

Warsaw, Nov. 11. We learn from the Frontiers of the Ukraine, that a Detachment of Troops from the Crown Army having lately come up with another large Party of Heyducks, had fallen upon them, and cut them to Pieces; and that the Defeats those Heyducks have lately sustained, have so intimidated and weakened them, that they have entirely quitted the Polish Territories.

Ratisbon, Nov. 15. Count Seilern, whom the Empress Queen of Hungary has appointed Ambassador from Bohemia to the General Diet of the Empire, in the Room of Count Franckenberg, arrived here on Sunday Night last from Vienna. The Barons de Greiffenheim and Rantzau, Ministers from the Courts of Sweden and Denmark to the said Diet, have delivered their Credential Letters, and are both acknowledged in their respective Qualities.

Copenhagen, Nov. 15. On the 10th Instant we had as violent a Storm of Wind as has been remembered for some Years, by which several Merchantmen in this Port were drove from their Anchors, and received considerable Damage; and by the Pieces of Wrecks which are since come on Shore, we are afraid this Hurricane has made great Havock amongst the Ships along our Coast.

Hague, Nov. 23. By our last Letters from Germany we have Advice, that the Elector of Bavaria, accompanied by several of the principal Lords of his Court, was gone from Munich for Bonn, in order to pay a Visit to his Uncle the Elector of Cologne. We have received an Account from the Brill, that M. Maclean, Lieutenant Colonel of the Scotch Regiment of Majorisbanks, died lately there, in the 64th Year of his Age.
