

Hague, June 24. The States of Holland and Westfrizeland, who were assembled Yesterday, have this Day continued their Deliberations in the Presence of his Serene Highness the Prince of Orange. Yesterday in the Afternoon his Serene Highness, accompanied by several General Officers, reviewed the Dutch Regiment of Foot Guards, who went through their whole Exercise before him; and his Highness expressed great Satisfaction at their Appearance and Behaviour. The Princess of Orange, the young Prince, and the Princess Caroline, accompanied by several Lords and Ladies of the Court, were all present at this Review; and this Evening his Serene Highness proposes to review the Swiss Regiment of Guards in the same Manner. On Sunday Morning last a Fire broke out at Yffelstein, which burnt with such Violence, that five or six Houses were reduced to Ashes in a few Hours.
