Leghorn, March 10.

THE last Letters we received here from Corsica say, that the Malecontents have had several Meetings to consider of proper Measures for opposing the Genoese; after the French Troops have abandoned that Island, but that nothing has as yet been agreed on. The same Letters add, that the French Troops lay quiet in their Cantonments, and only waited for the Transports, in order to embark for Provence.

Florence, March 13. The new Farmers of the Revenue of this Grand Dutchy, have agreed for Leases of the same for nine Years, to commence the first of January next. Count Richecourt, President of the Council of our Regency, is shortly expected here from Vienna, when several new Regulations will be made for the Improvement of our Finances and Commerce.

Turin, March 15. They write from Parma, that the Infant Duke has appointed M. Astier to be Intendant of his Finances, in the room of Count Carraccioli, lately dismissed from that Employment.

Stockholm, March 19. An Ordonnance is published here, appointing the 4th of May, the 1st and 29th of June, and the 24th of September, to be observed as publick Fast Days throughout this Kingdom. They continue to assure us, that the King intends to take a Journey this Year into Scania, and some other Provinces which he has not visited since his coming to the Throne. His Majesty has ordered the Regiment of Hamilton, and those quartered in Swedish Pomerania, and in the Island of Rugen, to be augmented with ten Men each Company, and they have already began to raise Recruits for that Purpose. 'Tis confidently reported, that the Queen is again with Child, and that the same will soon be declared at Court. The Gold Mines discovered some Time since in the Island of Smaland, continue to be worked with great Success, and they are now actually coining at the Mint a large Quantity of Ducats of Gold extracted from Ore taken out of the said Mines.

Copenhagen, March 26. They are continuing to make Preparations for the Camp intended to be formed in the Neighbourhood of Rotschild. Upon a Representation made to the King in Relation to the Prohibition of wearing Jewels of all Kinds, his Majesty has thought proper to make some Variation in the Ordonnance published on that Occasion, whereby all artificial Stones made up in this Kingdom, are permitted to be worn. The King has ordered, that for the Future the Engineers belonging to the Fortifications, shall have Liberty to serve in his Majesty's Armies; and that Majors and Captains of the Artillery shall rank with Majors and Captains of the Guards.

Dresden, March 26. On Monday last was celebrated at Court, with great Magnificence, the Feast of St. Joseph, whose Name the Queen and Madame la Dauphine bear; on which Occasion their Majesties received the Compliments of the Nobility, Foreign Ministers, and other Persons of Distinction: After which they dined in Publick with the Princes and Princesses of the Royal Family; and the Evening concluded with the Firing of Cannon, and other Marks of publick Rejoycing.

Berlin, March 26. The King has ordered a spacious Edifice to be erected in this City for the Manufacturing of Silk, under the Direction of M. Schutzen, one of the Directors of the Embden Company. To-morrow the Birthday of the Queen-Mother will be celebrated as usual, for which Purpose they are now making the necessary Preparations. The two young Princes Corsini, who arrived here a few Days ago from Dresden, are treated at Court with great Marks of Distinction.

Hambourg, March 29. We are informed by our last Letters from Stockholm, that Orders have been given for all the Troops in that Kingdom to hold themselves in Readiness to pass in Review during the Course of the Month of May next. They write from Moscow, that the Empress of Russia is quite recovered of her late Indisposition, and assists regularly at her Councils. The same Advices add, that the Vice Chancellor Count Woronzoff, who was so ill for several Days, that his Life was despaired of, is now so well recovered, as to be able to do Business.

Utrecht, March 30. Last Wednesday was strictly observed here as a general Fast, on which Occasion upwards of three Thousand and forty Florins were collected for the Poor.

Brussels, March 31. The Cardinal of Bavaria, Prince and Bishop of Liege, arrived here on Tuesday last in the Evening, attended by Count Horion, Grand Master of his Household, Count Breidenbach, Great Chancellor, and Count Sedlnitzky, his Master of the Horse; he was saluted at his Entrance into this City by a general Discharge of the Cannon upon our Ramparts, and was received with great Marks of Distinction by Prince Charles of Lorraine, who immediately conducted him to an Apartment prepared for his Reception in the Palace.
