Xebèques, but that the Crews of both had found Means to make their Escape, except one Man who was killed by a Musket Ball; whereupon the King gave Orders that the St. Charles Man of War, and the Queen, together with two armed Frigates, should put to Sea immediately, and join our Gallies, in order to cruize against those Corsairs.

Rome, April 18. The Pope's Gallies, which are at Civita Vecchia, have Orders to put to Sea immediately, under the Command of M. Buffi, in order to cruize against the Corsairs of Barbary, who already begin to appear upon the Coasts of the Ecclesiastical State; and besides their usual Complement of Men, 200 Soldiers are ordered to be put on board them.

Parma, April 18. Their Serene Highnesses the Duke and Dutchess set out a few Days ago, with the whole Court, for Colorno, where they propose to stay about three Months.

Bologne, April 21. We learn from Mantua, that General Pallavicini, the Empress's Minister Plenipotentiary, was set out from thence, after having regulated every Thing concerning that Dutchy and its Capital. And by Letters from Modena we are informed, that the Duke and all his Family were preparing to go to Reggio, to be present at the Fair which is to be held at that City next Month.

Stockholm, April 21. The King has had no Return of his Fever. We learn from Gottenbourg, that our East India Company have received Advice from China, that the Princess Louisa Ulrique, and the Concord, two Ships belonging to that Company, were arrived at Canton.

Vienna, April 25. Their Imperial Majesties have appointed the Count de Cobenzel to repair to Hanover, to compliment his Britannick Majesty, in their Name, upon his Arrival in his German Dominions.

Leipsick, April 27. In the Night between the 22d and 23d of this Month, a Fire broke out in the Town of Borna, situate about two Miles from hence, which consumed almost all the Houses and Churches in that Place; and many of the Inhabitants perished in the Flames.

Copenhagen, April 28. An Express has been sent to France, in order to hasten the Return of the Baron de Bernsdorff, our late Minister to that Court, whom his Majesty has lately appointed Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, in the Room of the late Count de Schulin.

Ratisbon, April 29. Prince Charles of Lorraine, Governor General of the Low Countries, arrived here on the 25th Instant, under a general Discharge of the Cannon of this City; and having rested here a few Hours, set forwards on his Journey to Vienna.
