AT the Court at St. James's the 19th Day of December 1751,

P R E S E N T,

The King's most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHereas his Majesty was pleased, by his Proclamation bearing Date the 29th Day of March 1750, to declare, That all Passes of the present Form now in being, which had been granted for Ships and Vessels belonging to his Majesty's Subjects Trading in the Way of the Cruizers of the Government of Algier, should not continue in Force longer than until the First Day of April 1752, (except such Passes as had been granted to Ships gone or going to the East Indies, or other remote Voyages, where they could not be timely furnished with new Passes;) and his Majesty did thereby strictly charge and command all his Subjects, who were, or should, be possessed of any such Passes, that they should before the said First Day of April 1752, return the same (except such as are before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great Britain, or to the respective Collectors of the Customs at the Out-Ports of Great Britain and Ireland, or to the Governors of some of his Majesty's Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they should furnish themselves with Passes of a new Form under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great Britain and Ireland in lieu thereof, for their several Ships and Vessels, as by the said recited Proclamation is directed— And whereas since the issuing the said Proclamation, it has been agreed by and between his Majesty and the Day of Algier, that the Passes of the present Form should not expire so soon as the said First Day of April 1752, but be continued and remain in Force until the Thirtieth Day of October 1752, at which Time the Passes of the New Form are to commence; except only in the Case of Ships going to the East-Indies, or other remote Voyages, whose Passes are to continue good for the Space of Three Years from the Thirtieth Day of October 1751.—His Majesty, with the Advice of his Privy-Council, doth therefore hereby declare and order, That the Passes of the present Form do continue in Force until the said Thirtieth Day of October 1752; upon which Day the Passes of the New Form shall commence and take Place, except in the Case of Ships going to the East-Indies, or other remote Voyages, whose present Passes are to remain good for Three Years from the said Thirtieth Day of October 1751—And his Majesty doth hereby charge and command all his Subjects who shall be possessed of any such Passes, that they do, before the said Thirtieth Day of October 1752, return the same (except such as are before excepted) into the Office of the Admiralty of Great-Britain, or to the respective Collectors of the Customs at the Out-Ports of Great-Britain and Ireland, or to the Governours of some of his Majesty's Plantations or Dominions, in order to their being cancelled; and that they do furnish themselves with Passes of a New Form, under the Hands and Seals of the Commissioners for Executing the Office of Lord High Admiral of Great-Britain and Ireland in lieu thereof, agreeable to the Requisites of his Majesty's aforementioned Proclamation of the Twenty-ninth of March 1750.—Whereof all Persons whom it may concern, are to take Notice, and conform themselves to his Majesty's Pleasure hereby signified.

Whitehall, November 2, 1751.

Walter Titley, Esq; His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the Court of Denmark, has transmitted to his Grace the Duke of Newcastle, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State; the following Account from Copenhagen, dated the 30th of October N. S. It having been found necessary to change the Situation of the Fire kept hitherto upon a Sand-Bank, at the Point of Jutland, called Schagen, for the Use of Mariners; His Danish Majesty has ordered Notice thereof to be given to the Publick, and, in Pursuance of that Order, the proper Officers sent an Advertisement, accompanied with a Memorial, to Mr. Titley, desiring him to transmit the said Advertisement to England, for the Information of the British Traders to the Baltick; of which Advertisement the following is a Translation.

Advertisement.

WHereas the Sand-Hill at Schagen, upon which a Fire has been kept hitherto in the Night Time for the Direction of Ships sailing through the Cattegat, is almost washed away by the Sea; and there is now erected, instead of the said wasting Sand-Hill, a Tower of Sixty Four Feet high, standing further within the Land at the Distance of Eight Hundred Feet from the Sand-Hill, and Four Hundred Feet more towards the North; upon which Tower the Fire is to be kept for the Future, and to commence on the ^{21st of January, O. S.} 1st of February, N. S. in the ensuing Year 1752: Therefore, by Order of the King of Denmark, Norway, &c. this Notice is given to the Publick, to the End that Mariners, being duly apprized of the Alteration beforehand, may regulate their Course through the Cattegat accordingly.

Should the foresaid Sand-Hill happen to be destroyed and carried quite away, by any violent Storm, before the Time abovementioned, in that Case a Fire will immediately be lighted up upon the Tower, instead of that which has hitherto burnt upon the Sand-Hill.

Privy-Purse, the 25th October 1751.*

which have been here refitting. He is first to convoy the Ships bound for the South Sea, to a certain Latitude, and then to go on a Cruise against the Corsairs of Barbary. We have had here such very tempestuous Weather for several Days past, that several Ships have been drove on Shore, and some lost, amongst which the Sarah from Dantzick, laden chiefly with Timber, has been dashed to Pieces against the Rocks, only three of her Crew having saved themselves. We have received certain Advice from Algiers, that several Men of War lately sailed from that Port on a Cruise.

