The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Tuesday September 18, to Saturday September 22, 1750.

Gibraltar, August 16,

N four or five Days Capt. Barrington will fail from hence in a Man of War for . Tetuan, and will carry with him Mr. Pettigrew, his Britannick Majesty's Consul General to Morocco, Fez, and the Algarves, in order to treat for the Redemption of all British Captives which are now in Slavery at those Places.

Petersbourg, Sept. 8. By Letters which the Synod has received from the College eftablished in Asia, for the Propagation of Christimity, it appears, that during the fix first Months of the prefent Year, no less than 2812 Men, and $532 Women, had been converted to the Greek Religion. Several Ships belonging to the Ruffian Fleet are returned into the Port of Cronflot, where they are ordered to be unrigged and laid up. Turin, Sept. 12. The Disputes which have fublifted for fome Time past between the English Company of Miners, and the Natives, are at length adjusted entirely to the Satisfaction of the former; to whom his Majesty has confented to give a greater Price for their Silver, than he is obliged to do by his Patents, on Condition of their paying the Marquels de St. Maurice, with whom they were contesting, a yearly Sum of 5000 Livres. Genoa, Sept. 12. The new Galley, which has been building here for fome Time past for the King of Sardinia, put to Sea for Nice a few Days ago, Vienna, Sept. 16. On the 13th Inftant her Imperial Majesty set out for Nicolsbourg, in or-, der to meet the Emperor, who was on his Return from Bohemia; and Yesterday in the Afternoon their Imperial Majesties arrived in perfect Health at their Palace of Schonbrun. Warsaw, Sept. 16. Advices have been received from Podolia, by which we learn, that the Heyducks had furprized the little Town of-Kroíno, and had pillaged it entirely; that they had killed leveral Jews, and carried away the Governor and several of the Inhabitants, Prifoners; and that they had afterwards put the Governor to Death. Copenhagen, Sept. 19. The Royal Family I of Denmark is now in perfect Health at Friedensburg, where the usual Council was held Yesterday; at the Conclusion of which, M. le Maire, the French Minister, presented to the King, in a private Audience, the Notification of his Court upon the late Delivery of the Dauphinefs, and the Birth of the young Princes. M. von Thienen, the new Minister from this , fix or eight Days Time for Berlin, in order to relieve M. Rosencrantz; and 'tis faid the Company which M. Thienen commanded, and which now becomes vacant, is or will be given to the Prince of Anhalt Cothen.

Ratisbon, Sept. 21. The Princels of Furstenberg, second Daughter to the Prince of that Name, arrived here Yesterday with her Mother, Sifters, and a numerous Retinue. She was received at some Distance by a Party of Horse, who conducted her to this City; at the Entrance whereof the was received by a Company of Grenadiers, and faluted by the Cannon from the Ramparts. The Celebration of this Princefs's Marriage with the Prince of Tour Taxis, will be performed this Evening with great Magnificence. Hanover, Sept. 22. The Ratifications of the Treaty of Subfidy lately concluded with the Elector of Bavaria, were exchanged here Yesterday and to Day by the British, Austrian, Dutch and Bavarian Minifters. Berlin, Sept. 22. Yesterday Morning the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick, Prince Maurice of Anhalt Deffau, Prince Eugene of Wirtemberg, and feveral General Officers, and other Persons of Distinction, returned hither from Silefia. Brussept. 24. They write from Louvain, that there had been great Commotions in that City on Account of the changing of the Magistrates, in which five Citizens were killed, who were for and against the Choice of the new Burgomaster; and that though Louvain is the only City where the Citizens have that Power, it was feared they must be obliged to give up that ancient Privilege, in order to prevent the fatal Confequences which usually attend it. On Wednesday last Prince Charles of Lorrain's Regiment, together with the Huffars, Ligne's Dragoons, and the Cuiraffiers of Benthem, were all reviewed by his Serene Highness, on the Plains of Lacken; after which they performed several Exercises, Evolutions, and Firings, in his Highness's Presence. General Neuperg is come bither, as 'tis faid, to confer with Prince Charles of Lorrain upon the Means to be made use of for the better Security of the Fortifications of this Country, and to provide every Thing neceffary for that Purpose. Since the Arrival of this General, several Conferences have been held, independent of the others which are held daily for the Improvement of Commerce, and other Affairs of this Country. By Letters from Paris of the 21st Instant we are informed, that the Affair of the Clergy was at length ended, greatly to their Diladvantage. On the 15th a grand Council was held, in which it was determined, Court to that of Pruffia, proposes to set out in I that the Court should give up no Point, and we set that the King's Will should be obeyed; and the Count

[Price Two-pence.]