The 11th their Highnesses went to view the Mine in the Neighbourhood of that Place, and saw all the Operations which the Oar passes through, before it becomes pure Silver. fund, and on the 17th returned to their Palace at Drottningholm.

The same Day the Count de Hautefort, the French Ambassador, arrived here with his Lady, and a numerous Retinue; and on Monday he had his first private Audience of the Emperor. Some private Letters from Lower Hungary say, that the Janissaries, who are in Quarters in Bosnia, have revolted against their Chief; that some Thousands of them had assembled themselves together, and plundered the Town of Zwarnick, after having massacred the Bashaw who commanded it, and some other Officers who endeavoured to bring them to Reason; that they afterwards set Fire to some of the Neighbouring Villages, and that several of the Inhabitants had perished in the Flames.

Yesterday the Anniversary of the Princess of Orange's Birth-day was celebrated here with great Rejoycings; in the Morning the Cannon were fired; and in the Evening most of the Houses were prettily illuminated. LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS.

Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforced. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.
