Florence, August 4. This Government has received Advice, by the Master of a Vessel that arrived a few Days ago at Leghorn from Tunis, that, on the 17th of June, the Bey's eldest Son, being in a total Want of Powder, left that Place, accompanied by 700 Turkish Soldiers, and had taken the Route towards the Confines of Algiers: That the Bey being inform'd of it, sent his second Son from the Pardo, (the Place where he resides) accompanied by a considerable Number of Troops, into Tunis, who having taken Possession of all the principal Posts, caused most of the Houses and Magazines of the Turks, Capuchins, and Jews, to be plundered. The Danish Consul's House was exposed to the same Insults, he not having guarded it by Militia, at his own Expence, as the other Consuls had done, which saved them from the Fury of the Soldiers; but as soon as the Bey was informed of it, he sent Orders that every Thing should be restored to the Owners.

Genoa, Aug. 5. The Palace of Doria, situate in the Suburbs of St. Peter d'Arena, is fitting up for the Reception of the Dutchess of Parma and the Infanta Isabella her Daughter, who are to pass through this City on their Return to France. They write from Marsailles, that the Fathers of the Redemption of Slaves have brought there twenty-nine Christian Captives, whom they lately redeemed at Algiers, and who are now performing Quarantain. The same Letters add, that when those Fathers left Algiers, the Plague continued to rage there very much, seldom less than fifty Persons dying every Day of that fatal Distemper. By Letters from Modena we are informed, that the Duke has not as yet acceded to the Treaty of Madrid, but that to all Appearance every Thing tended towards it.

Stockholm, Aug. 7. We have Advice by an Express from Finland, that the King arrived at Abo on the 22d of last Month, and was received with the greatest Affection by the Inhabitants; and that after visiting the Fortifications of that Place, and reviewing the Troops there in Garrison, he set out on the 26th for East Bothnia. During his Majesty's Stay at Abo, he was entertained in the most elegant Manner by the Governor, who caused the Cannon upon the Ramparts to be fired at his Entrance into and Departure from that City.

Warsaw, Aug. 9. Part of the heavy Baggage belonging to the Court is already arrived here from Dresden; and their Majesties, accompanied by the Princes Xavier and Charles, are expected the Beginning of next Month.

Copenhagen, Aug. 15. They continue to make great Preparations for the Queen's Publick Entry into this City, which will certainly take Place towards the Beginning of October next, as all Things necessary for that grand and solemn Procession are ordered by the King to be got ready by that Time at farthest. Last Week their Majesties, attended by several of the principal Lords of the Court, went to Elsenour, and visited the new Works that are adding to the Fortifications of the Fort at Cronembourg; after which they were elegantly entertained at Dinner by Major General Gruner, Commander of that Place; and, in the Evening, they returned to Friedensbourg, from whence they set out this Morning for Jagersprus for a Fortnight. Most of our Ships, employed this Year in the Whale Fishery, are arrived, and have been very successful. We have received Advice, that our two Men of War arrived safe at the Cape of Good Hope the 2d of April last, from whence they were to sail in a Day or two for the Coast of Malabar: They had a fine Passage to the Cape, having lost only about five or six Sailors, and very few Soldiers.

Vienna, Aug. 16. On Sunday last, about Ten o'Clock at Night, the Empress Queen was safely deliver'd at Schonbrun of an Archdutchess, who was baptized next Morning about Eleven, by the Names of Mary-Charlotte-Louise-Josephe-Jeanne-Antoine: The Pope's Nuncio performed the Ceremony, and the French Ambassador the Marquis d'Hautesfort, stood Godfather in the Name of the most Christian King.

Berlin, Aug. 16. Baron Damnitz, Lieutenant Colonel of the Regiment of Foot of Kalckstein, has obtained Leave to resign his Post; on which Account, and that of his former good Services, the King allows him a considerable Pension. On Saturday last Baron Greiffenheim, heretofore Envoy Extraordinary from the Court
