From Saturday August 11, to Tuesday August 14, 1750.

Naples, July 28.

THE King, as an Act of Clemency, has consented to the Return of the Bishop of Nola to his Archbishoprick, and has charged the Delegate of his Jurisdiction, to renew his Insinuations to the Prelates of the Kingdom, to caution the Curates of their respective Parishes not to marry any Military Officers in his Service, under Pain of incurring his Displeasure. His Majesty has appointed the Counsellor d'Andrea to be Judge Delegate for the Differencies between his Courtiers and Servants.

Rome, Aug. 1. A few Days ago the Chevalier Cappello, the Venetian Ambassador to the Pope, together with his Lady and Family, agreeably to the repeated Orders from his Senate, departed from this City on his Return, by Way of Viterbo and Florence, to Venice. On the 20th past Count Monestarlo, Minister from the King of Sardinia, to that of Naples, set out from hence thither, to take upon him that Charge; as did, on the 21st, the Marquis de Millefino, on his Return from Naples to Turin, having executed his Commission at that Court on the Part of the Duke of Savoy. The same Day the French Ambassador came to this City from Frascati, and had a long private Audience of the Pope, relating to the Disagreements between the Senate of Venice, the Court of Vienna, and the Pope, about the Patriarcate of Aquileja. On the 23d the Pope held a Consistory, in which he appointed Cardinal Barni to be Legate of Ferrara, Cardinal Bolognetti to be Legate of Ravenna, and confirmed Cardinal Doria in the Legation of Bologna.

Genoa, Aug. 1. The Master of a French Pink arrived here from Algiers reports, that before his Departure from that Place, twelve Xebek Corsairs sailed from thence on a Cruize; that they separated as soon as they got out of Port; but that he knew not what Course they had steered.

Florence, Aug. 4. Last Week sailed from Leghorne for Genoa, the Emperor's Ship the Lyon, to escort to Leghorne the Tunisine Xebek, which that Government has given up to the Emperor, and which is to be restored to the Bey of Tunis. On the 24th past in the Evening, Count Richecourt returned to this City from Leghorne, whither he had been to give Orders for the final Departure of the Emperor's new Men of War which are in that Port. Agreeable to the Emperor's Directions to compleat the two Companies of his Life Guard, called la Garde Noble, fifteen Italian young Gentlemen were last Week enlisted in the said Companies; and Dispositions are making for the remounting the whole Guard. On the 28th at Night, the Chevalier Cappello, the late Venetian Ambassador to the Pope, his Lady and Family, arrived here from Rome, on his Journey to Venice.

Warsaw, Aug. 5. On Monday last, being the King's Birth-Day, and also the Anniversary of the Institution of the Order of the Black Eagle, the same was pronounced to the People in the Morning by a Discharge of the Artillery. Towards Noon all the Knights of that Order, who were in Town, waited on the King in his Closet, in their proper Habits; and having complimented him on his Birth-Day, his Majesty was pleased to make a Promotion of the following new Knights, viz. M. Szoldrki, Palatine of Ynowladislaw, and General of Great Poland; the Prince of Radzvie, Palatine of Nowogrodeck; Mess. Gurouwski, Czerny, Sollohub, and Grabowki, Castellans of Polesania, Woyniz, Witebsk, and Dantzick; the Baron de Westenberg, Great Master of the Queen's Household; Count Potocki, Crown Carver; and Prince Lubomirski, Crown General. After the King had invested the new Knights with the Habits of the Order, his Majesty appeared in Publick, and received the Compliments of the Senate, the Nobility, and Foreign Ministers; after which the King gave a grand Entertainment, the Knights of the Order of the Black Eagle being admitted to dine at his Majesty's Table; four other Tables being prepared for the Nobility and Foreign Ministers. Yesterday, being the Day appointed for the Opening of the Extraordinary Dyet, their Majesties repaired to the Collegiate Church of St. John, and heard Mass celebrated Pontifically by the Bishop of Cracow; after which his Majesty went to the Senate-house, and opened the Dyet with the usual Formalities.

Vienna, Aug. 8. Count Christiani, Great Chancellor of the Milaneze, arrived here on the 6th Instant from Italy, in order to lay before her Imperial Majesty the State of her Affairs in Lombardy, and particularly of her Finances; and Count Harrach, Governor General of that Dutchy, is expected here next Month. Preparations are still making for the Court's Departure for Bohemia, Part of their Imperial Majesty's Baggage being already sent away.

Stockholm, Aug. 11. Since the Permission which was granted for sending Corn from Livonia into Foreign Countries, on Account of their plentiful Crops this Year, several Vessels are gone thither from different Ports of this Kingdom, in order to take in their Loading of that Commodity at Riga and Revel.

Hambourg, Aug. 12. By Letters from Warsaw we are informed, that the Palatine of Poland, Count Rzewuski, had just given a remarkable Instance of Zeal for the Good