Petersbourg, Dec. 5. The Empress has conferred on General Butterlin, the Command in Chief of her Troops in Livonia; and the Generals Alexander and Peter Schuwaloff, are appointed to command those in Ingermania and Esthonia. Major General Brown, an Irish Gentleman, who has for some Time past been soliciting his Discharge from this Service, has consented to continue in it, on her Imperial Majesty's raising him to the Rank of a Lieutenant-General.

Naples, Dec. 6. Five of the ten Xebecks which the King ordered some Time ago to be built in order to protect the Commerce of this Kingdom against the Barbary Pyrates, are almost ready to put to Sea, and the other five will be finished in the Spring. The Merchants of this City, and those of the other Trading Cities of this Kingdom, have agreed to bear Part of the Expences of supporting the above Xebecks, on Account of the Protection the Trade will receive from them.

Genoa, Dec. 9. Count Sartirane, Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia to this Republick, has notified to the Senate the Conclusion of a Treaty of Friendship between the King his Master and the Court of Vienna, for the Preservation of their respective Territories, and the Advantage of the Commerce of their Subjects. On the 1st Instant a violent Shock of an Earthquake was felt here, which however did but little Damage: But we hear that some Towns and Villages situate upon the River Ponent, have been greatly damaged thereby. We have received Advice, that a Tuscan-Pink, which sailed from hence on the 30th past, having on board 30,000 Piastras, besides a valuable Cargo of rich Merchandize, had been dashed to Pieces against some Rocks, in a violent Storm two Days after she sailed, in the Road of St. Julien; but the Crew had the good Fortune to save themselves, except two Men who were drowned.

Stockholm, Dec. 14. The King has caused a Pardon to be published for all Deserters from the Troops of this Kingdom, provided they return to their respective Regiments in a certain Time therein limited. The same Edict gives Liberty to all Persons who have been banished this Kingdom, to return to their respective Dwellings; shortens the Time for all those who have been condemned to work at the Fortifications; and discharges all Prisoners, except for particular Crimes. Count Tessin, who some Time since solicited the States of this Kingdom to be discharged from his Employments, has been desired, on Account of his good Services, to continue in them as long as his Health will permit.

Vienna, Dec. 18. The Members of the Civil Government in this City have been for some Days past examining several Proposals that have been laid before them for abolishing all burthensome Taxes, and for substituting others less grievous in their Room, amongst which it is proposed to oblige all Persons who keep Coaches or Chairs, to pay a certain yearly Tax towards repairing the Streets. They talk also of laying a new Duty upon Houses, in Proportion to their Rent, for the better Support of poor aged People who have nothing to subsist on. In Consequence of a Resolution that was taken some Time ago to augment considerably the Fortifications of Olmutz, the Capital of Moravia, several able Engineers have been lately sent thither. 'Tis said the Court is determined to establish a regular Commerce between the Ports of Trieste and Fiume and those of Spain, and that an eminent Merchant has already undertaken to begin that Commerce.

Berlin, Dec. 23. The Hereditary Prince of Hesse Darmstadt arrived here last Saturday from Prentzlow with the Princess his Spouse, and were graciously received by the King and the whole Royal Family. His Majesty has disposed of the important Post of Chancellor of the Court of Justice of the Dutchy of Guelderland, in Favour of M. Freneau, one of the Council of that Tribunal.

Cologne, Dec. 24. Information having been received that several Persons have of late greatly adulterated Wines for Foreign Markets, notwithstanding the Ordonnances forbidding the same, the Magistrates have, to prevent all Abuses of that Kind for the Future, appointed two Commissaries to see the said Ordonnances strictly carried into Execution, and to punish all those who shall be found any ways guilty of the Breach of them.

Correctly printed in a neat Pocket Volume,
(Price Bound Three Shillings,)

The Second Edition of

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS.

Accurately Translated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wisdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Justice, Temperance, Love, Friendship, Humanity, &c. &c. are described in all their Branches; the Obligations of them shown to consist in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them strongly enforced. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, scarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a strict Discharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thousand other Decorums, besides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to instill the Principles of all social Virtues into tender Minds.

By His MAJESTY'S Royal Patent,

A New REFRACTING TELESCOPE, and a SEA QUADRANT,

Invented by

RICHARD JACK, Teacher of the Mathematicks,

AND

GEORGE ADAMS, Mathematical Instrument-maker, at Tycho Brahe's Head, the Corner of Raquet Court in Fleet Street; at which Place they are made and sold.

N.B. The Magnifying Power of this Telescope greatly exceeds that of any other of the common Sort, although they are considerably longer than this; also its particular Property, of various magnifying Powers without changing the Glasses, (which no other Construction hath) renders it extremely serviceable for viewing distant Objects.

They are prepared for Use at SEA in Mahogany Tubes two Feet long, and for LAND, from a Pocket Size to ten Feet in Length.

The Quadrant also hath several peculiar Advantages in taking Altitudes at Sea, either in a forward or backward Observation, and both by Refraction, whereby the Coincidence of the Sun and Horizon are preserved with the greatest Ease, although under all the Disadvantages of a rough Sea.
