An extraordinary Divan was lately held at Court, to deliberate on the Propositions that have been made by the Courts of Prussia and Denmark, for entering into Treaties of Commerce with the Porte, but the Resolutions taken therein are kept secret.

Lisbon, July 16. The King has appointed Count Baron to be President of the Council of the Finances. A few Days ago the Infant Don Emanuel, the King's Uncle, being on a Party of Pleasure in a Gondola, was in the utmost Danger of being taken, at the Mouth of the Tagus, by three African Chebecks that came in Sight all at once, and laboured all in their Power to come up with the Gondola; and it was with the greatest Difficulty she escaped, by the Help of her Oars, from falling into the Hands of those Infidels.

Petersbourg, July 24. Her Imperial Majesty no sooner heard of the Arrival of his Swedish Majesty in Finland, than she deputed Colonel Melgounoff to go and compliment him thereupon in her Name. By our last Letters from Siberia we are informed of the Death of Major General Kindermann, Commander in Chief of our Troops in that vast Province. The same Letters add, that there have lately been some popular Commotions in that Country, but that the same had been soon quelled, and the Authors of them severely punished. We are informed by Letters received here from the Governor of Astracan, that Prince Heraclius of Georgia, who continues to make great Progress in Persia, was in full March with his Army, in order to give Battle to that of Schach Doub.

Stockholm, Aug. 3. The Queen and the young Royal Family continue their Residence at Drottingholm, where an Express arrived on Monday last from Finland, with an Account of his Majesty's being in perfect Health, and that he proposed reaching Upsal by the 15th Instant. They are making a Collection here for rebuilding the magnificent Church of Mariestadt, in the Province of West Gothia, that was lately burnt down by Lightning, to which the Foreign Ministers, many of the Senators, and a great Number of Persons of Distinction, have been remarkably liberal, which has made the Sum already collected in this City only, very considerable.

Copenhagen, Aug. 5. The Court is still at Friedensbourg, where an extraordinary Council was held a few Days ago upon some Dispatches received from Hanover and Vienna. The new Queen will not make her publick Entry into this City till the Beginning of October next, as all Things necessary, on that solemn Occasion, cannot be got ready sooner. We are in daily Expectation of receiving the News of the Emperor of Morocco's having ratified the Treaty lately concluded here with his Minister; in Consequence of which, the Subjects of this Kingdom will have the free Liberty of trading at all Times in the Ports of Saffy and Santa Croix.
