

Frankfort, Oct. 10. According to our last Advices from Alsace, the Troops appointed to Garrison in that Province during the Winter, consist of 37 Battallions, seven Regiments of Horse, and two of Dragoons, and are to be distributed in Conformity to Orders delivered from the War Office, as follows, viz. four Battallions in the Citadel of Strasbourg, and twelve in the City, with the two Regiments of Dragoons; six Battallions, and a Regiment of Horse, at Landau; two Battallions at Lauterbourg; three at Hagenau; two at Fort Louis; two, and a Regiment of Horse at Schlestat; three, and a Regiment of Horse at Brisach; three, and a Regiment of Horse at Huningue; two Regiments of Horse at Phalsbourg; and one Regiment of Horse at Thionville.

Berlin, Oct. 11. On Friday last the King, accompanied by Prince Ferdinand of Brunswick arrived here from Potsdam; and having given some Audiences, went to dine with the Queen-Mother at Montbijou: The next Morning his Majesty reviewed the Regiments here in Garrison, and then set out on his Return for Potsdam.

Hambourg, Oct. 14. They write from Poland, that several of the Dietines for the Election of Members to assist at the Tribunal of Petrikau, are separated without coming to any Choice; and that in some of them the Disputes ran so high, that several Swords were drawn, and some Persons wounded. We are informed by our last Letters from Stockholm, that Count Gyllenbourg's being elected Marshal of the Diet of the States of that Kingdom, gives great Satisfaction on all Sides.

General Post Office.

Whereas the Post-Boy bringing the Cirencester Mail to this Office, was Yesterday Morning, between Two and Three of the Clock, on Gerrard's Cross Common, between Wickham and Uxbridge, attacked and robbed by a single Highwayman, mounted on a Bay Mare, who carried off the said Mail, which contained the following Bags of Letters, viz.

Bristol,	Worcester,
Exeter,	Birmingham,
Tiverton,	Wolverhampton,
Taunton,	Woodstock,
Wellington,	Bath,
Bridgewater,	Cirencester,
Wells,	Gloucester,
Oxford,	Thame,
Burford,	Wickham,
Witney,	Beaconsfield,
Chipping-norton,	Gerrard's Cross,
Campden,	Abingdon, and
Evesham,	Farringdon.

The Person who committed this Robbery, was a tall lusty black Man, about Six Feet high, between Forty and Fifty Years of Age, marked with the Small Pox, and had on a blue Surtout or Horseman's Coat, and under it a dark coloured one, with white Metal Buttons, and wore a black or dark coloured Wig, and rode upon a large Brown Bay Horse or Mare, Fifteen Hands high, with a bald Face, and a dark black Mane, the Tail lately docked and nicked, the Wounds not healed.

This therefore is to give Notice, That whoever shall apprehend and convict, or cause to be apprehended and convicted, the Person who committed this Robbery, will be intitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen: Or if any Person or Persons, whether Accomplice in the said Robbery, or knowing thereof, shall make Discovery, whereby the Person, who committed the same, may be apprehended and brought to Justice, such Discoverer or Discoverers will, upon Conviction of the Party, be intitled to the same Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, and also have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

However, President, Burghmasters and the Supreme Court of Justice in the Imperial City of Bremen, by submit Application of the respective Heirs and Grand-Children of Mr. Gert Henrichs, to wit, Francisca Juliana Raaken, Wife of Mr. John Bodeker, and Anna Raaken, Wife to Mr. John Christian Wigands, and Mr. Gerhard Möller, through a publick and open Edict of the 16th of April past, of this current Year, has cited and provoked Mr. Henrich Henrichs, or in case he should be deceased, his legitimate Heirs, or their or his legitimate Attorney, to be present here in Bremen at the 13th of September pass'd, and to appear at such a prefixed and appointed Day before same aforesaid Supreme Court of Justice, to give an Account of his long Absence, as well as an Account of all the Papers and Instruments concerning his dead Father, and the Money he hath taken in Hands after his dead Brother in Holland Mr. Nicol Henrichs, with all the Dependencies to this Affairs, directly or indirectly concerning: Besides this, it was in the same aforesaid Citation intimated, that if Mr. Henrich Henrichs, or his Heirs or Attorney, should be in Neglect to appear, the Inheritance which is here at present to be distributed, should be divided to the other Heirs here present: Nevertheless none of the respective Incumbents, neither Mr. Henrich Henrichs, his Heirs or Attorneys, have appeared here at the prefixed Day the 13th of September. Also the President, Burghmasters, and Court of Justice, by this open and publick further Citation, SUB PRIORI PRÆJUDICIO ET EX SUPER-ABUNDANTI, will make known, that a new and ultimate Day is prefixed, at the 29th of November An. Cür. upon which Day the 29th of November this Year 1751. at Nine o'Clock in the Forenoon, Mr. Henrich Henrichs, his Heirs or lawful Attorneys, ought to appear upon this Town's House, and before the respective Court of Justice, to give Answer and Account in all the Matters above mentioned; and if this appointed Day should be neglected, the Court of Justice will and cannot binder or forbear to finish the Law Suit concerning that Inheritance that belongs to the aforementioned respective Heirs of Mr. Henrich Henrichs, and distribute it to each here present, their due Portion. And that such a Conclusion the more may be published and known, it is written down in this publick News Paper, and duly printed, that the Incumbents may duly observe and take Care of their own Damage and following Inconveniency. Bremen, the 20th of September, Anno 1751.
