From Tuesday November 21, to Saturday November 25, 1752:

St. James's, November 22.

THIS Day the Right Honourable the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled, waited on his Majesty, to congratulate him on his safe Return; and being introduced to his Majesty by his Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord Chamberlain of his Majesty's Household, Richard Adams, Esq; the Recorder, made their Compliments in the following Address.

To the King's most Excellent Majesty:

The humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of the City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Most Gracious Sovereign,

AMIDST the general Joy of the Nation for your Majesty's safe and happy Return to your British Dominions, be pleased to accept the sincere Congratulations of your Majesty's most dutiful and loyal Subjects the Lord Mayor, Aldermen and Commons of your City of London, in Common Council assembled.

Permit us at the same Time, Royal Sir, to repeat the just and grateful Sense we have of your Majesty's paternal Care over your People, and of the many Favours by which your Majesty hath graciously distinguished your City of London.

May the Divine Providence long preserve your Majesty to reign over these Kingdoms; and may there never be wanting a Succession of Princes in your Royal House, formed by your great Example, to continue the Blessing of Civil and Religious Freedom to latest Posterity.

To which Address his Majesty was pleased to return this most gracious Answer.

I Thank you, for this very dutiful, and affectionate Address. The Support, and Improvement, of the Trade, and Commerce, of my People, is so essential to the Welfare, and Prosperity, of my Kingdoms; that the City of London may always depend upon my particular Attention to it; and upon the Continuance of my Favour, and Protection.

They were received very graciously, and all had the Honour to kiss his Majesty's Hand.

After which his Majesty was pleased to confer the Honour of Knighthood on

The Right Honourable Crisp Gascoyne, Esq; Lord Mayor.

Richard Adams, Esq; Recorder;

Charles Apgill and Richard Glyn, Esqrs; Sheriffs.

Thomas Harrison, Esq; Chamberlain.

Petersbourg, Oct. 25. On Saturday last the Empress quitted her Summer Palace, and retired to her Winter Palace. Her Imperial Majesty having given Orders for most of the Regiments which compose the Troops of this Empire to change their respective Quarters, they are all now actually in Motion for that Purpose. We are informed by several private Letters from Derbent and Astracan, that the Troubles in Persia continue to encrease, and 'tis greatly feared that unhappy Kingdom will in the End be totally ruined.

Naples, Oct. 26. Their Majesties continue at Portici, taking the Diversions of the Season. They write from Messina, that the Manufacture of Camblets, lately established in that City; meets with great Encouragement.

Rome, Oct. 30. The Pope has approved of the Nomination which the King of the two Sicilies lately made of the Abbe de Altamura to be Archbishop of Otranto. M. Borrul, the new Auditor de Rota for the Kingdom of Aragon, had some Days ago his first publick Audience of the Pope in that Quality. They have felt so many slight Shocks of Earthquakes within these few Days past in the Dutchy of Urbini, that most of the Nobility and Gentry who have Country Seats in that Dutchy; have quitted them much sooner than usual, and are returned to this City. M. Millo, the Apostolical Datary, who went some Time since by the Pope's Orders to Bologna, in order to take an exact Account of the Revenues of that Archbishoprick, is daily expected from thence with the young Prince Lambertini, one of the Pope's Nephews. By our last Letters from Naples we are informed of the Death of the Bishop of Tremoli, but no one is as yet appointed to succeed him.
