Florence, February 7.

COUNT Richecourt, President of the Council of the Regency, set out a few Days ago for Pisa, from whence he will go to Leghorn, in order to wait the Arrival of the Emperor's three Ships of War, which are expected to return into that Port some Time next Month. Last Week a Detachment of our Troops set out from hence for Leghorn, having under their Care 16 Algerines, being the Crew of a Xebec which was drove on Shore by one of the Pope's Pinks near Grossetto, where they had the good Fortune to save themselves by taking to their Shallop, and making for the Coast of Tuscany, notwithstanding a Bark was immediately sent in Pursuit of them. They are all ordered to be supported at the Expence of the Government, till an Opportunity offers of sending them to Algiers.

Petersbourg, Feb. 12. Her Imperial Majesty has raised Colonel Iswolsk to the Rank of Brigadier, and at the same Time declared him President of the Council of Manufactures. The Departure of Count Bernes for Vienna will now soon take Place, he having had his Audiences of Leave on Sunday last; and the next Day his Successor the Baron the Pretlak was admitted to his first publick Audience of her Imperial Majesty, to whom he delivered his Credential Letters; after which he was likewise admitted to his first publick Audience of the Great Duke and Great Dutchess. Notwithstanding the greatest Part of the General and other Officers, who had obtained Leave to pass some Time here, are returned to their respective Posts, the Court continues extremely brilliant, and there are Abundance of Diversions going forward. The Marriage of Prince Gallitzin with the Princess Cantimir, one of her Imperial Majesty's Ladies of Honour, was celebrated at Court on Tuesday last with great Magnificence.

Rome, Feb. 13. On the 8th Instant Prince Frederick of Deux Ponts arrived here, and on the 10th he was introduced to the Pope; he proposes spending some Days in this City, and then to set out for Naples.

Munich, Feb. 18. The Elector of Cologne has fixed his Departure to the 4th of next Month; and the Cardinal of Bavaria, Prince and Bishop of Liege, proposes to set out from hence about the same Time, in order to return to Manheim. Count Wartensleben, Minister from the States General, is preparing for a Journey which he proposes to take to Vienna.

Copenhagen, Feb. 20. The King has granted, by his Letters Patent, dated the 10th of last Month, to a private Company at Bergen in Norway, the sole Liberty and Privilege of Refining of Sugars. And in order to contribute to the Success of this Undertaking, his Majesty has caused an Ordonnance to be published, forbidding the Importation of all Foreign Refined Sugars and Syrups into the Port of Bergen, or any of the Territories thereunto belonging, or into any of the Districts of Norway that correspond with that Port, or receive any Merchandize from thence. A few Days ago his Majesty was pretty much out of Order with a Cold, but he is now perfectly recovered. Captain Hoglandt is appointed to command his Majesty's Ship the Falster of 40, as is Captain Schindel the Dokke of 30 Guns, which two Ships are almost ready to put to Sea, in order to cruize on the Barbary Corsairs in the Mediterranean.

Cracow, Feb. 20. We enjoy here, as well as in the whole Kingdom, the greatest Tranquillity; the Tribunal of Petrikau continuing its Sessions with all the Success imaginable; the Divisions which ran very high amongst some of the principal Families, are now entirely ceased; and all the Advices from Podolia and Lithuania agree, that the Heyducks have not appeared for some Time past upon any of the Frontiers of those Provinces.

Vienna, Feb. 20. Her Imperial Majesty advances happily in her Pregnancy, and as her Time begins now to draw near, Publick Prayers for her safe Delivery are ordered to be put up, not only in all the Churches of this City, but also in all those of the Hereditary Countries.

Berlin, Feb. 20. M. Mallow, Colonel of the Regiment of Forcade, has obtained Leave, on Account of his bad State of Health, to resign that Employment; and the King has given his Regiment to the Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Du Moulin. On Tuesday his Majesty accompanied the two Queens to an Entertainment provided for them by the Prince of Prussia, after which a fine Concert of Musick was performed; and the next Day the reigning Queen took the Diversion of Coursing on the Snow in a Sledge as far as Schonhausen, being followed by a numerous Retinue.

Dresden, Feb. 23. Marshal Lowendahl set out from hence on Tuesday last for Poland; and on Thursday the Duke and Dutchess of Wurtemberg,
