

not return hither till the Beginning of next Month,

Berlin, Nov. 3. The Margravine of Bareith, who was thought some Days ago to be much better, is again relapsed, and obliged to keep her Chambers. On Thursday last the Princess, Spouse of the Margrave Henry, appeared in Publick for the first Time since her Lying-in, and was complimented thereupon by all the Royal Family.

Hambourg, Nov. 6. The Chamberlain Begeraard, who is appointed Envoy from his Danish Majesty to the Court of Saxony, arrived here last Night on his Way to Dresden.

Cologne, Nov. 6. The Elector of Cologne set out from Mergentheim on the 2d Instant for Munich. We have received an Account from Aix la Chapelle, of the Death of the Count de la Marck, Knight of the Order of the Holy Ghost, Lieutenant General of the Armies of his most Christian Majesty, and Grandee of Spain of the first Class.

Paris, Nov. 6. On the 3d Instant Count Caunitz, their Imperial Majesties Ambassador to this Court, had his first private Audience of the King at Fontainebleau. On the 2d, the Marquis de Mirepoix, Ambassador from this Court to that of Great Britain, set out from hence on his Return to London. By Letters from Provence we have Advice, that the Squadron, which sailed some Time ago from Brest, under the Command of M. Macnamara, arrived the 25th past at Toulon, where it was unrigging, in order to be laid up.

Hague, Nov. 10. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland will open their Assembly Tomorrow; and on Tuesday next their Serene Highnesses the Prince and Princess of Orange propose setting out from Loo on their Return hither. Lord Anson, Lord Delawar, Lord Hordernesse, and several other Persons of Distinction, propose setting out Tomorrow Morning for Helvoetsluys, to wait for his Britannick Majesty, who is expected there on the 13th from Harover. By Letters from Middlebourg of the 6th Instant, we have an Account of the Death of M. Cocquelle, ancient Burgomaster and Councillor of that City. The last Letters from Russia, Sweden, Denmark, and other Northern Countries, all agree in their Accounts of the Frosts having set in so very severe, that most of their Rivers were already covered with Ice of a prodigious Thickness, so that in many Places their Carriages passed over the Rivers without running the least Risk.

Whitehall, October 27, 1750.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices, that the House of Mr. Charles Howard, in the Close of Litchfield, was, on Friday the 19th Instant, about Three o'Clock in the Morning, broke open and robbed of a Sum of Money; Their Excellencies for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Persons concerned in the said Robbery, are pleased to promise his Majesty's most gracious Pardon to any of them who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Rd. Leveson Gower.

And as a farther Encouragement, the said Charles Howard doth hereby promise a Reward of Ten Guineas to any Person or Persons who shall discover his Accomplice or Accomplices, so that he or they be convicted thereof as aforesaid.

Cha. Howard.
