St. James's, December 4.

THE following Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, transmitted to his Excellency the Earl of Harrington, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, having been presented to the King, his Majesty was pleased to receive the same very graciously.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty,

The humble Address of the Provost, Fellows and Scholars of the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin.

May it please your Majesty,

WE your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects, the Provost, Fellows, and Scholars of, the College of the Holy and Undivided Trinity of Queen Elizabeth near Dublin, beg Leave in the most humble Manner to congratulate your Majesty on your safe Return to your British Dominions, and on the happy Increase of the Royal Family by the Birth of a Prince.

We are fully sensible that the Welfare of these Kingdoms depends (next under God) on your illustrious House, and therefore esteem it one of the greatest Blessings we can possibly enjoy, to see your Majesty's Government further secured by a numerous Issue.

This gives a most pleasing Prospect to all your faithful Subjects, particularly to this Seminary of Learning, which has been early distinguish'd by eminent Marks of your Majesty's Favour and Protection.

Princes educated under the Influence of your Majesty's Royal Example, will (we assure ourselves) continue the Happiness of these Nations to the latest Posterity.

Constantinople, October 24. Chiaur Oghlu, the Rebel, who appeared in Asia, has been destroyed by the Prudence and Conduct of Ragib, Pascha of Heyden, who has since been removed to the Paschalyck of Sydon; and Piry Mustapha, Pascha of Sydon, has been removed to that of Urfa. The Captain Pascha was deposed on his Return from the Archipelago, and sent as Pascha to Canca; and Bechir Pascha, the oldest in this Government, and who married a Sultana, a Cousin of the Grand Signor's, is made Captain Pascha in his Room; He arrived here a few Days ago, and is lodged on Board of one of the Men of War that came into Port some Days before him. By Advices from Persia, received at Aleppo, we are informed, that Shawrooke Schach is again placed on that Throne, though they have left him but one Eye. He has two Competitors, and his Affairs looked very desperate. They had several Reports as if the Ophgoons were marching from Candabar to take Possession of that Kingdom; and many were of Opinion, that they would succeed to the total Subversion of the old Persian Monarchy.

Naples, Nov. 14. The superior Officers of the Mint having examined the Weight and Quality of the Gold and Silver Species lately coined there on the King's Account, amounting in the Whole to the Sum of 300,000 Ducats in Gold, and five Millions in Silver; and finding them to be full Weight, and agreeable to the Standard, a Distribution of them is ordered to be made to the publick Banks of this City, for the greater Conveniency of Commerce. The Marquis de l'Hopital, the French Ambassador, is preparing to depart from this City, on his Return to France, to take on him the Post of First Master of the Horse to the Mesdames de France; to which he has lately been appointed. And 'tis said, that M. de Horsan, a Relation to the Marquis de Puffieulx, is to succeed him here in the Embassy from the Court of France. On the 3d Instant, the Nephew of Marshal Bellisle arrived in this City from Rome. On the 4th the King's Name-day was celebrated at Court with the usual Solemnity; the Foreign Ministers, the Nobility, and Military Officers, were to pay their Duties to their Majesties on that Occasion in rich Habits; and in the Evening there was a triple Discharge of the Artillery of the Fortresses and Gallies. We hear from Palermo, that two large Row-Boat Corsairs from Barbary, having landed at the Pantalleica 25 Men out of their Crew, to plunder that Place, the Inhabitants rose up in Arms, assisted by a small Garrison, and entirely defeated the Moors, whereof eleven were drowned, eight killed, and six taken Prisoners. Within these two Weeks past, we have had most violent Hurricanes and rainy Weather, which occasioned great Damages at Sea, and in divers Villages of the Provinces of Terra di Lavoro and Salerno.

Rome, Nov. 17. We hear that the Duke of Nivernois, the French Ambassador, has lately had an Audience of the Pope, in which he had declared, that the King his Master being desirous of the Preservation of the Peace of Italy, had ordered him to enquire, if he, the Pope, still continued to approve of the Project for suppressing the Patriarcate of Aquileja, and erecting two Bishopricks instead of it; and that he had also Orders to offer his Master's Mediation for the Accommodation of these Differences.

few Days ago arrived in this City from Germany, the Baggage of Prince Esterhafi, which was deposited in the Tuscan Palace in the Piazza Madama; and as an Apartment is preparing there for him, it is believed that he designs to pass the Carneval in this City, before he proceeds to the Court of Naples. The General of the Jesuits having been taken dangerously ill last Week, the Pope went twice to his Apartment at the Quirinal, in order to confer with him on some important Affairs relating to that Order. On the 6th Instant, Count Monestarlo, the King of Sardinia's Minister to the Court of Naples, having executed his Commissions at that Court, arrived in this City on his Return to Turin. On the 10th, the Pope, attended by the College of Cardinals, assisted at the Funèral Obsequies, which were performed at the Quirinal for the late King of Portugal; after which, Cardinal Valenti pronounced a Funèral Oration.

