Leicester-House, June 27.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Common Council-Men of the City of London, waited on their Royal Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Wales, to congratulate them on the Birth of a Prince; and being introduced by his Grace the Duke of Queensbury and Dover, Richard Adams, Esq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Speech.

May it please your Royal Highnesses,

WE the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council-Men of the City of London, humbly beg Leave to present our most sincere and hearty Congratulations to your Royal Highnesses on the Birth of another Prince, and the happy Recovery of her Royal Highness.

We cannot at present better shew our Loyalty to the King, than by paying our Duty to your Royal Highnesses, and expressing our unfeigned Joy at this Increase of his Majesty's Family.

We consider every Child of your Royal Highnesses as an additional Security of the Peoples Happiness and Freedom; by your Examples they will learn the Practice of every social Virtue, to be earnest and zealous in the Cause of Liberty, and to maintain our Religious and Civil Rights; may we never want one of your Royal Highnesses Descendants to reign over a free, grateful, and obedient People.

To which his Royal Highness return'd the following Answer.

My Lord and Gentlemen,

I Return you my Thanks and those of the Princess for this very remarkable Instance of Duty to the King, and Regard to us.

The Expectations you express to have of my Children are most agreeable to me; may they always be a Blessing to this Nation, and maintain the Liberty, Wealth, and Power it ought to have.

The City has always shewed so much Partiality to me, that they may be assured none of their Fellow Citizens can be warmer than I am for promoting their Welfare and their Trade.

They had all the Honour to kiss their Royal Highnesses Hands.
