

And 'tis even said, that the States of the Dutchy of Wirtembourg, in Consideration of this Alliance, are going to settle on that Prince a yearly Pension of 30,000 German Florins.

Cologn, April 16. By Letters from Constantinople, dated the 27th of February last, we have Advice, that Prince Heraclius of Georgia has made his publick Entry into Ispahan, where he was acknowledged and proclaimed Sophi, or King of Persia, in the Possession of which Throne 'tis thought he will not be molested by the Porte; the Design of the Grand Seignior, in drawing together an Army on the Frontiers of that Kingdom, being, as 'tis now given out, with no other View than to forward the Negotiations that are going to be set on Foot for settling the Limits of each other's Territories.

Dusseldorp, April 17. Prince Frederick of Deux-Ponts, General of the Palatine Troops, is expected here next Friday, Part of his Baggage being already arrived. After he has reviewed the Troops quartered in this Dutchy, and that of Juliers, which is the Business he comes upon, his Highness proposes taking a Tour to Liege and Bruffels before he returns to Manheim.

Hague, April 19. They write from Leuwarden, that the States of the Province of Friseland are to open their Assembly next Monday, when 'tis expected a Deputation will be appointed to come hither, in order to execute a Commission of Importance.

London, March 17, 1753.

General Post-Office.

Whereas a Person of about Six Feet high, Fifty Years of Age, of a Swarthy Complexion, much pitted with the Small Pox, and wore a darkish coloured Coat, and a brown Bob Wig, came last Night, about Six of the Clock, to the Shop of Mr. Thomas Harding, Goldsmith, in the Minories, and bought of him a straight bodied Silver Tankard, Weight 25 oz. 18 dwt. with the Letters C. D. marked, by his Desire, on the Handle thereof; and the said Person having given, in Payment, for the said Tankard, a Bank Post Bill, which was taken out of the Cirencester Mail, which was robbed on the 18th of April, 1751, and indorsed the said Bank Post Bill by the Name of Charles Dew.

This is therefore to give Notice to all Goldsmiths and others, to whom the said Tankard may be offered in Sale, that whoever apprehends, or causes to be apprehended the Person above described, who is strongly suspected of having been a Principal, or an Accomplice in the said Robbery, shall, upon Conviction, be entitled to a Reward of Two Hundred Pounds, over and above the Reward given by Act of Parliament for apprehending of Highwaymen.

By Command of the Post-Master-General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

Victualling Office, April 18, 1753.