Florence, Nov. 20. Last Week the Regency received Notice from Constantinople, of the Arrival at that Port, on the 3d of October last, of the Emperor's three Ships of War, commanded by Mr. Acton; and that they were to proceed from thence to Alexandria and the Coast of Barbary, on their Return to Leghorn. On the 12th Instant, by Directions from the Court of Vienna, the Regency gave Orders to admit, in the usual Forms, M. Lutyens, a German Merchant, as Consul from the King of Prussia at the Port of Leghorn. On the 16th the Marquis Rinuccini, his Lady, and other Florentine Ladies and Noblemen, set out from this City on their Travels to Rome, and other principal Cities of Italy. Some of the Members of the Regency were sent for to Town the Beginning of this Week, to hold an extraordinary Council upon the Notice that had been sent from Leghorn, that on the 14th, at Night, Information having been given to the Patroul, that some Algerine Merchants established there, had introduced a Person into their House, with a Design, as the Informer supposed, to do him some Injury. The Officer of the Patroul, without any farther Enquiries, sent to force open the House, The Algerines being surprized at this Behaviour in the Night, refused the Patroul Admittance, and from their Windows put themselves in a Posture of Defence. The Soldiers say, that a Pistol was fired upon them, which made them likewise fire, by which one of the Algerines was shot, and fell dead into the Street. The next Morning, at Break of Day, the Sbirri, with other Soldiers, went to the House, the Door of which was opened to them without any Difficulty, and strict Search was made, but nobody, except one of the Algerines, was found in it, nor any Circumstance discovered to support the Accusation or Suspicion of any Crimes. The Regency are greatly displeas'd with the Officer of the Patroul for acting so violently upon so slight an Information, which has occasioned the Death of an Algerine Merchant in his own House. The Algerines have deputed one of their Nation to come to Florence, to complain to the Regency of this Violence, asserting, that no Pistol was fired from the Window upon the Patroul; and as this is the only Circumstance that can justify the Soldiers for having fired and killed one of them, strict Orders have been sent to Leghorn to examine into it.

Venice, Nov. 27. The Republick, to manifest their sincere Desire of a solid Accommodation of the Affair of Aquileja, has condescended to propose to the Pope, by the Means of Cardinal Rezzonico, as a Preliminary, a Project for the Translation of the Patriarcate to Udine. It is also determined to send Signor Bini to Rome, to assist Cardinal Rezzonico in the Conduct of this Negotiation, being esteemed a very able Man, perfectly well versed in all that relates to the present Dispute, and a great Favourite of the Pope. From these Circumstances it is concluded, that the Senate is earnestly desirous of terminating this Affair amicably; and if the Pope receives this Overture favourably, as it is generally believed he will, it is imagined that he will desire the Empress to suspend the Recalling of her Minister from hence, M. Chavigny, the French Ambassador, has notified his Arrival to the College and the Foreign Ministers, and received their Visits of Ceremony upon it; but he has not been able to return them, being still indisposed. Prince Esterhafi, Ambassador from their Imperial Majesties to the King of Naples, arrived here on Sunday, in his Way to that Court. A Deputation of two Savii has been sent from the College to compliment him, and all other Marks of Civility will be shewn to him, that are consistent with the Forms of this Government.

Whitehall, November 30, 1750.

Whereas it has been humbly represented to the King, that on Wednesday the 21st of this Instant November, an anonymous Letter directed, For Mr. Lionel Seaman, was dropt in the Gateway leading to the Anchor Inn in the Town of Froome in the County of Somerset, threatening to murder him the said Lionel Seaman on Sunday the 25th of this Instant November, or at some other Time; and also greatly abusing and threatening the Life of the Revd. Giles Hill, Clerk, another of his Majesty's Justices of the Peace for the said County: His Majesty is therefore pleased to promise his most gracious Pardon to any Person concerned in writing and dropping the said Letter, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover his or her Accomplice or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

B E D F O R D.

And for the better discovering and bringing to Justice the Person or Persons concerned in writing and dropping the said Letter, we the Church Wardens of Froome aforesaid, for ourselves and Successors, do hereby promise a Reward of One Hundred Pounds to any Person or Persons, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover one or more Accomplices or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Josiah Ames.

Tho. Davis.

And as a farther Encouragement, we the said Lionel Seaman and Giles Hill do promise a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Person or Persons, (except the Person who actually wrote the said Letter) who shall discover one or more Accomplices or Accomplices therein, so that he, she or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

Lionel Seaman.

Giles Hill.

Christ Hospital, Dec. 4, 1740.

Whereas John West, late of London, Scrivener, and Frances his Wife, both deceased, did in their several Lifetimes, convey to the Governors of Christ Hospital, London, divers Estates in and about the City of London and elsewhere, for the annual Payment of Five Pounds, to Poor Men and Women of the Age of Fifty Years or upwards, during their Natural Lives; and directed that their Relations by Consanguinity shall have Preference. The Governors of the said Hospital do therefore hereby give Notice, that if any Person or Persons related to the said John West, or Frances his Wife as aforesaid, who stand in Need or Desire the Benefit of the said Charity, shall not, in Forty Days from the Day of the Date hereof, apply themselves to the said Governors, at the Compting House in the said Hospital, and make out their Relation to the Donors, they will be excluded the Benefit of the said Charity.

South Sea House, London, Dec. 3, 1750.
