The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday May 11, to Tuesday May 14, 1751.

Petersbourg, April 30.

THE last Courier which Count Panin, the Swedish Minister, received from Stockholm, brought Advice that some Regiments would soon be transported into Finland, with this Circumstance, that they were to work at the Fortifications in the Room of the Militia, who will have Liberty to return into the Villages in order to cultivate the Land. This Court is so well satisfied with the good Dispositions of the Porte, that no Attention at all is given to the Reports of the Motions of the Turks in Walachia and Moldavia.

Florence, May 1. The continual Rains we have had for some Time past having done very considerable Damage, not only in this Neighbourhood, but likewise in all the Country adjacent, the Regency have caused publick Prayers to be put up in all Churches for an Alteration of the Weather.

Stockholm, May 7. It has been resolved to transport eight Regiments into Finland, in order to change the Garrisons and relieve the Militia, who have been employed in working at the Fortifications. These eight Regiments consist of 8000 Men. They are to be sent off in three Bodies, and will be all gone in the Course of a Fortnight.

Presbourg, May 7. Their Imperial Majesties arrived here in good Health on the 5th Instant, accompanied with a numerous Retinue. They were received at Wolfsthal, about a League from hence, by a Deputation of the States of the Kingdom, who, after they had been admitted to an Audience under a magnificent Tent erected for that Purpose, their Imperial Majesties proceeded to this City, where they were received by the Citizens under Arms, who conducted them to the Castle, through a prodigious Crowd of Spectators, the Artillery from the Ramparts firing all the Time, and the Inhabitants expressing the utmost Joy on this Occasion.

Dantzick, May 7. We learn here by Letters from Libau, that Count Lacy, Field Marshal of her Imperial Majesty's Armies, Commander in Chief of her Forces in the conquered Provinces, and Governor of the City and Forts of Riga, died on the 30th of last Month, in the 85th Year of his Age, extremely regretted.

Vienna, May 8. On Monday the Archduchesses, with the Princess Charlotte of Lorraine, set out from hence for Presbourg, and Yesterday the Archduke Joseph, accompanied by Count Batbiani, took the same Route. This Evening an Express arrived at Court from Presbourg with Advice, that their Imperial Majesties were safely arrived there, and had been received with the greatest Demonstrations of Joy. They write from Trieste, that the Manufacture established there for refining of Sugar, continues to have all the Success that can possibly be desired.

Berlin, May 15. Count Rothenbourg is perfectly recovered from his late Indisposition, and on Tuesday last waited on the King at Potsdam, in order to thank his Majesty for the great Concern he had constantly shewn, and the many kind Visits he had honoured him with during his Illness. The same Day Lieutenant-General Thieden, in the Service of the Landgrave of Hesse-Cassel, arrived in this City; as did the next Day Prince Maurice of Anhalt Dessau from Potsdam, and set out immediately after for Stargard.

Leipsick, May 15. The King and Queen, with the Prince and Princess Royal, who came hither with several of the Nobility to see the Fair, set out from hence Yesterday on their Return to Dresden.

Brussels, May 17. A few Days ago a grand Council was held at Court, when several important Affairs were brought on the Tapis, in order to be adjusted before the Departure of Prince Charles of Lorraine for Vienna. The Tax upon strong Liquors has been augmented three Sols per Pot, and some other Impositions are talked of. On Thursday last her Imperial Majesty's Birth-Day was celebrated with great Magnificence. At Noon Prince Charles received the Compliments of the Nobility and Foreign Ministers; and at Night there was a Masquerade at the Grand Theatre, at which his Serene Highness assisted. On this Occasion the greatest Part of the Houses in this City were illuminated, and divers Discharges were made of the Cannon upon our Ramparts.

Hambourgh, May 18. The Bishop of Lubeck is arrived in this City, in order to pass a few Weeks with the Dutchess of Holstein, his Highness's Mother.

Hague, May 20. The States of Holland and Westsriesland, who were assembled Yesterday
