

And all His Majesty's Subjects, (other than such as are lawfully authorized thereunto,) going to, or found in the East-Indies, are declared guilty of a High Crime, and Misdemeanor, and are made liable to Corporal Punishment, Imprisonment, or Fine, for the same, at the Discretion of such of His Majesty's Courts of Record at Westminster, where the Prosecution for such Offence shall be commenced.

And every Person so offending may be seized, and brought to England, and committed to Goal there, by any one of His Majesty's Justices of the Peace, until sufficient Security be given by Natural-born Subjects or Denizens, to appear in the Court, where such Prosecution shall be commenced, to answer the same, and not depart without Leave of the Court.

3d Geo. II. Cap. 14.] By an Act passed in the 3d Year of His present Majesty, it is Enacted, That if any of His Majesty's Subjects (other than the East-India Company, and those licensed by them) shall directly, or indirectly, go to, trade, or adventure into, or from, the East-Indies, every such Offender shall incur the Forfeiture, and Loss, of all the Ships, and Vessels, employed in such Voyage, Trade, or Adventure; and also all the Goods laden thereupon, or that were sent to, acquired, traded, or adventured, within the East-Indies, and all the Proceed, and Effects, of the same, and Double the Value thereof.

Barcelona, Oct. 21. The King's four Chebecks, which have been for some Time past on a Cruize in the Mediterranean, under the Command of Don Zarano, entred this Port a few Days ago; and his Majesty's two Ships, the Queen and the Tiger, from which they were separated in a violent Storm of Wind, are daily expected. We learn from St. Sebastians, that on the 14th Instant, the St. Philip and St. Ferdinand, both from Campeche, were put into Port Passage richly laden, having 143331 Pieces of Eight on board, besides a large Quantity of Cochineal, and other valuable Merchandize.

Genoa, Oct. 27. We are informed by the Master of a Pink which arrived here lately from Barcelona, that the Algerine Corsairs were cruizing in great Numbers in the Spanish Seas; and that they had taken, on the 12th Instant, a Bark from Catalonia, loaded with Wine, with thirty Persons on board, amongst whom were six Women and two small Children, who were all carried into Slavery.

Milan, Oct. 30. We are assured, that some of the Regiments of Horse, quartered in this Dutchy, will shortly receive Orders to march into the Mantuan, for the Conveniency of Forage, of which they have this Year great Plenty. They are replacing, upon our Ramparts, several Pieces of Cannon which have been lately new cast by Order of the Duke our Sovereign.

Stockholm, Oct. 30. The Court is still at Drotningholm, from whence the King often comes here to assist at the Deliberations of the Senate. Last Week five new Edicts were published here, the first of which explains an Ordonnance published in the Year 1748, relating to Stamp Paper and Parchment; the second continues the present Methods of discharging the Debts of the Crown; the third and fourth, explain the general Regulation of the Marine which was established in the Month of March 1748; and the fifth contains several new Regulations for the Encouragement of the Woollen Manufactory established in this Kingdom.

Copenhagen, Oct. 31. The King, who went the Beginning of last Week to Jagersbourg, in order to take the Diversion of Hunting, returned here on Thursday last in perfect Health; and the next Day the Saxon Minister had a private Audience of his Majesty, to notify the Birth of the Prince of whom the Electoral Princess of Saxony was lately delivered. The Marriage of M. Shack, one of the Gentlemen of his Majesty's Bedchamber, with Mademoiselle de Juel, second Daughter to the Chamberlain of that Name, was declared at Court a few Days ago.

Vienna, Nov. 1. Count Richcourt, President of the Council of the Regency of Tuscany, is arrived here from Florence, and has been received with great Marks of Esteem by their Imperial Majesties. On Saturday last Count Sobek, one of her Imperial Majesty's Privy Council, took the usual Oaths to qualify himself for the important Post of President of the High Tribunal of the Dutchy of Carinthia, to which he was lately appointed. A Treaty of Marriage is on Foot between Prince Lobkowitz, and the Widow of the late Prince Lichtenstein, and 'tis said the same will be celebrated in a short Time. A strong Detachment of the Troops in this Garrison, marched from hence a few Days ago for Upper Austria, in order to prevent the Country People of certain Districts in that Province, from assembling in a tumultuous Manner, as they have lately done upon very frivolous Occasions.

Marfeilles, Nov. 3. Captain Andre, Commander of a Polack named the Marine, who arrived here a few Days since from Alexandria, reports, that he fell in with three Algerine Chebecks off the Island of Pantellaria, and that after they had obliged him to produce his Passports, they continued their Route in order to join a Man of War of that Nation of thirty Guns; that the next Day he met four of the Maltese Gallies in quest of the said Man of War, and that having some Days after stop'd at the Gulph of Palma, he was informed that the Maltese had actually come up with and taken her.

Dresden, Nov. 5. We are informed by our last Letters from Poland, that the General Diet of the States of that Kingdom broke up unsuccessfully on the 26th past; and that his Polish Majesty had thereupon left Grodno the next Day on his Return to Warsaw, in order to hold a Senatus Consilium.

Hambourg, Nov. 7. The Prince Bishop of Lubeck set out this Morning with a numerous Retinue for Cassel, where his Marriage with the eldest Daughter of Prince Maximilian of Hesse is to be celebrated on the 12th Instant.
