

send away immediately to Hanover, two small Kegs of Herrings, as soon as they should arrive, one as a Present for the King, and the other for the Duke of Newcastle, as Samples of the British Herrings; accordingly an Express set out with them this Day at Noon. The small Cargoe, which came as a Tryal, sold immediately, and at the Rate of Eighty Pounds the Last, and that too at a Time when the Dutch sold theirs at Vlaerden at no more than Forty Guilders per Ton, which is only about Forty-five Pounds per Last; and as the British Herrings have been preferred to those of the Dutch at this Market, it is looked upon as an Earnest of farther Success in the present laudable Undertaking of the Free British Fishery.

Franckfort, July 9. We have just received Advice of the Death of the young Prince of which the Princess of Hesse Darmstadt was lately brought to Bed. The Affair concerning the Church which the Protestants are desirous of having built in this City, remains just in the same Situation, the Magistrates still persisting in their Refusal to grant any such Permission.

Hanover, July 10. Princess Mary of Hesse arrived Yesterday at Herrenhausen from Cassel, and immediately waited on the King her Father, who received her with great Affection.

Hague, July 14. Within these few Days past several Persons have taken the usual Oaths before the Council of State, to qualify themselves for the several Employments his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange has been lately pleased to confer on them. M. de Verelst, Minister Plenipotentiary from the States General to the King of Sardinia, set out on the 10th Instant for Zealand, of which he is Deputy, in order to take Leave of the States of that Province; after which he will proceed on his Journey to Turin. Most of the heavy Baggage of the Marquis de St. Contest, Ambassador from France to this Court, is arrived at Rotterdam, but his Excellency is not expected here these six Weeks. The Ambassador from the Emperor of Morocco, who arrived here some Days ago, has already had his first Audience of the Greffier Fagel.

Whitehall, July 7.

The King has been pleased to constitute and appoint Charles Polhill, James Vernon, Robert Eyre, Horatio Townshend, William Burton, John Orlebar, Augustine Earle, and David Papillon, Esqrs. together with John Windham Bowyer, Esq; in the room of John Fowles, Esq; to be his Majesty's Commissioners for the Management and Receipt of his Majesty's Revenue of Excise and other Duties within England, Wales, and Town of Berwick upon Tweed.

Whitehall, June 23, 1750.

Whereas Littleton Pointz Meynell, of Bradley, in the County of Derby, Esq; hath humbly represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, That on Thursday the 14th of this Instant June, he received, by the Post, from Derby, a Letter, signed A Samaritan, Threatning to shoot him dead, or burn his House, and him in it. Their Excellencies are pleased to promise His Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any Persons concerned in writing the said Letter (except the Person who was the real Author thereof) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Ri. Nev. Aldworth

And for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing the said Threatning Letter, I do hereby promise a Reward of Five Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons (except the real Author of the said Letter) who shall discover any one or more of the Accomplices therein, so that he, she, or they be apprehended and convicted thereof:

Bradley,

L. P. Meynell.
