* * * As there are a greater Number of Sheets in these Volumes than are usually given, or indeed can be well afforded for Six Shillings, it has been insinuated, that the Proprietors thereby intended to undermine and prevent the Sale of other Books of the like Nature; but nothing can be more invidious and wicked than such a Conclusion. The only Motive that induced them to put this Book at so low a Price was, that true Medical Knowledge might be propagated on as easy Terms as possible, and that every Practitioner might procure to himself the Means of acting rationally, of knowing the Sentiments and Practice of all eminent Physicians on the several Diseases to which Human Nature is subject, and of doing the utmost Justice to those who entrust their Lives to his Care. If these Reasons are not thought sufficient to extenuate the Charge brought against them, they can produce the Testimony of four eminent Physicians, who were privy to the Affair, and know that what we have inserted is nothing but the Truth.

Notice is hereby given, pursuant to the late Statute concerning Hue and Cry, that Richard Gutteridge, of the City of Winchester, in the County of Southampton, Servant Man, travelling from Winchester aforesaid to the Town and County of Southampton, on Friday the Tenth Day of January instant, between the Hours of Ten and Eleven of the Clock in the Forenoon, was set upon, assaulted and robbed in the King's Highway, in a Lane called Otterbourn Lane, in the Parish of Compton in the Hundred of Buddlegate in the County of Southampton, by two Men on Foot, to the said Richard Gutteridge unknown, the one of which was about five Foot eight or nine Inches high, his own brown Hair, had on a white Surtout Coat very dirty; the other a shorter Man, with dark brown Hair, had on a Canvas Frock, button'd round his Wrists, a narrow brim'd Hat with a black Girdle tied round it, had two crooked Legs. And the said Persons did feloniously rob the said Richard Gutteridge of six Guineas of English Gold Coin, Ten Portugal Pieces the Value of Thirty-six Shillings each, and two Portugal Pieces of four Shillings and Six-pence each, and four Shillings and Nine pence in English Silver and Copper Coin, in all twenty four Pounds nineteen Shillings and Nine pence, and then made off.
