A General Court of the Company of Proprietors of the Undertaking for Recovering and Preserving the Navigation of the River DEE, will be held at their Office in White Hart Court, Lombard street, on Tuesday the 27th of this Instant, at Eleven o'Clock in the Forenoon, on special Affairs; of which all concerned are hereby desired to take Notice.

By Order of the Committee,
James Blackwell, Secretary.

Sunderland, Feb. 3, 1753.

WHEREAS William Maude, of the Town of Sunderland by the Sea, in the County of Durham, Merchant, set forward from South Shields, in the said County, in the Evening of the 24th of last Month, January, on his Way homewards, since which he has not been seen or heard of, tho' the most diligent Search and Enquiry has been made after him; and from his Horse being found, and several other Circumstances, there is the greatest Reason to apprehend the said William Maude has been assassinated upon the High Road, and his being of a corpulent Size makes it highly probable, that more than one Person has been concerned in perpetrating the horrid Deed, and conveying away the dead Body: Therefore, in order to bring the Villains, combined in this dark Affair, to condign and exemplary Punishment, the disconsolate Wife of the said William Maude (now most likely his Widow) hereby offers a Reward of Fifty Guineas, over and above the legal Encouragement for apprehending Robbers on the High-way, to any Person that will make a full Discovery of the same, so that one or more of those concerned in the barbarous Crime may be convicted thereof; and likewise, if any one of the Accomplices, except the Assassin directly guilty of the Murder, will make Information and Discovery of the rest, so that he, she, or they may be convicted of the Fact, such Person shall receive the above Reward of Fifty Guineas; and not only so, but all Endeavours will be used by the Relations and Friends of the said William Maude to obtain his Majesty's most gracious Pardon for the Discoverer.

N. B. The said William Maude had on a fresh Great Coat, of dark Drab Devonshire Kersey, with a large Cape and Hood, and Ferret to tie it close; a full Suit of Grey Cloth, with Trimmings of the same, and the Coat particularly long skirted; a Pair of Boots, with Spurs flower'd and cover'd with Silver; two Pair of mottled Yarn Stockings; a good Linnen Shirt, mark'd WM 6 with blue Silk; a Silk Handkerchief about his Neck, red Ground, flower'd with yellow; another in his Pocket of stamp't Linnen, red Ground, flower'd with white; a large good Hat, without a Button; a flaxen-coloured Wig, very long and not much curl'd; a Steel Spring over it, lined with black Silk at the Bottom; a Pair of carv'd Silver Knee Buckles, with Silver Anchors, and a Jocky Whip without a Cord.

If any of the above Particulars are offer'd to Sale, it is desired they may be stopp'd, and the Person so offering them secured, till a proper Examination may be made, in order to obtain a further Discovery; and if any Person can assist by these Means, or any other, to bring this dark and barbarous Affair to Light, he or she shall be handsomely rewarded for all Trouble.

DR. JAMES's Powder for FEVERS, and other Inflammatory Distempers, published by Virtue of His MAJESTY's ROYAL LETTERS PATENT, will remove (as has been experienced in many thousand Cases) any continual acute Fever in a few Hours, though attended with Convulsions, Light-headedness, and the worst Symptoms: But if taken in the Beginning of a Fever, one Dose is generally sufficient to perform a Cure. *

It is likewise a most effectual Remedy for all internal Inflammation, Pleuritis, Quincies, acute Rheumatisms, and the Lowness of Spirits, and Uneasinesses proceeding from slow and latent Fevers, which are generally mistaken for Vapours and Hysterics; and a single Dose remarkably stops the Progress of a Cold, and certainly prevents the ill Consequences arising from that very common Disorder, the Source of almost all Distempers.

This Powder (which is a very safe and pleasant Medicine to take) is sold by J. Newbery at the Bible and Sun in St. Paul's Church-yard, over-against the North Door of the Church, at 2 s. 6 d. the two Doses, with good Allowance to those who buy it for charitable Uses, or to sell again; and by James Esdall, Printer, on the Blind Quay, Dublin.
